

British Form New Army in France; Nazis Routed in Abbeville Area

Roosevelt Asks Billion More To Meet 'World-Wide War' Threat

New Message Cites Latest Events Abroad

Request for Authority to Call National Guard Opposed in Senate.

By The Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, May 31.—President Roosevelt asked an evidently willing congress to increase the extraordinary defense fund more than a billion dollars today and, simultaneously, stirred up a hot controversy with a request for authority to call the National Guard to active duty.

Recommending additional outlays which reliable sources said would total about $1,375,000,000 and provide for more planes, tanks and ammunition plants, Mr. Roosevelt said that "the almost incredible events of the past two weeks" in Europe had necessitated enlargement of the military program beyond the proportions he suggested May 16.

While no one could forecast the future, he told the lawmakers, America's defenses must be made "more certain" as long as a possibility existed "that not one continent or two continents but all continents may become involved in a world-wide war."

Co-operation Pledged.
Statements approving better defenses came immediately from members of both parties. Democratic leaders forecast action on the President's request in "double-quick" time, while Representative Martin, of Massachusetts, the house minority leader, said "Republicans are united in every effort to improve defenses."

The controversy that broke out among senate members over Mr. Roosevelt's request for authority to call to duty "such portion of the National Guard as may be deemed necessary to maintain our position of neutrality and to safeguard the national defense" was the first of consequence to greet any part of his expanded defense program.

The guards number 240,000 men and at present can be called to duty by the President only with the consent of state Governors.

Vandenberg Critical.
Senator Vandenberg, Republican, Michigan, declared on the senate floor that the request was "shocking."

"It sounds," he said, "like a request for power to order at least partial mobilization by executive authority alone."

Senators Wheeler, Democrat, Montana, and Bridges, Republican, New Hampshire, agreed that congress should stay on the job, but Senator Minton, Democrat, Indiana, observed:

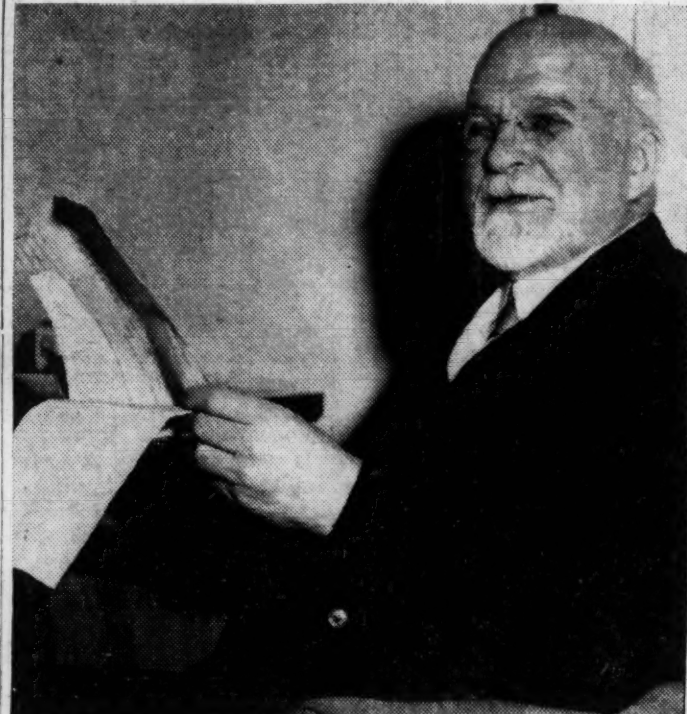

"If we have to use our regular army to police adjacent shores that may come under our protection due to the events in Europe, it can readily be seen that the guard and the reserve would be needed at home."

Secretary Woodring, however, announced that the War Department had no intention of recommending at this time that the guardsmen be summoned to active duty.

(More defense news on Page 3.)

In Other Pages

Church news.	Page 6
Classified Ads.	Pages 18, 19
Comics.	Page 16, 17
Court Decisions.	Page 9
Daily Cross-Word Puzzle.	Page 16
Editorial Page.	Page 4
Financial News.	Page 8, 9
Local News.	Page 5
Obituaries.	Page 6
Picture Page.	Page 18
Private Lives.	Page 18
Radio Programs.	Page 17
Society.	Page 18, 19
Sports.	Page 15, 16
Theater Programs.	Page 2
Weather.	Page 6
Women's Page Features.	Page 14
Editor: Roosevelt	Ida Jean Kain
Dr. William Brady	Caroline Chatfield
Dress Patterns	Shirley Graham
Clifford News	Wanda Gwin
Points for Parents

Constitution Staff Photo—Bill Wilson.
"THE ALLIES WILL STAND FIRM"—Dr. J. H. Rushbrooke, president of the Baptist World Alliance, just arrived from London to direct war-time unity of his far-flung organization, who said Hitler's effort to drive a wedge between England and France will fail.

Baptist Leader U.S. To Guard Declares Allies New Battleship To Stand Firm At Launching

Determination Will Not Be Shaken, Dr. Rush- brooke Asserts.

By WILLARD COPE.

England and France will stand firm. Hitler's obvious, imminent political and propaganda effort to drive a wedge between the two Allies, to seek a quick peace on the basis of present victories in an attempt to avoid the long pull ahead, aided by Mussolini's gestures—real or simulated—will not shake the determination of these two peoples inured through long history to conditions requiring dogged perseverance.

In sum, this was the opinion expressed last night by Dr. J. H. Rushbrooke, of London, president of the Baptist World Alliance, just arrived in Atlanta yesterday from a harried Europe to direct holding firm the ties of his far-flung institution in the face of great catastrophe.

Deeply Moved.
Dr. Rushbrooke, despite his 70 years, was calm and assured, but deeply moved by the news of recent disastrous days. When he left England the German thrust had not gone beyond Scandinavia.

He will hurry back after numerous conferences which will take him as far as western Canada. Temporarily the Alliance headquarters has been shifted from London to Washington.

"This is far more than a war between two imperial powers, as many have seemed in the past to believe," he declared, earnestly. "Even if it were so, the record shows the great disparity in the aims of these empires."

Concerned for U. S.
"The German effort is an furtherance of actual racial dominance by their people, while the British effort in colonizing always has been to set up the peoples within the empire on a basis of self-government as quickly as possible."

Great concern for the future of America was expressed by the head of the religious organization, which has its chief membership here. "I see signs that the American people are responding rapidly and with heartening sincerity to the demands of this grave situation," he said. "The principles for which America as much as any nation has stood are in peril. The clash of motives between the opposing military forces is quite clear; and between these motives America can only agree with those of the Allies."

Two of his associates in the congress, Dr. Louis D. Newton, a vice president, and Dr. Ryland Knight, were among those to greet him on his arrival here. The distinguished visitor will appear in the pulpits of the Druid Hills Baptist church tomorrow morning and the Second-Ponce de Leon Baptist church tomorrow night.

Rivers Halts Federal Probe Of State Books

Tells Inspectors Re- quests for Records Must Be in Writing.

Governor Rivers yesterday made good his threat to bar federal investigators from the state capitol by ordering highway records closed to two postal inspectors and later informing them they would have to submit any requests for records to him in writing.

After being told they could not see records of the highway department under specific instructions from Governor Rivers, Inspectors T. H. Jervey and C. R. Clark immediately went to the chief executive's office and waited several hours before they were given a conference with him late yesterday afternoon.

Wants Record.

Although the two inspectors refused to comment, Governor Rivers said following the conference: "I told the inspectors that henceforth any request for records would have to be submitted to me in writing, and that I would reply in writing, so that there would be no misunderstanding about our respective positions and as a matter of record for this office."

"When I see what they request I can intelligently pass on it," he added.

Applies to All.

The Governor said his order applied to all state departments and records and that the inspectors agreed to this arrangement.

He took his stand against what he termed further federal "snooping," following the indictment by a federal grand jury in Rome Thursday of Dr. Hiram W. Evans, former imperial wizard of the Ku Klux Klan, and John W. Greer Jr., clerk of the state house of representatives and formerly purchasing agent, for alleged irregularities in the purchase of highway materials.

When the postal inspectors appeared at the highway building yesterday to continue their investigation, they first consulted Sam Boykin, secretary-treasurer of the highway board, who took them to see Herman Watson and L. L. Patten, members of the board.

Have Long Wait.
Watson and Patten told the inspectors the Governor had ordered that no records be shown them without his specific permission.

The Governor was out of the city on a trip to Dahlgren until about 3:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon. The inspectors waited most of the afternoon in the outer offices and were finally admitted to see the Governor about 5 o'clock, after making repeated requests for a conference.

Calls in Arnall.

Soon after his arrival the chief executive summoned Attorney General Ellis Arnall to his office. Later he conferred with Watson, W. R. Neel, state highway engineer, and George T. McDonald, assistant state highway engineer in charge of post roads and WPA projects.

Asked to comment on the Governor's order, United States District Attorney Lawrence Camp said it was a matter for the post office department and that he would have nothing to say unless it was brought to his office in an official way.

During the day, Greer voluntarily appeared before United States Commissioner David J. Meyerhardt and made $5,000 bond. Bench warrants were issued for Evans' arrest during the day and it was reported they would be served either today or tomorrow.

(More news of indictments on Page 9.)

Constitution Staff Photo—H. J. Clayton.
SEARCH HALTED—Postal Inspectors T. H. Jervey and C. R. Clark cooled their heels in the Governor's office yesterday afternoon waiting for permission to continue their search of highway board records. The inspectors were refused admission to the board's office yesterday morning after Governor Rivers, commenting on a federal grand jury indictment against Hiram W. Evans and John Greer Jr., alleging a conspiracy to control the sale of asphalt to the board, said he would deny the federal investigators admittance to the state building. The Governor ordered the inspectors to submit their requests for records in writing, after the inspectors had waited several hours.

'For God's Sake Give Us Planes,' Tommies Shout

Plea Rings Through Nation as 90,000 Sol- diers Arrive.

LONDON, May 31.—(AP)—England echoed tonight the cry of her returned Tommies: "For God's sake give us more airplanes." The plea rang through a day which saw 90,000 Allied soldiers snatched safely from the Flanders trap, and all Britain heartened by the assurance she had escaped total disaster in the channel horror.

Although officialdom pronounced the work of the Royal Air Force in Flanders "magnificent," the tributes gave additional weight to the clamor for more and better planes of all types.

"When we duck a Nazi bomb," exclaimed an infantryman, "we want to see a British plane chase the bomber."

The sensational plucking of troops from the French shore and transporting them across the channel is being accomplished despite an infestation of spies, incessant bombing, midge torpedo activity, and a land assault into which the Germans flung much of their might.

Returning Tommies declared Nazi losses in Flanders were five times as great as those of the Allies.

Although the rescue of the bottled-up Allied army remained Britain's greatest concern, informed London observers said they looked for an early attempt by Adolf Hitler to divide England and France with separate peace offers. The factors were mentioned:

1. Threat would be made of Italian entry into the war to induce acceptance.
2. The French would be threatened with a smashing assault by land and air against Paris.
3. The British would be asked to accept Hitler's terms or face "total war," presumably meaning invasion.

There was no indication anywhere that the British or French would heed separate peace proposals.

21 British Attack 80 Planes In Lead-Filled Dunkerque Sky

12 Nazis Fall in Flames as New Defiant Fighter Proves Its Worth Against Superiority in Numbers.

By DREW MIDDLETON.

WITH ROYAL AIR FORCE COMMAND, SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND, May 31.—(AP)—(Passed by Air Ministry Censor)

A score of British fighters told today how in a lead-filled sky over Dunkerque they shot down 12 German planes, although outnumbered 80 to 21.

The British lost but one plane, they said.

The battle saw four score Nazi Heinkels and Messerschmitts ranged against the R. A. F.'s small force of Hurricanes and Defiants.

Some of the victorious British pilots and their machineguns belong to a squadron which in four days was credited with downing 53 German planes.

The men in this noted squadron maintain that Britain's new 2-man, 4-gun fighter plane can lick its weight in Messerschmitts anywhere, any time.

Eight Nazis in One Day.
One of the youthful pilots, called "Cookie," shot down eight German planes last Wednesday. He got another Thursday.

The job of these pilots for the last several days has been to protect the road of fire to the sea through which the Allied forces are fleeing Flanders to the English channel.

"Those Jerries don't seem to be able to tell us from Hurricanes," said "Cookie." (Hurricanes fire forward.)

"They come alongside us, or as we say, 'on the beam,' and the gunner lets go."

"It was like knocking apples off a tree."

He paused, grinned, and added: "They gave us a little more hell today."

Messerschmitts, the best plane they have.

"In the running battle which spread along the coast we shot down 12 enemy planes. They fell in flames. We saw three more wobble and spin out of line."

"We didn't chase them. You don't in this war."

Inevitable Tea.
The fliers related their experiences at their base, where 10 minutes after they returned from patrol duty over Dunkerque they were sipping tea and lolling deck chairs.

"I think we are knocking down five for every one we lose, putting two out of action for every one their factories can produce."

The pilot who made that statement is a senior officer, holder of several medals and citations. The officer emphasized that single combat "business" is avoided as much as possible.

"We fly in box formation," he explained, "and heaven help the man who loses it."

"I call the youngsters back when they stray. It might be one of Jerry's decoys he's chasing. They're good at that."

He emphasized, as did all England tonight, that "we need ships and more ships."

"Our ships are better armored," he said. "Our ships are more maneuverable. Whether it's nature or training, when we see Jerry we attack. When he sees us, he counts us before he fights. But we need more ships."

Busy Day and Night.
He was enthusiastic about the new Defiant monoplane, with Merlin engines capable of 300 miles per hour, which carry four machineguns in the power-controlled turret.

The newer models will carry still heavier armor.

Allies Continue Rescue of Men From Flanders

90,000 Reach England; Italy's War Entrance Held Imminent.

By The Associated Press.
A second British expeditionary force, following up the one whose remnants still are fleeing Flanders, was being organized in France last night behind the Somme front, where French tanks battered away at the southern end of the German salient.

Allied pressure on the Somme front, the French said, had "cleaned up" the Abbeville sector, though capture of Abbeville itself was not claimed. The French said they regained unbroken command south of the Somme.

This new action on the Somme may answer the question: Where will the next move come in the war?

It might mean the Allies were making a move to head off a German drive on Paris. Such a thrust, with the French capital the goal and possibly Italy blasting at France from the south, was forecast in German army circles on the western front.

French Secretive.
The French kept secret the strength and location of the second B. E. F.

The British air ministry, meantime, reported broad activity of the fleet air arm in arriving German forces driving in to deal a death blow to Allied units withdrawing from the channel pocket around Dunkerque.

The French said Allied northern armies were being rescued "on a large scale" through Dunkerque. The Abbeville bridgehead was taken, but the capture of the town itself—lying to the north of the river—was not claimed. It remained in no-man's land. Hundreds of Nazi prisoners and a mass of German war material were declared seized.

Sensation Expected.
The Nazi Fuehrer was reported to be preparing a "sensational" announcement involving Italy, World War ally of Britain and France, but now aligned with Germany in a "pact of steel." Hitler had just received a communication described as "of the greatest importance" from his axis partner, Premier Mussolini.

About 30,000 soldier survivors of the disastrous Flanders campaign, including 50,000 British, were reported to have landed safely in England.

Tens of thousands of mud-stained, battle-weary British tomnies, French poilus, and some Belgian soldiers who refused to lay down arms at the command of King Leopold III, arrived at English ports and sped to rest stations in the countryside after running a terrible gantlet of fire.

(Additional war news and picture will be found on Page 3.)

War at a Glance

PARIS—French clean Germans out of Abbeville sector; regain unbroken command south of Somme; lead Nazis back to continued "large scale" Allied withdrawals at Dunkerque.

BERLIN—Jubilant Germans hail Flanders victory as overpowering blow against Allies; man in street asks, "Where next?" Troops sing, "On to Paris." High command says Nazis "now released from new tasks." Hitler, Italian envoy confer at front.

LONDON—Ninety thousand Allied troops rescued from Flanders, more coming; returned Tommies cry: "For God's sake give us more planes"; report Nazi losses, five to one; Hitler expected to try to divide Allies with separate peace offers; Britain acknowledges loss of second cruiser, off Norway.

ROME—Fascist commentary says Italian demands on Allies "will be enforced with arms," but II Duce still doesn't say when.

Giant Addition Is Planned for Plant Atkinson

Power Generating Capacity at Nearby Site To Be Doubled.

Immediate construction of a $3,600,000 addition to Plant Atkinson, the Georgia Power Company's steam-electric generating plant on the Chattahoochee river near Atlanta, partly in anticipation of a war industries demand, was announced by P. S. Arkwright, president of the company, yesterday after approval of the new construction project at a special meeting of the board of directors.

The new generating unit will double the plant's present capacity and bring it to 200,000 horsepower when completed in the fall of 1941. It will be the largest electric power plant in Georgia.

PARAMOUNT All Seats 20c
Til 1 P. M.

The Mightiest of All
Thrill Pictures
"DR. CYCLOPS"
in Technicolor

AIR-CONDITIONED

LOEW'S "TURNABOUT"
ADOLPHE MENJOU
CAROLE LANDIS

PLAZA Ponce de Leon Held Over

Gone With the Wind
Seats on sale through Tuesday.
Matinee today (2 P. M.) not reserved, 75c, incl. tax. Night shows: (8 P. M.) reserved, $1.10, incl. tax.

ROXY
Peachtree at Calhoun, N.E. 5133
ALL THIS WEEK

THE HUMAN MONSTER
BELA LUGOSI
EDGAR WALLACE
A MONOGRAPH PICTURE

LATEST WAR NEWS EVENTS!!

Women Are Tough Angels

Except...
When They're In Some Pilot's Arms!

POWER-DIVE DRAMA!
"FLIGHT ANGELS"
TAIL-SPIN
THRILLS!

VIRGINIA BRUCE
DENNIS MORGAN
WAYNE MORRIS
RALPH BELLAMY
JANE WYMAN

UNTIL 12 M. 20c
AFTER 12 M. 25c

STARTS SUNDAY!

CAPITOL
Air-Conditioned

They're Hotter Than
The Equator!

JAMES CAGNEY
ANN SHERIDAN
PAT O'BRIEN
IN "TORRID ZONE"
PLUS—
HOMER KNOWLES at the Organ

MIDNITE PREVIEW
Tonight 11:30

THE SOUTH'S FINEST

Comfortably Air-Conditioned

Neighborhood Theaters

ALPHA—"Straight Shooter" with Tim McCoy

AMERICAN—"Law Beyond the Range" with Tim McCoy

BANKHEAD—"Desperate Trails" with Johnny Mack Brown

BROOKHAVEN—"Nancy Drew and the Hidden Staircase" and "In Early Arizona"

BUCKHEAD—"Rancho Grande" with "Henry Goes Arizona"

CASCADE—"Fast and Furious" with Ann Sothern

COLLEGE PARK—"Within the Law" with Ruth Hussey

EMORY—"Our Neighbors, the Carters" with Fay Bainter

EMPIRE—"Kid Nightingale" with Jane Bryan

FAIRFAX—"Cowboys From Texas" with "You Can't Get Away With Murder"

FAIRVIEW—"Man From Montreal" and "On Your Feet"

FULTON—"Li-Ho" with Conrad Veidt

HANGAR—"Union Pacific" with Barbara Stanwick

HILAN—"Destiny Rides Again" with James Stewart

KIRKWOOD—"Torchy Runs for Mayor" with Glenda Farrell

PALACE—"Invisible Man Returns" with Vincent Price

PLAZA—"Gone With the Wind" with Clark Gable, 2 and 8 p. m.

PONCE DE LEON—"Charley McCarthy, Detective" with Edgar Bergen

SYLVAN—"The Man Who Wouldn't Talk" with Lloyd Nolan

TECHWOOD—"Romance of the Redwoods" and "The Terror of Tiny Town"

TEMPLE—"Big Guy" and "Torchy Plays With Dynamite"

TENTH STREET—"The Man Who Wouldn't Talk" and "Hidden Power"

WEST END—"Martha of West City" and "Nick Carter, Detective"

Colored Theaters

ASHBY—"Liano Kid" and "Bad Boy"

AL—"Rango" with William Boyd

STRAND—"Renegade Ranger" with George O'Brien

BOVAY—"Four Wives" and "A Champ at Oxford"

LINCOLN—"Pals of the Silver Sage" and "Fish Luck"

HARLEM—"Adventures of Sherlock Holmes" and stage show

RITZ—"Law West of Tombstone" with George O'Brien

and one of the largest in the southeast.

Steady increase in power demand created the need for additional generating capacity. Mr. Arkwright said. A new 60,000 horsepower steam-electric generating plant at Macon, representing a $4,000,000 investment, was announced last October and is part of this development. Construction work at this plant is expected to be completed next summer.

The construction of the two plants will increase the generating capacity of the state-wide system by approximately 25 per cent, the new unit at Plant Atkinson, alone, adding 15 per cent.

On Chattahoochee.

Plant Atkinson is located on the Chattahoochee river in Cobb county near Bolton, about 10 miles from Atlanta. It was placed in operation in October, 1930, and was used as a "stand-by" plant to protect Atlanta's electric service from interruptions.

The following statement was made by President Arkwright: "In deciding to build the addition to Plant Atkinson, we were influenced by several factors.

"Most important was the relation of this plant to the national defense program. In any large-scale rearmament program, Atlanta will almost certainly be a major southeastern center of war industries. To operate these industries, an adequate supply of electric power is absolutely necessary.

"We decided to build a steam-electric plant in Atlanta, rather than a hydro-electric plant on one of the undeveloped water power sites in Georgia, because it is essential that the power source be close at hand, not subject to being cut off by the destruction of long-distance transmission lines.

"It is essential that such a plant be able to run day and night every day. A fuel-operated plant can do that, whereas a hydro-electric plant is dependent on rainfall, and in periods of dry weather can operate at only a fraction of its full capacity.

Wages of nearly $1,000,000 will be paid for work at the plant itself, the company estimated, in addition to jobs that will be created in supplying brick, sand, cement, gravel, lumber and other materials. Georgia materials will be given preference wherever possible.

The present Plant Atkinson is housed in a building 127 feet tall, about the height of a 12-story office building. It measures 126 by 142 feet at the base. The new unit will require an additional structure about the size of the present building.

Senate Approves 5th Column Drive

WASHINGTON, May 31.—(P)—President Roosevelt's reorganization plan designed to "deal quickly" with fifth columns was approved today by the senate, which passed a resolution to put it into effect swiftly. The vote was 55 to 4.

The resolution provides that, 10 days after it becomes law, the Roosevelt program to transfer the immigration service from the Labor Department to the Justice Department shall become effective.

Under existing law, reorganization programs cannot take effect until they have been before congress for 60 days, or unless congress acts to put them into operation earlier.

Amusement Calendar

Downtown Theaters

CAPITOL—"Private Detective," with Jane Wyman, Dick Foran, etc.

LOEW'S—"Turnabout," with Adolphe Menjou, Carole Landis, John Hubbard, William Garvan, etc.

PLAZA—"Gone With the Wind," with Clark Gable, 2 and 8 p. m.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

ROXY—"The Human Monster," with Bela Lugosi, etc.

RHODES—"Waterloo Bridge," with Vivien Leigh, Robert Taylor, Lucille Watson, Virginia Field, C. Aubrey Smith, etc.

Comedy, Music, Action, Horror In Films Here

Productions Lack Big Names But Provide Entertainment.

By LEE ROGERS,
Motion Picture Editor.

A majority of the new films which opened here yesterday fulfill their purpose in providing entertainment.

None of them has big name stars but the productions do not suffer from their lack.

"Dark Command" is an action-packed story of guerrilla warfare which raged in Kansas during the lawless days of the Civil War. It plays the Rialto. Anna Neagle turns to musical comedy in a new interpretation of the Broadway success of the early twenties, "Irene." The Fox screens this.

The comedy of the week and one of the best of the year is "Turnabout," a Hal Roach offering of a Thorne Smith story at Loew's. "Dr. Cyclops" is a monster film in technicolor at the Paramount; "Private Detective," with Jane Wyman, is a murder mystery at the Capitol, and Edgar Wallace's "Human Monster" is the screen story at the Roxy.

"DARK COMMAND"

AT RIALTO EXCITING.

The best motion picture ever to come from the studios of Republic Pictures is "Dark Command," a semi-historical accounting of the dark days in Kansas during the days when Will Quantrell, or Cantrell, looted and burned in mad, lawless campaign for power and money. It's a mixture of western, Civil War and romance which the Rialto is offering.

Reunited in parts more approached the "first" offered them in their first screen success, "Stagecoach," are Claire Trevor and John Wayne. She as a high and aloof southern lady, he as an honest but illiterate Texas cowpuncher.

Cantrell is ably interpreted by Walter Pidgeon, and the manner in which he lets an inherent criminal tendency ease out, changing his character from that of an easy-going school teacher, guarded carefully by his mother (Marjorie Main), to that of a plundering guerrilla leader as a superbly done under the direction of Raoul Walsh.

Scenic effects are unusually realistic and dramatic. One shot shows a team of horses being driven off a cliff to escape a guerrilla band. Another shows the siege of Lawrence, the burning, the killing, the plundering. Still another again emphasizes action in the daring escape and flight across the plains of Wayne, Miss Trevor and Roy Rogers, portraying her brother.

While based on history, the story differs wherever the director and producers deemed necessary for more exciting movie drama. Cantrell is killed and Wayne marries his wife, who had learned to detect.

It's as good a western action film as you can hope to see.

NEW IRENE OPENS

ENGAGEMENT AT FOX

To most persons the story of "Irene" is known. From its Broadway history, it came to the screen, "Alice Blue Gown," which is still popular throughout the world and sung with many parodies.

A new "Irene" opened at the Fox theater yesterday, an Irene in which the central person is Anna Neagle, famed British character actress who is transformed into a glamour girl and made a musical comedy star in this production.

She sings, dances and looks stunning, particularly in the color sequence which shows her in the "Alice Blue Gown."

All the hit songs of the stage success are retained, "Alice Blue Gown," "Irene," "Castle of Dreams." But to all the glory of the stage success, Director-Producer Herbert Wilcox has added his own interpretation of the ragtime sweep the "Alice Blue Gown" number made around the world.

He climaxes this with a barn-sized Negro mammy trucking down Fifth avenue in her blue raiments.

Supporting players ably take attention from trivial details, giving the director plenty of opportunity to focus on his star whom he succeeds in presenting as a versatile actress, capable of light as well as serious roles. In that support goes the combined comedy efforts of Roland Young, Alan Marshall, Ray Milland, May Robson, Billy Burke and Arthur Treacher.

From American standards of swiftly moving action, Wilcox's direction of "Irene" may appear a little slow, but everything is included to make it worth-while entertainment for any time.

"TURNABOUT" AT LOEW'S

FILLED WITH LAUGHS

About the best medicine any doctor could prescribe for the current case of war nerves possessing most everyone is a visit to Loew's this week to see "Turnabout," one of the funniest shows of the year abounding with good acting turned in by an array of excellent character actors.

The basis for the fantastic plot—which finds husband and wife changing places and fades out with hubby about to have a baby—Thorne Smith's book by the same name. Of course, Hollywood has dressed it up a bit and removed some of the risqué scenes and conversation, but enough of the latter has been left whole to class the picture "adult entertainment."

John Hubbard and Carole Landis have the leads in this Hal Roach offering. You may not have heard of either, but after seeing the picture you won't forget they can act. John is called upon to go sissy, portraying Carole in his body. Carole has to adopt masculine mannerisms of walk, action and so forth to portray convincingly John masquerading so to speak, in her body. Voices of course were

Comedy, Music, Action, Horror In Films Here

Productions Lack Big Names But Provide Entertainment.

By LEE ROGERS,
Motion Picture Editor.

A majority of the new films which opened here yesterday fulfill their purpose in providing entertainment.

None of them has big name stars but the productions do not suffer from their lack.

"Dark Command" is an action-packed story of guerrilla warfare which raged in Kansas during the lawless days of the Civil War. It plays the Rialto. Anna Neagle turns to musical comedy in a new interpretation of the Broadway success of the early twenties, "Irene." The Fox screens this.

The comedy of the week and one of the best of the year is "Turnabout," a Hal Roach offering of a Thorne Smith story at Loew's. "Dr. Cyclops" is a monster film in technicolor at the Paramount; "Private Detective," with Jane Wyman, is a murder mystery at the Capitol, and Edgar Wallace's "Human Monster" is the screen story at the Roxy.

"DARK COMMAND"

AT RIALTO EXCITING.

The best motion picture ever to come from the studios of Republic Pictures is "Dark Command," a semi-historical accounting of the dark days in Kansas during the days when Will Quantrell, or Cantrell, looted and burned in mad, lawless campaign for power and money. It's a mixture of western, Civil War and romance which the Rialto is offering.

Reunited in parts more approached the "first" offered them in their first screen success, "Stagecoach," are Claire Trevor and John Wayne. She as a high and aloof southern lady, he as an honest but illiterate Texas cowpuncher.

Cantrell is ably interpreted by Walter Pidgeon, and the manner in which he lets an inherent criminal tendency ease out, changing his character from that of an easy-going school teacher, guarded carefully by his mother (Marjorie Main), to that of a plundering guerrilla leader as a superbly done under the direction of Raoul Walsh.

Scenic effects are unusually realistic and dramatic. One shot shows a team of horses being driven off a cliff to escape a guerrilla band. Another shows the siege of Lawrence, the burning, the killing, the plundering. Still another again emphasizes action in the daring escape and flight across the plains of Wayne, Miss Trevor and Roy Rogers, portraying her brother.

While based on history, the story differs wherever the director and producers deemed necessary for more exciting movie drama. Cantrell is killed and Wayne marries his wife, who had learned to detect.

It's as good a western action film as you can hope to see.

NEW IRENE OPENS

ENGAGEMENT AT FOX

To most persons the story of "Irene" is known. From its Broadway history, it came to the screen, "Alice Blue Gown," which is still popular throughout the world and sung with many parodies.

A new "Irene" opened at the Fox theater yesterday, an Irene in which the central person is Anna Neagle, famed British character actress who is transformed into a glamour girl and made a musical comedy star in this production.

She sings, dances and looks stunning, particularly in the color sequence which shows her in the "Alice Blue Gown."

All the hit songs of the stage success are retained, "Alice Blue Gown," "Irene," "Castle of Dreams." But to all the glory of the stage success, Director-Producer Herbert Wilcox has added his own interpretation of the ragtime sweep the "Alice Blue Gown" number made around the world.

He climaxes this with a barn-sized Negro mammy trucking down Fifth avenue in her blue raiments.

Supporting players ably take attention from trivial details, giving the director plenty of opportunity to focus on his star whom he succeeds in presenting as a versatile actress, capable of light as well as serious roles. In that support goes the combined comedy efforts of Roland Young, Alan Marshall, Ray Milland, May Robson, Billy Burke and Arthur Treacher.

From American standards of swiftly moving action, Wilcox's direction of "Irene" may appear a little slow, but everything is included to make it worth-while entertainment for any time.

"TURNABOUT" AT LOEW'S

FILLED WITH LAUGHS

About the best medicine any doctor could prescribe for the current case of war nerves possessing most everyone is a visit to Loew's this week to see "Turnabout," one of the funniest shows of the year abounding with good acting turned in by an array of excellent character actors.

The basis for the fantastic plot—which finds husband and wife changing places and fades out with hubby about to have a baby—Thorne Smith's book by the same name. Of course, Hollywood has dressed it up a bit and removed some of the risqué scenes and conversation, but enough of the latter has been left whole to class the picture "adult entertainment."

John Hubbard and Carole Landis have the leads in this Hal Roach offering. You may not have heard of either, but after seeing the picture you won't forget they can act. John is called upon to go sissy, portraying Carole in his body. Carole has to adopt masculine mannerisms of walk, action and so forth to portray convincingly John masquerading so to speak, in her body. Voices of course were worked in separately, forcing even greater acting and control of facial expressions.

QUESTION SETTLED—Ending for all time any argument concerning the joint appearance of beauty and brains are these five Agnes Scott girls who yesterday proved the two qualities come together. Left to right, are initiates into Phi Beta Kappa, Elizabeth Alderman, of Atlanta; Mary Evelyn Francis, of Clearwater, Fla.; Margaret Hopkins, of Gainesville, Fla.; Mary Matthews, of Smyrna, and Violet Jane Watkins, of Nashville, Tenn.

When wife goes to the office and hubby stays home, things begin to happen. It all began because wife thought hubby had an easy time and he thought ditto for wife. A mysterious little idol called Mr. Ram heard their wish and granted it.

Excellent support comes from Donald Meek, who is at his comic best, as a butler unable to obtain a crooked lawyer to obtain custody of a divorced couple's child and through him control a $5,000,000 inheritance. The father is killed, the mother suspected by police of the murder.

Jane Wyman, again as a private detective, enters the investigation to prevent her boy friend, Dick, from arresting the mother for a murder she didn't commit. Again girl tracks down criminal, gives boy friend credit.

GIRL SLEUTH GETS MAN AT CAPITOL
"Private Detective" features Jane Wyman and Dick Foran in a mystery story of murders and kidnapping at the Capitol.

The plot is based on the attempt of a crooked lawyer to obtain custody of a divorced couple's child and through him control a $5,000,000 inheritance. The father is killed, the mother suspected by police of the murder.

Jane Wyman, again as a private detective, enters the investigation to prevent her boy friend, Dick, from arresting the mother for a murder she didn't commit. Again girl tracks down criminal, gives boy friend credit.

program is "The Human Monster," which Bela Lugosi stars at the Roxy. It is taken from the Edgar Wallace novel.

The story deals with the mass murder of men for insurance. The demon behind fantastic plots is a doctor who poses as a benefactor of the blind, but who in reality uses them to commit his crimes.

The daughter of the last victim turns up to help police uncover the double life of the villainous doctor.

D. O. Cogbill, 62, Rail Worker, Dies
D. O. Cogbill, 62, veteran Southern Railway employee, died yesterday morning at his home, 1152 Ogletree avenue, S. W.

Mr. Cogbill had been with the Southern Railway for 45 years, during which time he worked his way from office boy to stationer. He moved here from Richmond, Va., in 1912.

He is survived by his widow, one son, D. O. Cogbill Jr., a grandfather, Mary Louise Cogbill, and a sister, Mrs. J. A. Bradshaw, of Richmond, Va.

Funeral services will be conducted at 11 o'clock this morning at the West End Presbyterian church, where he was an elder. The Rev. Harry B. Wade will officiate. Interment will be in Richmond.

East Point Baptists Will Receive 324
The First Baptist church of East Point will receive 324 new members at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning, according to the pastor, Dr. W. A. Duncan, who will preach on "After the Jordan, What?"

The new members represent those who have affiliated with the church since April 24. Nearly 200 of them have been baptized at services during the past three Sunday mornings.

Dr. Duncan also announced a Sunday school enlargement program, which is expected to raise attendance from 1,000 to 1,200 during the next two weeks. Visitation week will be observed next week.

Georgia Veteran To Be Decorated
Clarence B. Payne, of Youngs, Ga., has been cited for gallantry in action and will be decorated with the Silver Star, Fourth Corps Area headquarters announced yesterday.

Payne, according to the citation, was a wagoner in the World War. On October 14, 1918, he drove his watercart for more than three miles over roads near St. Juvin, France, that were constantly swept by enemy fire.

His action, the citation said, "enabled assault troops to obtain water and thus contributed to the success of an attack."

MILLIONS OF PLANTS, SYLVESTER, Ga., May 31.—(P)—L. H. Allison's latest count of tomato plant shipments from his Worth county farm was 9,000,000—and he was confident the total would be 11,000,000 before the season ends.

TERRORIST VILLAIN ON ROXY'S SCREEN
Though it lacks deftness of direction and is a bit choppy, the real horror, mystery and terror film on the current Atlanta screen

Flog Probers Indict Walton And Lee Again

Eight More Counts Returned; Farmer To Go on Trial Tuesday.

Two more "flogging" indictments were returned by the Fulton grand jury yesterday as Solicitor General John A. Boykin announced that the series of trials growing out of the East Point whippings will continue next week.

W. T. Walton, farmer, who will face trial Tuesday before Judge Walter C. Hendrix, was indicted on two additional counts—charges that he flogged B. M. Haynes, of 990 Pryor street, on August 12, 1939, and T. C. Ellis on February 18, 1939, making a total of 14 counts on which he will be tried.

Lee Indicted.
Floyd I. Lee, named as the head man of the "secret committee" of the East Point Klan, was indicted on six counts, charging that he beat E. K. Ramage on April 20, 1938; P. S. Toney on August 1, 1938; Louis Brown on June 4, 1937; Joe Ottwell on March 14, 1938; J. W. Wilkes in July or August, 1938, and Bert Harris on March 21, 1938.

Lee had been indicted on 12 counts and the new indictment lists six of these same charges. Attaches of the solicitor's office said Lee had confessed six floggings but that the ones set out in the new indictment involved only cases where they said they had proof other than his word.

Refuses To Testify.
The "secret committee" chairman testified before the grand jury in a number of cases but refused to testify on the witness stand in court on the grounds he might incriminate himself.

The jury yesterday, in returning nine true bills and one no bill, indicted Charles A. Smith

TOMMIES BROUGHT HOME—This picture, cabled from London yesterday, shows a destroyer laden with British soldiers from Flanders nearing a southeastern English port. The warship was not identified by the London advices. London reported 90,000 survivors of the Flanders fighting had reached England. Survivors said German planes showered them with a blizzard of bombs and machinegun bullets until the ship neared the British port.

Tax Bill Boost For Defenses Held Probable

Morgenthau Says Public Wants To Pay for Military Program.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—(P)—Indications arose in congress today that the pending tax bill, designed to raise some $3,000,000,000 in the next five years for defense, might be increased in view of President Roosevelt's message requesting an additional billion dollars. Chairman Harrison, Democrat, Mississippi, of the Senate Finance Committee, said the message would "have to be considered" in working on the tax bill, although he added that investigation might show the revenue provided for in the measure would not have to be increased.

Secretary of the Treasury Morgenthau appeared before the House Ways and Means Committee to contend that the public wanted to be taxed for defense, and that both taxes and an increase in the national debt limit—now $45,000,000,000—were "essential."

Republicans questioned Morgenthau regarding government finances. Representative McLean, Republican, New Jersey, expressed the view that the tax bill was a "vehicle" to finance ordinary peacetime expenditures as well as extraordinary defense spending.

Morgenthau agreed that part of the revenue was to go to pay ordinary, as well as extraordinary, expenses of the war and navy departments, but he said he couldn't "draw the line" between such expenditures.

The secretary estimated that the Treasury's borrowing power would be exhausted next February 28 if additional revenue or a debt limit increase were not provided. He predicted that the deficit for the fiscal year starting next July 1 would be $3,703,000,000. Daniel Bell, undersecretary of the treasury, said the gross debt as of May

A telephone survey of 15,000 registered voters still show BARFIELD for Sheriff 3 1/2 to 1

Legal Holiday

June 3

Jefferson Davis' Birthday

Monday, June 3, the anniversary of the birth of Jefferson Davis, having been set aside as a legal holiday, The Morris Plan Bank of Georgia will join the people of the South and of the nation in paying tribute to the memory of this great American and illustrious President of the Southern Confederacy, and will not be open for the transaction of business on that day.

The Morris Plan Bank of Georgia
THE BANK FOR THE INDIVIDUAL
34 PEACHTREE, AT FIVE POINTS, ATLANTA
MEMBER FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE CORPORATION
A TWENTY-NINE YEAR OLD SAVINGS BANK

25 was $42,787,000,000. Representative Treadway, Republican, Massachusetts, wanted to know whether congressional leaders and Treasury officials, in working on the tax bill, had given thought to cutting federal expenditures. He suggested that in times of emergency everyone "tightens his belt."

Morgenthau replied that "we are constantly studying expenditures and economies, but the actual responsibility rests with the director of the budget."

The secretary opposed using any of the $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund to finance defense because it is "a nest egg that belongs to the people" and should be preserved "for some great emergency."

Men and Steel Form Box for Allies' Escape

Nazis Make Desperate Effort To Annihilate Retreating Troops.

PARIS, May 31.—(P)—Allied troops escaping from the German trap in Flanders moved through the center of a great box of men and steel, its four walls formed of retreating tanks like the locked shields that once protected the legions of Caesar.

The corridor of escape stretched from near Lille to Dunkerque. In a last effort to annihilate the already defeated Allied armies the Nazis threw into the struggle ten armored divisions and three motorized divisions—virtually their entire mechanized strength—in addition to numerous infantry divisions.

They smashed with all their might at Dunkerque, but the French spokesman acknowledged that while little was left of the docks and quays, "considerable quantities" of Allied troops were enjamming regularly in small boats from which they were being transferred at sea to larger craft.

Off the coast the British and French fleets laid down a curtain of fire around these men. The French military spokesman said that now that Flanders was virtually out of the way, the central French armies massed in the region of the Somme were ready now for "the second round"—the first having been the great actions in the Meuse valley and in Flanders which ended in German victories.

Americans Jam Port To Board Refugee Liner

The President Roosevelt Reaches Galway To Bring Citizens Home.

GALWAY, Ireland, May 31.—(P)—Hundreds of homeward-bound Americans in the British Isles were singing "Take Me Down to Galway-Town" today and by noon most of them had had their wish.

This sleepy west coast fishing town of a normal 18,000 population received an influx of more than 1,200 Americans overnight and all but a few gathered for the arrival of the United States liner President Roosevelt to take them home.

The President Roosevelt arrived tonight. Every hotel, practically all private residences and even public halls are equipped with cots and other bedding to care for the rush of Americans fleeing the war zone. Hostleries which nearly closed last week because of the scarcity of tourists thankfully put on extra help.

Every dining room in town was filled by groups of well-dressed Americans. They gathered at street corners and the strange talk of the people from the great nation across the sea seemed a magnet for Irish folk who spoke just to hear the American speech. Here in Galway county the Irish speak with a brogue Americans love to hear, so it is a 50-50 proposition.

U. S. WARNS BELLIGERENTS NOT TO MOLEST LINER.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—(P)—Stern measures to rescue Americans from the Mediterranean area over which war clouds are lowering were adopted by the State Department today.

Officials disclosed that notices had been sent to all the belligerent governments, cautioning them not to molest or delay the S. S. Washington, which is now en route to Bordeaux, France, and Lisbon, Portugal, to bring out Americans gathered there.

The department told the belligerents that the ship was not carrying passengers, cargo or mail to Bordeaux excepting two Red Cross representatives and a shipment of Red Cross medical supplies and clothing. It would proceed without convoy and with the American flag prominently displayed and fully lighted at night, the notices added.

Russia, Hungary Withdraw Troops

BUDAPEST, May 31.—(P)—Soviet Russia has withdrawn soldiers from the Hungarian frontier and, Hungary, in return, has suspended plans to call more reserves to her army, it was announced officially today, in a southeastern Europe peace move.

This action, along with others to settle Balkan disputes, appeared generally to convince the peared generally to convince the powers—Germany and Italy—might succeed in limiting the scope of the European war to British and French territory.

Budapest is strongly influenced by Berlin and Rome.

Navy Rearranges Cruise To Keep Ship Near U. S.

WASHINGTON, May 31.—(P)—The navy department today cancelled a voyage of 1,100 midshipmen to Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, and announced that it had rearranged the annual practice cruise to keep three battleships nearer home ports. Secretary Edison said that the cruise, starting June 8, would take the training squadron to Newport, R. I., instead of Brazil.

Colleagues Greet Solon After Victory in Florida

WASHINGTON, May 31.—(P)—Senator Andrews, Democrat, Florida, returned to the capital today with a successful race for re-election. As he appeared on the senate floor early this afternoon, colleagues crowded around his desk to offer congratulations.

Hour for War Has Come, Says Italian Paper

'Rome and Germany To Lay Down New Political Form.'

ROME, May 31.—(P)—(By German Radio)—France and Britain have "rejected the demands of the Italian people; these demands will be enforced by arms," Relazioni International, Italy's leading foreign affairs periodical, declares in an editorial to be published tomorrow.

"The hour longed for for more than 50 years has come," the publication said. "The Italian people will fight the French and British enemy with extreme determination to complete victory."

(The German war machine is poised for the "decisive blow" to end the war, a Nazi statement boasted tonight amid predictions that the bloody and tattered remnants of the Allied armies in Flanders will be destroyed within 24 hours, according to the United Press.

(Within two days, military quarters said, the German blitzkrieg will be free to surge "over open roads" to Paris and London.)

London and Paris have not yet grasped it that the present crisis is a tremendous revolution of peoples who received their destination by energetic and renewing ideals of the revolutions of Mussolini and Hitler. A new Europe arises on an indissoluble and balancing contact of Romanism and Germanism, two forces which are destined to lay down a new political form for centuries to come."

Every day these ads start many people on the highway to happiness.

Self-Armed French Gardener Bags Plane as Soldiers Fail

PARIS, May 31.—(UP)—The "Pop-pop man of Reims," according to persons who were in Reims when the big German push developed, is a gardener on an estate at the edge of the French town. He is 60 or so and ineligible for the army.

When the war started the gardener's savings came out of a tea pot. Somewhere he succeeded in buying an old, second-hand Swedish machinegun.

Daily he polished his gun and planned how to get a German plane some day. It probably had never before glistened so and the old man patted it like a pet, smiled and kept looking into the sky.

Wits at the local bistro christened the gun "Pop-pop," and said wasn't it too bad that the gardener was "un peu touche" (a little nuts).

One fine day after the invasion of Holland and Belgium, a Heinkel bomber swept over the town too low for the heavy anti-aircraft guns. Military machinegunners blazed away—and missed. As it reached the edge of town there came a pop-pop and the Heinkel crashed.

The "Pop-pop man of Reims" had bagged his German plane. There was no more talk of "un peu touche" and wherever men raised glasses about town they toasted the pop-pop man.

Check of Alien Licenses Will Require Month

Police Department Turns Away Foreigners Seeking To Register.

Investigation of all aliens in Georgia holding business and occupational licenses will not be complete for at least another month, Revenue Commissioner T. Grady Head said yesterday, although Governor Rivers had ordered that aliens seek naturalization by midnight last night or surrender their business privileges.

Meanwhile, alien residents of Atlanta who streamed to the police station to be registered and fingerprinted under a city ordinance were being turned away because Chief Hornsby said the department did not have adequate facilities to accommodate them.

Under the Governor's edict all permits would be withheld from aliens who failed to apply for naturalization papers by June 1. Head, however, said the revenue department would regard it as sufficient if an alien registered and submitted to fingerprinting by city or state police.

The Governor's supplementary proclamation revoking commercial fishing licenses held by aliens, brought a protest from Mayor J. Hunter Hopkins, of Brunswick. In a letter to the chief executive he insisted the move merely would cause hardship to coastal seafood packers by making Portuguese and Greek fishermen dispose of their catches in Florida instead of Georgia.

Wanted a third term? It's got us guessing, but there's no guessing about Want Ad Results to sell White Elephants.

Fort Benning's Force May Be Doubled Soon

New 'Streamlined' Division To Be Formed With 8,200 Men.

President Roosevelt's huge preparedness drive may lead to a doubling of the population of Fort Benning, Ga., it was indicated yesterday when the War Department announced the formation of a new "streamlined" division at the fort.

Approximate strength of the division would be 8,200 men and officers. Added to the present permanent military population of the fort, of 9,500, it would give the military post a strength of approximately 18,000 men and officers.

Fourth Corps Area officials here last night were unable to say just what the increase would amount to and what units would go to make up the division which will be known as the fourth division. Earlier this week, the Fourth Corps Area began a general revision of the area lineup as part of the army's reactivating program. This was the first step in organization of the new "streamlined" division.

While it was pointed out headquarters for the new fourth division will be located at Fort Benning, it still is not known if the full strength will be maintained there or if some of the units of the division will be stationed elsewhere in the area.

Present plans call for the location of the following units at Benning: Headquarters and military police, fourth signal company, eighth infantry, 29th infantry, 83rd field artillery, fourth engineers' battalion, fourth quartermasters' battalion and fifth medical battalion.

GLADSTONE BAGS
Good Quality of Leather
$5.00 up to $50.00
We Carry a Large Assortment
W. Z. Turner Luggage Co.
219 PEACHTREE ST.

FREE

Furnace inspection. Did you burn too much fuel? Was your house warm last season? Our dealers do expert repair work on any make of furnace—cost based on actual labor and material used. Call phone number below for name of Repair Man nearest you.

"Want others to benefit"

"The Williamson Heater Company I feel indebted to my Williamson Trip-Life furnace. I now have even, comfortable heat in every room, lower fuel bills, less soot and also less dirt, and last, but not least, a furnace that any man would be proud of. Please pass this information on to the public that others might be benefited by my experience."

Signed—N. C. Fotts, Zanesville, Ohio
$2.00 A WEEK will buy a Williamson Trip-Life
RANDALL BROTHERS
COAL SINCE 1885 WALNUT 4711

DAVISON'S BASEMENT SUPREMACY

LAST DAY

Last Day! Specially Priced for Supremacy!

Candlewick Spreads

Made to Sell For 1.95 1.59

Put your bed in the summer dress parade! Snowy white grounds with a profusion of loomed tufts that won't pull out! In your choice of blue, rose, peach, green, gold and all-white. Twin and full bed sizes.

Mail and Phone Orders Filled While Quantities Last Please State Second Choice of Color

LAST DAY! Great Saving! Men's Shirts 79¢

Irregulars of $1 and 1.49

Plenty of White • Plenty of Fancy
A special treat for the thousands of Atlanta men who usually wear $1 and 1.49 shirts! Here's the same quality, the same fine tailoring and the same superb details and patterns at a price so excitingly low that you'll want to buy enough to last all summer! Shirts with non-wilt attached collars. Ocean pearl buttons, tailored pocket, roomy gathered yoke and extra full-cut sleeves. Sizes 14 to 17. Saturday, your last day to save!

Men's Athletic Shirts, Shorts, Briefs 5 For $1

Regularly 27¢ Each! Briefs Irregulars of 35¢!

SHORTS: Choice of French backs or elastic sides. Sanforized shrunk. Full cut. Bright stripes. Sizes 30 to 42. SHIRTS: Swiss rib combed yarn. Sizes 34 to 46. BRIEFS: Slight irregulars, combed mercerized yarns. Soft, well-fitting. Cut for comfort. Good elastic. Small, medium and large sizes.

LAST DAY! Tropical Worsted Men's Suits 12.95

Regularly 14.95 and 15.95

The perfect suit for hot weather! Woven with thousands of tiny ventilations to permit summer breezes to flow right in to your skin. Single and double-breasted in blue, grey and brown. Majority with two pairs of trousers. Regulars, long and shorts in sizes 35 to 44. Hurry in for best selection.

Men's Summer Slacks 1.95

Reg. & Irregs. of 2.95 & 3.95

Pleated front, many with self belts! Assorted colors and patterns. Many with zipper fly! For dress or casual wear. Majority sanforized! As superbly tailored and as smart looking as your expensive woolen slacks. Sizes 32 to 46. Bargains!

LAST DAY! Misses' & Women's Fine Slips 77¢

Irregulars of 1.29

Rayon satins and crepes, lace trimmed 'or tailored. Many with deep insertions of lace or net. In white, lemons and some high shades. 32 to 44. Firm seams, adjustable straps.

Finer Milanese Undies 3 for $1

Samples & Irregs. of 59¢ & 69¢

Trimmed with fine Alencon lace or strictly tailored. A variety of styles. Regular and extra sizes. Stock up at a saving!

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

DAVISON-PAXON CO.

DAVISON-

THE CONSTITUTION

CLARK HOWELL
Editor and Publisher
RALPH T. JONES
Executive Editor

Entered at the Post Office at Atlanta as second-class mail matter.

Telephone Walnut 6553.

SUBSCRIPTION RATES
By Carrier	1 Yr. 1 Mo. 3 Mo. 6 Mo. 1 Yr.
Daily and Sunday	25c $1.10 $2.25 $4.50 $9.00
Daily only	20c 80c 1.60 3.20 6.40
Single Copies—Daily	5c Sunday 10c
BY MAIL ONLY	1 Yr. 1 Mo. 3 Mo. 6 Mo. 1 Yr.
Daily and Sunday	30c $1.20 $2.40 $4.80 $9.60
Daily only	25c 10c 20c 40c 80c

Mail Rates on Application

KELLY-SMITH COMPANY, national representatives, New York, Chicago, Detroit, Boston, Philadelphia, Atlanta.

THE CONSTITUTION is on sale in New York City by 2 p. m. the day after issue. It can be had: Hotelling's News Stand, Broadway and Forty-third Street (Times Building corner). Request a copy of The Constitution to be delivered to your room each day when you register at a New York hotel.

The Constitution is not responsible for advance payments to out-of-town local carriers, dealers or agents. Receipts given for subscription payments not in accordance with published rates are not authorized; also not responsible for subscription payments until received at office of publication.

Member of the Associated Press.

The Associated Press is authorized to use for publication all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited to this paper and also the local news published herein.

ATLANTA, GA., JUNE 1, 1940.

Let's Find a New Way

From the day in April of 1775 when militiamen in Massachusetts shot down 223 British regulars in a 20-mile running fight, the United States has been going into war unprepared and by that unpreparedness paying a terrific price for victory. Men and money have always been thrown away recklessly in the 11 wars in which this country has taken part.

It took Washington seven years to build an army against the British. Six years of misery and hit-and-run tactics against a small, but disciplined force before victory! Cornwallis surrendered little more than 7,000 troops to 9,000 Americans and 11,000 French troops backed by 28 ships of the line controlling the sea. Some 30,000 British troops still remained in the country and Washington finally announced peace to an "army" of 15,000 men. At the peak his effectiveness probably did not total more than 50,000—ill-armed, ill-paid and ill-fed.

From that day to this the United States has followed the same path. Quick to fight, Americans never have stopped to reckon the cost of unpreparedness. Unless, today, the defense program is carried out quickly and efficiently. But it must be remembered the defense program is only for the initial protective force, and that if vast armies are required, the Achilles heel of American defense will be exposed. Equipment is useless without trained manpower. And untrained soldiers thrown into battle suffer a terrific toll.

There is a familiar ring to the criticisms of the recent war games in Texas. Many of the same weaknesses were found in the Mexican border campaign of 1916, particularly in relation to the handling of mobilization. It is axiomatic that paper plans may appear perfect, yet impossible of execution. There is this difference today: The months of confusion that followed the declaration of war in 1917 has been turned to advantage. But the plans are still on paper. If it were necessary to enlist a vast army, months again would pass before the necessary camps and equipment could be obtained. The World War camps have been sold, dismantled or permitted to fall apart of their own weight. And there have been no moves to replace them now that the need is evident. The draft machinery is ready, but it could immeasurably be improved by partial operation, by advance organization, even, where possible, by test mobilizations. Training areas may be selected, but they should be in service, however modified.

The national government still refuses to act for military training of youth in Civilian Conservation Corps camps. They are grounded in discipline, but the government still doesn't give these boys the training which in time of war would lengthen their life-expectancy three-fold. As a matter of fact these youngsters could be used for the task of preparing military camps for the use of an expanded army. This would obviate the necessity of enlisting soldiers to prepare their own camps in precious weeks when they should be receiving military training rather than digging ditches, clearing off target ranges and building shelters, as many national guard troops were forced to do in '17.

It is criminal to laugh away the possibility that quick decisions may have to be made; that quick action may have to be taken. It may not be probable, but it is possible. Under these conditions, it is the duty of the American people to demand that the nation make the sacrifices necessary for full preparedness, not merely partial preparedness. Sacrifices of millions of dollars today will prevent the sacrifice of thousands, or millions, of lives and billions of dollars later.

The nation cannot, in this modern world, take the chances it has taken in the 11 wars of past years.

After being kicked downstairs four times, a bride of a month tells a Colorado divorce court she is tired of playing the small neutral.

The strange case of the "volcano girl," whose temperature rises to 112 at short notice, is studied by the medics; also by night club bookers, needing a torch songstress.

We don't know what the commencement orator can tell the boys and girls this time, except that beyond the Alps lies What's-His-Name, waiting to jump.

With a jump in the price of cosmetics, Tokyo's geishas strike for more pay. "Face" is all-important in the Orient, and poor butterfly can't appear in yesterday's.

Wise Selections

The personnel of the new National Defense Commission named by President Roosevelt should prove entirely satisfactory to the country. It would be hard to find better qualified leaders for the various jobs which devolve upon this group, in co-ordinating and speeding the nation's defense program.

It is also gratifying that, in so far as possible, politics was entirely divorced both in the selection of the commission and in creating the set-up under which they will work. They are responsible to no governmental department, are not subordinate to any cabinet member and will have to report only to the President. That is the kind of co-ordinated operation essential in the emergency faced today.

Edward R. Stettinius, board chairman of the United States Steel Corporation, is charged with the duty of providing the raw material, which American manufacturing plants will have to transmute into guns and ships and planes and all the innumerable impedimenta of a modern army and navy.

William S. Knudsen, president of General Motors, is in charge of production. It is his task to select standard models of all types of equipment, so that mass production can quickly begin and to apportion the task to those plants best adapted and best situated to turn out the desired items.

It would be extremely difficult to find any two American business leaders better fitted for these two jobs, the biggest facing the commission. If Stettinius and Knudsen cannot put America's defense effort on a business basis and still keep it moving at top speed, none in the country can.

Other selections are similarly wise. Sidney Hillman, the labor member of the commission, is one of organized labor's most respected and most successful leaders. President of the Amalgamated Clothing Workers, he has so conducted the affairs of labor that have fallen to his lot as to win the respect of businessmen generally, as well as of the workers whose cause he has served splendidly.

If selfish politicians, party champions who put their own little ambitions ahead of the nation's safety, will only refrain from interference, the new defense commission should be able to show the whole world, in a few months, what miracles of preparation America can perform once she has put her united shoulder to the wheel.

"If Versailles was a mistake, so was the failure to enforce it." Hence, the Allies now are in the position of the parole board, meeting one of its proteges in a dark alley.

Cheering Note!

The name of Raleigh Gamble, Milwaukee's superintendent of streets, will be blessed by pedestrians the world over as the news of his gallantry and genius spreads. Mr. Gamble, perhaps after a personal demonstration had evidenced the great need, is conducting a campaign against splashing of sidewalk users by thoughtless or helpless motorists.

The answer is so simple that it is remarkable no one heretofore has seized upon the route to personal popularity he has adopted. Mr. Gamble has his staff working full-time on the elimination of pavement depressions, particularly at points where crowds wait for street cars, so they won't be drenched by cars running through puddles.

The world well can afford little attentions of this kind in the business of making life more pleasant, cleaner and less exasperating.

There is some question whether our U. S. Grant would have fitted in the new fighting style. This isn't a war in which one can pause to light a cigar.

It's an honest angler, in Maine, who tells of landing a fish so small he was able to throw it back single-handed.

Just around the corner is another June, when the honeymoon begins, and continues until he commences to think of her people as the tribe.

Editorial of the Day

KLAN COLUMN.

(From The Charlotte News.) Grand Dragon Ben E. Adams, of the Ku Klux Klan in South Carolina, informs the world that "President Roosevelt's efforts to blot out the fifth column in America are in line with what the Klan has advocated for years."

To which there is only one possible answer, It is, Oh, Yeah?

The Ku Klux Klan has indeed long been hollering about an Alien Menace. But the President's proposed measures against the fifth column have nothing to do with this attempt to loose wholesale hate against aliens indiscriminately. What is wanted is simply to bring to heel the dangerous elements among the aliens. The great body of the aliens in this country are loyal to it.

Moreover, there is actually far more danger to us from the native fifth column, existing and potential, than from the aliens. And no organization has done more to create that fifth column than the Kuklus.

The things which create native fifth columnists, realized or potential, are exactly the same things out of which Nazism was created: racial hatred, intolerance, and a belief that violence and brutality are justifiable means of venting the spite created by these emotions. And it is precisely these things that the Klan busily inculcates into its members.

Every Klucker is a ripe candidate for conversion to Nazism, whether he suspects it or not.

THE CAPITAL PARADE

By JOSEPH ALSOP AND ROBERT KINTNER.

POLITICS ALWAYS WITH US WASHINGTON, May 31.—Attention has been too long and too much concentrated on the tragedy in Europe to leave much place for domestic politics in most people's minds. Nevertheless, it is already becoming clear that the crisis in world affairs will have its repercussions in domestic politics as in everything else.

On the Republican side, the cause of Thomas E. Dewey has obviously suffered. He unquestionably enjoys a large and probably inalienable following. Having completed one full somersault on the subject of foreign policy, he has now boldly bounced up in a new role, discussing national defense in a tone somewhat reminiscent of the hero of a radio soap opera getting after the cattle rustlers. This is smart stuff, for the Dewey dramatization of Dewey as a shining champion in the unending conflict between good and evil has always gone over remarkably well.

But the fact remains that, in a period of grave national danger, even the most victory-hungry politician is likely to hesitate before nominating for the presidency a man so inexperienced as Dewey. The Dewey bandwagon was just beginning to roll down the road when the war crisis started. Now reports from the country indicate that it has lost much of its momentum. Simultaneously, Wendell Willkie has come up in the betting from a dark-horse position to the place of third favorite, while Senator Robert A. Taft, of Ohio, has also benefited from Dewey's difficulties.

THE PROFFERED CROWN On the Democratic side, the fact that the President will probably seek a third term is now almost universally accepted, whether with dismay, resignation or jubilation. In his reiterated denials of any intention to run again, the President always inserted an escape clause. He might run, he invariably said if the national security should be directly threatened. Virtually every informed official and observer in Washington is convinced that the prospect of rapid German victory seriously endangers the welfare of this country and this hemisphere. If the President wishes to invoke his escape clause, he can do so with consistency.

The question still remains what the President's wishes will be. The New Deal managers of the third-term draft are now convinced that their draft movement is too strong for the President to resist even if he wants to. They are hoping to make it even stronger, in the near future, by adding the voices of leading citizens of independent nonpolitical status to the calls of the Democratic party politicians. Judging by their anxiety on this point, the President is slightly sensitive about the fact that to date the loudest demands for his renomination have come from his own subordinates and from the Ed Kellys and Frank Hagues.

There is no doubt at all that, if he chooses, the President can be easily persuaded to suggest that his mind is not entirely free of third-term thoughts. He is in a tactical position infinitely stronger than ever before, since many important anti-third-termers, Postmaster General James A. Farley among them, gave lip service at least to the presidential escape clause. But in these last weeks, for the first time in his administration, the President has been noticeably tired and overburdened by the heavy duties of his office. Although most of the men around him will tell him that seeking a third term is his plain duty to the country, he may still decide to push aside the proffered crown.

THROTTLEBOTTOMS If the President does run, it is also position to nominate the vice presidential candidate. At present the most highly favored by the third-term drafters is Justice William O. Douglas. Justice Douglas and Attorney General Robert H. Jackson, who as a New Yorker cannot go on a ticket with the President, are the two biggest political figures produced by the New Deal. If anything, Douglas is even better liked by the President than Jackson, and strange as it seems, that a justice should leave the supreme bench to have a try at the vice presidency, the possibility must be considered.

Next most favored after Douglas is Senator James F. Byrnes, of South Carolina, who has done yeoman service as a congressional leader. House Majority Leader Sam Rayburn, of Texas, who would carry the remaining Garnerites, and Senator Burton K. Wheeler, of Montana, who would carry the worst, are also talked of. But this, like the main problem, is up to the President alone.

SILHOUETTES

By RALPH T. JONES

Dreadfully Revealing.

One of the most shocking, both in symbolism and in reality, news dispatches that have yet come from a war-plagued world was found in a small item, only about an inch in length, to be found in our papers this week.

It was datelined from Jerusalem and it told how a "blackout" had been ordered for the city next Monday. It stated authorities were taking no chances of exposing the holy city to air raids.

The action reveals how seriously the Allies view the probability of Italy coming into the war. For a war in the near east, the only one which could endanger Jerusalem, is not likely unless Italy starts the fight. Thus it can only be Italian bombers which can threaten Jerusalem.

Think how horrible all the implications of that fact are! Italy, and Rome, the home of the greatest branch, numerically, of the Christian religion, feared as the source of the most awful desecration of the city where Christ walked, where He died, where He preached His gospel of love to all men.

It makes the soul sick to think to what a so-called Christian world has come.

Yet It Is Symbolic.

Yet, in another and very real sense, the fear for Jerusalem is symbolic. What else could be expected in a world where nations renounce religion and faith, where they predicate all their hopes upon strict materialism? What safety is there for the most sacred shrine in human experience, from nations which proclaim their enmity to the church, which send their servants of the church to concentration camps and which desecrate all the ideals of universal brotherhood the Christ preached?

There is another symbolism in the "blackout" for Jerusalem. That there is real danger that Christianity itself may be facing an era of dark despair. Isn't it because, all over the world, too many men and women have been "black-out" from their lives, and from their codes of conduct, that the world today trembles on the abyss of a plunge back into barbarism?

But, after all, why shouldn't Jerusalem be blacked out? The world has witnessed blackouts of justice, of charity, of human sympathy, of kindness and why, if these things of the spirit are gone, may not the earthly shrine of their great Teacher go, too?

We Are All Fearful.

Today all men are fearful. Days seem awfully long and weeks stretch out to seeming months of not so long ago. We wait, from newspaper to newspaper, for news broadcast to news broadcast, for some fresh word from over there. Our minds can think of nothing else and our spirits grow weak as we contemplate the seemingly irresistible onslaught of the German hordes in gray.

We live in a constant strain, waiting and hoping and praying for the turn in the tide which faith pleads with us to believe must, eventually, come.

For, behind the surface of the mind, is that constant shadow that nothing can dispel.

Work is difficult. How can one concentrate on the daily routine when all the time there is that anxious ache within?

Awful Things Have Happened.

Awful things have happened to the world in less than three weeks.

Helpless, fleeing women and children have been moved down by machine guns as they sought sanctuary at the end of a road they were destined never to reach.

The terror from the skies has shattered into ruins beautiful and proud cities. Cowering civilians numbered in the hundreds of thousands have been shattered to hideous death by bombs from planes so numerous they darkened the sky.

Treachery has reared its filthy head and "fifth columnists" have betrayed their birthright for a mess of tainted pottage.

Men, supposedly made in the image of God, have boasted of the anticipated slaughter of half a million of their fellow creatures and the stench of dead steams up from the erstwhile lovely fields of Flanders and of France, to affront the nostrils of the angels.

Fearful things have happened. And portents of yet worse terrors to come are not wanting. Yet, somehow, there seems to me to be the direst symbolism of it all, in the news of a "blackout" in Jerusalem!

Twenty-five Years Ago Today.

From the news columns of Tuesday, June 1, 1915:

"Washington, May 31.—President Wilson intends to shape the course of the United States in the international crisis which has arisen so as to leave no doubt abroad of the country's purpose not only to speak, but if necessary, to act, for the cause of humanity."

And Fifty Years Ago.

From the news columns of Sunday, June 1, 1890:

"Athens is booming, and Larry Gantt's real estate agency is a popular resort, while the spangled Banner waves in the winds of prosperity."

Constitution Quiz

Can you answer seven of these test questions? Turn to want ad pages for the answers.

1. Who discovered radium?
2. Name the Negro republic in Africa.
3. Is the shape of the cells in a honeycomb octagon, hexagon or pentagon?
4. Is "hara-kiri" a food, an animal or a method of committing suicide?
5. Which was the first state to secede from the Union in the War Between the States?
6. Which famous labor "martyr" was released from prison by pardon in 1935?
7. What is the plural of table-spoonful?
8. What is meant by counter-clockwise?
9. Name the father of King Solomon.
10. Complete the proverb, "A word to the wise—"

FAIR ENOUGH

By WESTBROOK PEGLER.

New York NEW YORK, May 31.—Having called attention to Harold Ickes' tolerance for Trojan horse groups of the Communist party, naming the New York Newspaper Guild as one of them, I will now breathe on the dice and make my point. The New York Guild is dominated by Communists and, by its own strength, in collaboration with Chicago and California Communists and acquiescent, indifferent or politically naive groups, it dominates the affairs and policies of the American Newspaper Guild, which is the national, parent organization and a member of the CIO in California. It may be remembered, the guild, as a member of the CIO, acquiesced in the endorsement of the totalitarian ham 'n' eggs proposition, which began as a racket and became an ominous political movement last fall.

For corroboration of my contention that the New York Guild is controlled by the Communists I will quote from a publication called The Guild Progressive, turned out by the American members of the guild in New York who have started a rebellion against the Communist leadership. The authors of this paper all sign their names to the publication, which they were forced to establish because the official organ of the guild, The Guild Reporter, is notoriously partial to the officials in power and the Communist party line.

What They Report

"For months the management of the New York Guild has permitted Communist activity in its headquarters, thus alienating many members," says The Guild Progressive of March 30. "For months the rank and file has found itself affiliated with what have not infrequently turned out to be the 'transmission belts' of the Communist management has permitted the union to be used as the cat's-paw of a partisan clique—well proved to be Communist—now fighting another group for control of the American Labor party. During this time Morris Watson, a paid vice president of the American Newspaper Guild (the national organization), has made almost daily use of The Daily Worker, official organ of the Communist party, in his activity as chairman of the 'Progressive Committee to Rebuild the American Labor Party.' (The progressive committee is the Communist wing of the American Labor party.)"

"several successive week-ends the management has permitted this 'rebuilding committee' to use the guild's headquarters for gala cocktail parties and dances. The Citizen, newspaper of the 'rebuilt' party, and The Daily Worker advertised these parties, and the committee was permitted to use the guild headquarters to raise funds."

Furthermore, In the issue of January 30 The Guild Progressive said:

"The guild leadership is primarily concerned with a narrow circle of outside interests. Anyone with a glimmer of political sophistication knows that the guild is endlessly condemning the special foes of the Communist party and praising the organizations it the Communist party approves regardless of whether the guild's welfare is involved. Unfortunately, our current leadership is concerned with controlling the guild primarily to further the Communist approach to every problem, including the election of a city councilman, even at the expense of a strong guild."

In the issue of May 15 The Progressive said the controlling faction had as its center a large group consisting of members of the Communist party who had arrogated to themselves the complete control of the New York Guild.

"This long-standing faction," The Progressive said, "has permitted an effective voice in the guild government only (1) to select members of the Communist party and (2) to persons neutral or indifferent to Communist influence in guild affairs. All persons of other political coloration have been systematically excluded from guild councils and guild activity. They have not been wanted except as dutifully paying members. They have been made to feel that they were not wanted."

"As to the existence of a Communist faction which caucuses regularly," The Progressive claims to be a fact, such as the names of members affiliated with the Communist party and how they work."

This is a rank-and-file rebellion within the guild by members who have suffered long at the hands of the Communists, by which it is hoped to overthrow Communist rule in the National convention in Memphis in July. The Communists, incidentally, are, in the main, New Yorkers, and most of them are not interested in newspaper work except as a means of extending Communist control, including party censorship, to the entire American press, through the closed shop.

The invitation to Ickes, which he accepted, by the way, the controlling Communist faction, the political color—or odor—of which it must be assumed that a man of his sagacity well knew.

Pair Wed 75 Years

Great was the rejoicing in Mil-land, England, recently when Mr. and Mrs. James West celebrated the seventy-fifth anniversary of their marriage. He will be 100 in October; she will be 96 in December. For long life and marital happiness they recommend hard work and plain living. James West had no schooling, but learned to write well enough to sign checks when prosperity rewarded his years of toil. He does his figuring with the aid of notches on his cane. Starting 74 years ago with a loan of $500 from a friend, the pair acquired two farms, two threshing machines, and reared 14 children, nine of whom are living.

ONE WORD MORE

By RALPH MCGILL

"AND BATTLES LONG AGO" The other day I walked through a plowed field seeking minnie balls which might have been turned up by the plow. The place was likely because near by were some of the gun emplacements left long ago by Sherman's troops in the conquest of Atlanta.

As I looked, three or four flint arrow points were turned up. Some Cherokee or Creek Indian brave had fired them long centuries ago before the men in blue came to sweat with their guns. An old fragment of verse came back, of mourning for old battles and lives lost:

"For old, unhappy, far-off things,
And battles long ago."

Where the Indians had hunted with arrows, Sherman's cannons came.

It has been three-quarters of a century since the last battles of that war were fought. Today the dead sleep in long rows and flowers are put on their graves on Decoration Day. A few old men, tottering and feeble, remember the war and the voices of those who have gone on.

All the anguish of that war is forgotten. The generals are bearded men in books. The battles march neatly across printed pages of histories. Only when one goes to peer at the old grave stones does the shock come. They were young men who died.

Much of man's history has been anguish. War has occupied most of his time. Sorrow, graves, memorial days, great memories, terrible tragedies, and a willingness to die for an ideal—all these have come out of war. The last is the only worth-while gift of war.

THINGS GROW BETTER Going home from the plowed field and the weapons of flint and brass, I picked up a book, "Phillip of Spain, Master of the Armada." The book begins its story on May 27, 1527. On that day the troops of his Sacred and Imperial Majesty, Charles V, were engaged in looting Rome. He had to disavow that army. He forgot, conveniently, to disavow the loot.

The world was in a deplorable state. Charles of Spain, of the Holy Roman Empire; Francis I of France; Henry VIII of England, and Solymann, the Magnificent, of Turkey, dominated the world as they knew it.

Spain was at the peak of her prosperity. Charles dominated Germany, the Netherlands and Italy. Such Jews as were not converted to Christianity were expelled from the country. The Inquisition was a great persecutor. Other countries were inclined to regard Spain as the bully of Europe.

Beyond the Alps, Francis I ruled a France wasted by years of war waged to gratify the vanity of kings.

Henry VIII never risked much. His people were getting rich while the world fought. His chief ally was France, but he kept on friendly terms with Spain.

Germany was in a deplorable state. The Reformation was beginning. German peasants, possibly the most miserable on earth, saw in Luther and the Reformation a chance to live decently. Luther preached the divine right of kings, so the princes helped him to unseat the barons.

The Thirty Years' War was in the making.

AGAIN TODAY I do not agree with those who say Germany must lose because truth and decency are on the side of the Allies. I subscribe to the fact that decency is not on the side of Germany.

But, unfortunately, truth and decency do not always make immediate conquests. Often truth and decency disappear for a long span of years.

But it is plain that, as man struggles upward, constant progress is made. There is more liberty for more people in the world today than there was in 1527 when Charles of Spain, the fifth of monarchs, contemplated the world and his empire and dreamed of world conquest.

There is more liberty for more people in the world than when this country declared itself a nation, free and independent.

In Europe the Frankenstein monster, created with the help of England and France, more notably the former, threatens to devour his creators and the world as well. He will not. He may, for a time, bring untold misery to millions of peoples everywhere. But when all is said and done, when we begin to put flowers on the graves of those who have died in this war, we will find that truth and decency have made progress; that the world is better than it was.

I have no idea how I wrote myself into such an optimistic condition. It must have been seeing those Indian arrow points and the gun emplacements for Sherman's cannons.

Another Letter From a Bald-Headed Dad To His Red-Headed Daughter

By ROBERT QUILLEN.

My dear Louise:

You ask me to suggest a few books that you would enjoy, but I would much rather teach you to enjoy certain books.

When you speak of a good book, you mean a thrilling novel, generously larded with conversation, which ends with the hero and the girl on the way to the altar.

I don't mean to belittle novels. The great literature of every age is fiction. And the novels written by gifted and wise writers, requiring months or years of study and research, can teach you much that isn't found in textbooks. In fact, they are superior teachers; for the natural and therefore best way to get knowledge is to absorb it unawares.

But fiction, as a rule, is the pastry of literature; and when you become too fond of pastry, your taste is established once for all and you never can develop an appetite for meat. The result is that you miss the best intellectual food that reading can provide.

And now I can hear you asking: "Then what in the world would you have me read?"

The answer is biography—the most fascinating and most nourishing printed matter on the menu.

Saying it is good for you is bad psychology, for it reminds you of spinach and cod liver oil and such things, and makes you suspicious; but in this case the thing that is best for you is also most enjoyable—once you get accustomed to the taste.

After all, biography is merely fiction that is true. It is the story of a hero or heroine—some gifted or remarkable person whose personality and deeds made him famous while he lived and now make his life-story more fascinating than any fiction. It is gossip by one who knows the inside story. In short, it gives you the low-down on the great.

The benefit of it is indirect and subtle, but very real. We are all content to live in the commonplace rut followed by our neighbors until we meet some person who has done big things, or see some great thing another has done, and then the age-old miracle happens to us and we are transformed. Like Saul of Tarsus, we see a blind light and hear a voice, and we are like new creatures with new vision and new understanding.

It is inspiration that lifts us out of the rut and starts us on the way to fame and glory and service, and there is no inspiration like the example of other people.

That is what you get in biography. You can't avoid growing when you associate with

Clark To Build College Plant For $650,000

Work Will Be Started on Project Within Few Weeks.

Trustees of Clark University, meeting in annual session yesterday, authorized and approved plans for construction of a $650,000 college plant.

Work will be started within the next few weeks. Atlanta and New York architects are putting the finishing touches on the plans, officials announced. The work will be done by an Atlanta contracting firm.

The new college plant, to be known as Clark University, will be located adjacent to the new Atlanta University and will be one more affiliate in the group of institutions comprising the university and making Atlanta the greatest center of Negro education in the world.

The plant will consist of administration building, dormitories, dining hall and social center. It will occupy a lot bounded by Chestnut, Greensferry, Lawshee and Fair streets.

Occupancy is expected September, 1941.

The board yesterday elected the following officers: Colonel William M. Everett, chairman; Dr. H. H. Stanton and Dr. Goodrich C. White, vice chairmen. The Rev. N. J. Crolley, secretary; Dr. M. S. Davage, treasurer; Alva G. Maxwell, building fund treasurer, and the Rev. N. C. McPherson, member of the board of trustees. Dr. Davage is president of the university.

Funeral Notices

Georgia avenue, S. W., died May 31, 1940. She is survived by daughter, Mrs. K. E. Wallace, Corpus Christi, Texas, and son, Mr. David M. McAdams. Funeral arrangements will be an-

SELMAN, Mr. Thomas Doris—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Doris Selman, Mrs. Clyde Selman, Mr. and Mrs. William Burt, Mrs. Dr. M. Stewart, of Douglasville; Mr. Stewart Selman, Mr. Oscar Selman, of Summerville, Ga.; Mr. and Mrs. Vivian Maxwell, of Charlotte, N. C., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. Thomas Doris Selman. Funeral arrangements to be announced later. Roy Davis Funeral Home, Douglasville, Ga.

TURNER, Lieut. Sullins Preston—died Wednesday at Langley Field, Va., in his 25th year. He is survived by his parents, Dr. and E. E. Turner; two brothers, Messrs. Duane and Herbert Turner; four sisters, Mrs. Ray Chavey, Mrs. W. E. Bostwick, Miss Mildred Turner and Miss Jeanne Turner. Memorial service will be conducted Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock at Glenn Memorial Methic church. Rev. Nat Long, I. Lester Rumble and Rev. Edward G. Mackay will officiate. A. S. Turner & Sons.

Atlanta; Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Houser and Mrs. Ella Lincoln, of Los Angeles, Cal., are invited to attend the funeral of Mr. John R. Lillard Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock from the chapel of Harry G. Poole. Rev. K. O. White will officiate. Interment, Monday morning 10 o'clock at National cemetery, Marietta, Ga. Mr. Lillard was a

PAUL—The friends and relatives of Mrs. D. S. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Langley, Mrs. A. Y. Whitman, New Orleans; Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Paul, Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Paul, the grandchildren and nephews are invited to attend the funeral of Mrs. D. S. Paul Saturday, June 1, 1940, at 4:30 o'clock at Spring Hill. Rev. H. C. McPherson officiating. Interment Oakland. The pallbearers will be Mr. Richmond Paul, Mr. John H. Paul, Mr. Thomas M. Parker, Mr. E. Bert Langley, Mr. Mal A. Langley, Mr. M. David Langley, H. M. Patterson & Son.

HARRISON—The friends and relatives of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Harrison, Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Duncan, Gainesville, Fla., Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Harrison Jr., Beaumont, Texas; Mr. and Mrs. G. Mason Dillard, Scottsville, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Page Lee, Berryville, Va.; Mr. and Mrs. Herman A. Allyn, Virginia Beach, are invited to attend the funeral.

tend the funeral of Mrs. N. C. Harrison Saturday, June 1, 1940, at 3:30 o'clock at Spring Hill, Rev. Theodore S. Will officiating. Interment West View. The pallbearers will be Mr. Lewis Gregg, Dr. J. D. Osborne, Mr. Marion E. Blakely, Mr. Paul Hulfish, Mr. Edwin Camp, Mr. Guy Binford, Mr. Lewis Sharp, Mrs. J. D. Osborne.

Judge E. E. Pomeroy, Mr.
George White. H. M. Patterson & Son.

---

Burial Vaults

METHVIN Cement Grave Vault Co., 900
DeKalb. J.A. 2297, WA. 2639.

Cemeteries

MAGNOLIA RE 0437

MAGNOLIA ..... BE. 9137.
CREST LAWN CEMETERY—Incl. mausoleum crypts; modern; terms. WA. 8607.
Florists
RAINBOW FLOWER SHOP.
138 Ponce de Leon Ave., N. E. VE. 8112.
FLOWERDELL Florist. Reasonable prices.
Prompt deliv. 282 P. de Leon. VE. 2141.
HUGH KARSNER Flower Shop—Floral designs deliv. Modest prices. VE. 8422.
JOHNSON'S Peaches Flower Shop—

Funeral Directors
 "HOWARD L. CARMICHAEL,"
 "Superior Ambulance Service,"
 500 S. East Point. CA. 1138.

(COLORED)

UNKNOWN—An unknown man, killed by train near Rockmart

WALTON, Mrs. Parthenia—of 814 Fraser street, grandmother of Mrs. Parthenia Chennault, died May 31. Funeral announced later. Andrews Funeral Home.

are invited to attend his funeral today at 2 p. m. from our chapel. Interment, Lincoln cemetery. Hanley Co.

---

USHER, Mr. Rufus—The friends and relatives of Mr. Rufus Usher are invited to attend his funeral Sunday from Shady Grove Baptist church, Athens, Ga., at 2:30 p. m. The remains will be sent today at 12:55 p.m. via Seaboard railway. Interment Shady Grove cemetery. Murdaugh Bros.

BROWN, Mrs. Mary—The friends and relatives of Mrs. Mary Brown, the wife of Rev. Zack Brown, are invited to attend her funeral tomorrow (Sunday) at 2 p. m. from Union Baptist church, Lithonia, Ga. Rev. N.

T. Walker, Rev. O. F. Maddox and others officiating. Interment, Lithonia cemetery. Bros. of Lithonia. H. T. Tucker in charge.

---

In Memoriam.

In loving memory of our dear father, Albert Smith, who departed this life one year ago today.

KATIE WALKER.
CLARA JOHNSON. Daughters.

Cemeteries—Colored.
Washington Pk. .... JA. 3946
Funeral Directors—Colored
POLLARD Funeral Home—24-hour attendance Serv. 439 Fraser, MA. 7079.

West Point Seniors--and Georgia's Pride

JOHN D. TOWNSEND,
Atlanta.

HUGH J. TURNER JR.,
McDonough.

ALVAN C. GILLEM,
Fort Benning.

JAMES P. STRAUSS,
Decatur.

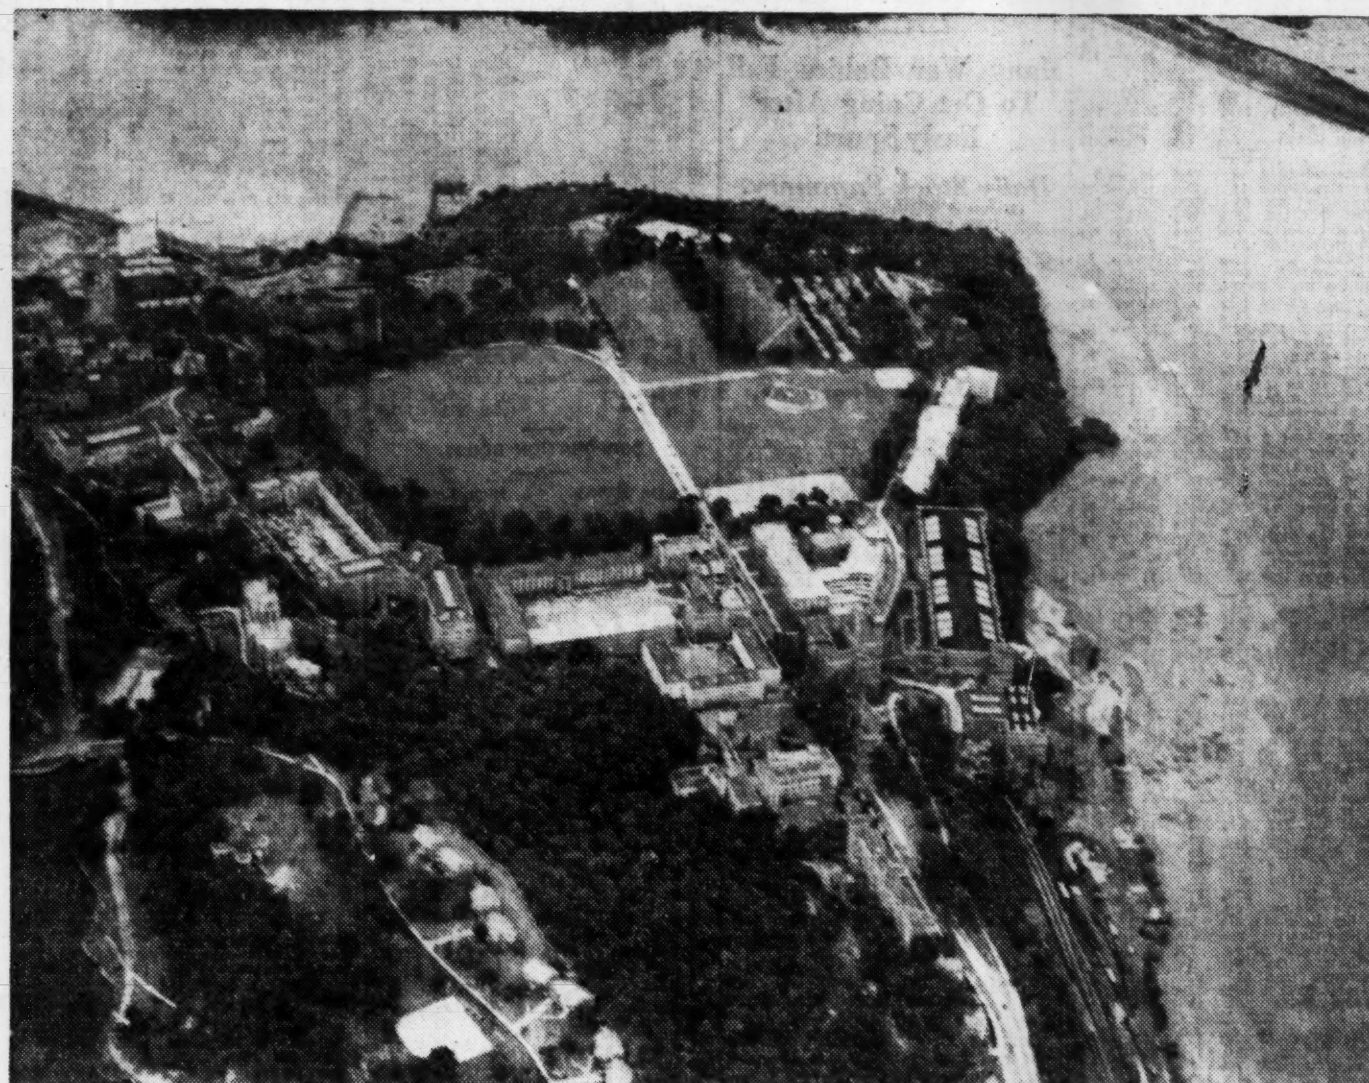

LLOYD W. HOUGH,
Savannah.

WING F. JUNG,
Savannah.

THOMAS K. SPENCER,
Atlanta.

FORD P. FULLER JR.,
Savannah.

WILLIAM B. CAMPBELL,
Carrollton.

ALLAN A. CROCKETT,
Savannah.

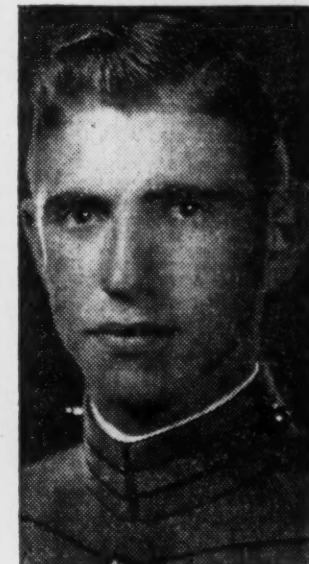

DELBERT E. MUNSON,
Columbus.

IRVINE H. SHEARER,
Alapaha.

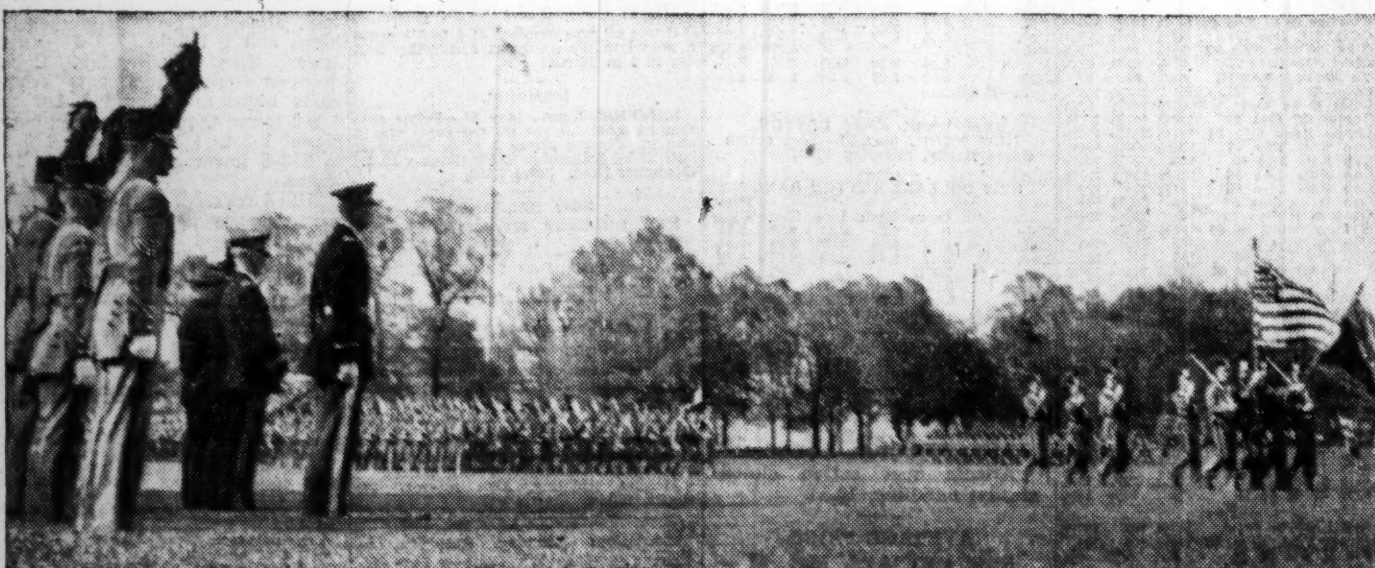

JAMES F. KREITZER,
Savannah Beach.

JAMES L. ORR,
Decatur.

Sojourn in Martial Halls Near End

Uncle Sam is again almost ready to hand out diplomas and commissions to another graduating class at the United States Military Academy—and when he does, 14 of the smartly martial class will be of Georgia blood. The keenly alert though youthful faces to right, left and below belong to those 14 Georgians—the cream of the Empire State's young manhood. The West Point Class of 1940, 450 strong, will be graduated June 11, in ceremonies terminating the traditional June Week exercises. June Week will begin Wednesday, June 5, and will continue for seven days, with the annual West Point Horse Show the highlight of Wednesday and Thursday. Cadet hops, famed in many a film and story, will take place every evening except Sunday. Pictured above is an aerial view of the far-famed academy. The views of West Point and the parading cadets are by the Associated Press. (Story on Page 12)

SNAPPY STEPPERS

Smartly indeed do these West Point cadets swing along as they pass in review. Yes, a martial array, polished cogs for Uncle Sam's mammoth defense program.

SEDATE

and peaceful, hardly military, appear the parade grounds at West Point. The cadet barracks are there in the background. And that's the cadet chapel perched austere there on the hill.

BETWEEN ROUNDS

They lost the first bitter round of the long-awaited "total" war that has at last engulfed Europe's belligerents, but the fight has still many rounds to go and many punches to be thrown. No, they're far from kayoed yet, are these French poilus who managed to escape the German trap in Flanders. Here they march away from a London railway station after making good their sea flight to Britain.

NEMESIS

of German Hitlerhaws over Flanders was this British machinegun, which escaped the Nazi trap with its tommy crew. The blazing weapon singed the wings of four planes, bringing 'em down.

MUST BE SWELL

to be safe again—even if it's only a temporary safety. These smiling British tommies, who've just escaped that "pocket" in Flanders, seem to think so, at any rate.

Transactions 526,760

N. Y. Stock Market

May 31, 1940

NEW YORK, May 31.—Following is the tabulation of today's stock transactions on the New York Stock Exchange:

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
3 Grand Central	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
3000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Sales (in 100s)	High	Low	Close
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2
1000 N.Y. 100s	10 1/2	10 1/4	10 1/2

Leading Stocks Reduce Gains On Quiet List

Many War Babies Fail
To Get Going After Early Spurt.

Daily Stock Summary.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

Dow-Jones Averages.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

What Stocks Did.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

Live Stock

These prices, quoted by White Provisions Co., are strictly correct.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

Produce

Following are quotations by wholesale dealers in Atlanta as reported by the State Bureau of Markets.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

Money Market

NEW YORK, May 31.—The British pound and Canadian dollar moved along.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

Sugar and Coffee.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Trading in sugar futures came almost to a standstill today.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

Cash Grain.

CHICAGO, May 31.—Cash wheat was 1 1/2 to 1 cent lower today on an unchanged trading basis.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

Naval Stores.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., May 31.—Turpentine: No trading; receipts 263; shipments 44; stock 304,800.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

SAVANNAH.

SAVANNAH, May 31.—Turpentine firm; offerings 14, all sold; receipts 1,400; shipments 1,085; stock 137,000.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

CRUDE RUBBER.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Crude rubber, May 1 standard, 13c; contracts, 13c; 100 lb. standard, 13c; 100 lb. standard, 13c.

Stock	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

N. Y. Bond Market

NEW YORK, May 31.—Following are today's high, low and closing prices of bonds on the New York Stock Exchange and the total sales of each bond.

U. S. GOVERNMENT BONDS.

Bond	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

FEDERAL FARM MORTGAGES.

Bond	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

HOME OWNERS' LOANS.

Bond	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

CORPORATION BONDS.

Bond	High	Low	Close
30 Ind.	117 1/2	117 1/2	117 1/2
30 Rail	23 1/2	23 1/2	23 1/2
30 Pub. Util.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Chem.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2
30 Elec.	11 1/2	11 1/2	11 1/2

SALES (IN $1

Betty Jameson To Play Mrs. Hunter for Title at Memphis Today

All in The Game

BY JACK TROY

High Praise, Indeed A Charley Gehringer with superior power is Dick Hawkins' impression of Willard Marshall, who very likely will reach the voting age and major leagues at the same time.

Dick, for many years sports editor of The Constitution, was visiting in the press box Thursday night.

He studied Marshall carefully the first couple of times he was at bat.

"The similarity of batting styles of Gehringer and Marshall is amazing," Dick observed. He's a native of Michigan and has watched Gehringer, Detroit second baseman, play a great deal over the years.

"Of course, Marshall is bigger and has more power. Gehringer, too, stands with a more open stance. But they hit a ball much the same way.

"Watch how Marshall holds his arms out in front of him, rests the bat on his shoulder. He is ready to hit anything thrown up to the plate.

"Like Gehringer, he gives you the impression that he can change his swing in the middle. All his power comes from powerful forearms and snap wrist action.

"There is no necessity for a hitter of this type to guess with the pitcher. He has the bat in position to hit a fast ball, curve or change of pace. It all goes back to one thing—timing.

"I don't see how Marshall can miss being a great hitting star. What about his fielding and his arm?"

The question was answered, but before the evening was over Sir Richard was able to judge for himself. Marshall made a great running catch of a foul ball. There was no occasion for him to make a difficult throw, but he has a fine arm.

And I do not know of a finer compliment a batter could be paid than to be described as a Charley Gehringer with superior power.

Also, I doubt many people have seen a 19-year-old ball player who is less unhurried in his actions. It all seems as natural with him as if he had been doing the same things for a long period of time. And yet this is only his first year of professional ball.

"I'll bet," Dick Hawkins concluded, "that he was a home-run hitter before he reached junior high."

Give Him Time Slow start and all, including the period he rode the bench and time he lost because of a bruised hand, Marshall has caught up with Socko Rocco, who can't carry his bat as a slugger, in home runs and has driven in almost twice as many runs as his teammate, Emil Mailho, who leads the league in hitting.

There is every reason to believe that if Marshall and Rocco had been able to match time at bat for time at bat, the Atlanta youth would be well in front in that most interesting skit—the Four-Base Follies.

As it is, Marshall has plenty of time. For his 132 times at bat he has scored 27 runs, driven in 43. He has hit 11 homers, four triples and seven doubles. That's 92 total bases. These figures do not include last night's game.

Give the boy time. All things being equal, he has a fine chance to lead the Southern League in home runs, runs batted in and total bases. He might even prove a real threat for the batting championship.

Not such a bad outlook when you're 19 and not even dry behind the ears, as the saying is, in the matter of professional experience.

Don't Try It Just try to slip something by a ball player in the paper. As, for instance, a recent statement that Alex Hooks, participating in six double plays at Chattanooga, had been a party to five in one game with Atlanta.

Walking through the tunnel to the Cracker bench, I felt a solid hand on my shoulder. Looking around, I saw Al Williams with a triumphant gleam in his eyes.

"I want to correct something you wrote in the paper the other day," he said.

"You said Hooks was in five double plays here. He was in SIX in that game against Little Rock. I know because I was the pitcher. There were five in a row and another one in the eighth inning. I pitched an 11-hit shutout."

Appleby Is Father Tech's great lightweight full-back of bygone days has a daughter, sir, and there is no doubt about him dressing her in White and Gold when she is old enough to cheer for the Rambling Wreck.

The Appleby heir was born at Sylacauga, Ala., on May 24 and the news reached here yesterday. Tech pals of Appleby might insinuate that that's just about right for news originating in Sylacauga, but don't believe it.

Time Out!

By Chet Smith

Gosh, Carpy—I'm losing my faith in humans—when the clergy start stretching the truth, I'm through!

When a Dodger Shines, He Gets Paid for Feat

No-Hitter Netted Carleton $500; Casey Got $200 for Shutout.

By WHITNEY MARTIN.
NEW YORK, May 31.—(AP)—Sports trail detours:

Last year the Pirates finished in sixth place. Now they are eighth. Just backing up for a fresh start, no doubt. Gene Sarazan's goal: to compete in 25 straight National Open tournaments. This will be his 21st. Dumb Dan Morgan says Boston has produced more clever boxers than any other city. He lists Jimmy Gardner, Mike Glover, Matty Baldwin, Quong Donahue and Mike and Jack (twin) Sullivan as examples. Mickey Owen, Cardinal catcher, played one game at shortstop in the American Association. His record was no assists, no put-outs, no errors. The manager thought he was just wasting time, so promoted him back to catcher the next day.

Ernie Quigley, supervisor of National League umpires, says the reason so many relief pitchers flop is their carelessness in the bullpen. Even the major leaguers, he says, warm up by just throwing, without paying any attention to the rubber and correct pitching form. When they go to the mound they have to start thinking about those little details, and their performance suffers.

They'll be calling the Dodgers Durocher's trained seals before long. Whenever a player does something outstanding he is tossed a few fish in the form of a bonus. Tex Carleton got $500 for his no-hitter, Hugh Casey $200 for blanking the Giants, 12 to 0, and Pete Coscarart and Cookie Lavagetto $100 each for timely hitting. When Babe Hamburger, Dodger front-office handy man, and Ben Tincup, coach and scout, registered at a hotel on a southern trip the clerk was going to call the cops. With those names he thought they were a couple of phonies.

Meet The Mightier-Than-Ever Mize

AP Feature Service.

Johnny Mize, the big, lumbering St. Louis Cardinals' first baseman, is off to a great start in his campaign to win the National League hitting, runs-batted-in, and home-run championships this season.

An unexplainably weak spring hitter during his previous four years in the majors, Mize surprised everyone with a burst of early walloping at a pace that may carry him to new loop records. Two years ago Johnny's spring hitting was so punk that he drew a temporary seat on the bench. Last season he was below .300 until past midseason. In late May he was hitting .317, had knocked in 25 runs and blasted a dozen homers.

Mize has always come with a rush as the campaign neared its finish. He speeded up enough to win the 1939 batting championship and the chances are that he'll turn on a heavy enough barrage to retain that crown.

It's been 10 years since a National Leaguer led the majors in homers. Hack Wilson, of the Cubs, was tops in 1930 with 56, a National League record. Mize may not only better Wilson's figure but may seriously challenge for Babe Ruth's 60 mark. Mize's spring surge has boosted him ahead of Ruth's pace in 1927. Johnny got his 12th homer several days in advance of the Ruthian pace.

These pictures show Johnny's swatting swing, his grip on the bat, and the position of his feet after he has belted the ball.

Nation's Champ Trips Mrs. Gant In Semi-Finals

Kay Pearson Drops Close One to Memphis Golfer, 2 and 1.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., May 31.—(AP) Mrs. Dave Gaut, of Memphis, four times southern golf champion and holder of more titles than you can shake a stick at, bowed out of the Memphis Country Club's Invitation tournament today—but it took a national champion to pull the trick.

Miss Betty Jameson, of San Antonio, on whose head perches the United States crown, defeated the veteran Memphian 5 and 4 in the semi-final round to gain a finalist berth with Mrs. Chatham Hunter of Memphis. Mrs. Hunter defeated Kay Pearson, of Houston, Texas, 2 and 1, in a nip-and-tuck match.

Mrs. Gaut turned in her usual consistent game, but it just wasn't good enough. Miss Jameson's tremendous drives—splitting the fairways—and accurate putting kept her ahead from the start. She had a 2-hole advantage at the turn and never slackened her pace. Tomorrow's finals will be over a 36-hole route.

FOR RED CROSS.

DALTON, Ga., May 31.—A benefit softball game, the proceeds to go to the local Red Cross chapter's drive for war relief funds, will be played here Saturday night between the Dalton "All Star" girls and the Miller-Smith Hosier, ten of Chattanooga. In addition, the Dalton "All Star" men's team will play the East Chattanooga Baptist club in the second game of the evening. Entrance proceeds above actual expenses will go to the Red Cross.

SIKES WINS.

JONSSBORO, Ark., May 31.—(AP)—Bob Sikes, of Pine Bluff, Ark., claimant to the southern heavyweight boxing title, knocked out Pete Arnold, of Detroit, after 15 seconds of the second round here last night in his first ring appearance since a recent tonsillectomy.

The Spotlight

By GRANTLAND RICE.

OLD MOSE AND YOUNG BOB.

The Yankees, recovering from their slump and driving once more toward the top of the American League, are looking closely at the Red Sox and the Indians. They never believed, even when they were in the very depths of their slump, that they were going to wind up in the shadows. And now they figure it is only a question of days before they will be in front. Meanwhile—although holding every club in the league dangerous on any given occasion—they naturally expect the strongest resistance from the Red Sox and the Indians.

They are concerned with the pitching in Boston and Cleveland. As they see it, they will be aided by a continuance of the ineffectiveness of Old Mose Grove and menaced by the skill of Bob Feller. They even think—at least some of them that I talked to the other day—that these two pitchers, one near the end of the string as a big leaguer and the other just heading into the days of his greatness, may bring about a change in the positions of their two leading rivals.

As Joe McCarthy puts it, Feller is doing for the Indians what Grove used to do for the Red Sox but can do no longer, apparently: step in and halt their skidding with a well-pitched game when the other pitchers are faltering.

So far, of course, the Red Sox have managed to do all right without Old Mose in the form he held through last year. But what of the months ahead—the hot months when the strain will be heavier on the other pitchers.

They admire Feller not only for the natural stuff he has, but for the way he has taken his fame in stride. There are no swelled heads or show-offs among the Yankees and they freely hand it to the kid from Van Meter for having already touched greatness without making any fuss about it.

Yanks Admire Them.

I asked some of the Yanks if they thought Old Mose was through—that after 15 years of hurling, during which he slipped under the 500 mark only once, and that in his first year out of Baltimore—if the Lonaconing Limited really had lost his stuff. I asked them that, remembering that everybody thought he was through as far back as 1934 when he won only eight games in his first year in Boston.

They remembered that, too—and remembered how he came back with a rush—and what a pitcher he was right up to the end of last season. Only one of them answered. "I don't know," he said, "but that's what we heard when we were in Boston. The dope we got was that while he might come through with a good game once in a while—might get out there any afternoon and blow that curve ball of his around the plate and then let go with a fast one now and then just to remind the hitters he still has it—he isn't going to be much real help to the club any more.

If that's so, those other Boston pitchers had better be hot all season. Check back and you'll find that the 15 games Grove won last year meant the difference between second place and fourth—at least."

Incidentally, Grove and Feller, who may in one way or the other have such an effect not only on the fate of their own clubs but on the fate of the Yankees as well, are two of the Yanks' favorite athletes.

But Diz got them on his side after the final game of the 1939 series when he walked into their clubhouse at the Stadium and said he hated to lose, but getting beaten by a great ball club took some of the sting out of the defeat.

They remember that, too—and remembered how he came back with a rush—and what a pitcher he was right up to the end of last season. Only one of them answered. "I don't know," he said, "but that's what we heard when we were in Boston. The dope we got was that while he might come through with a good game once in a while—might get out there any afternoon and blow that curve

MOTORCYCLE
National Champions
★★★ RACES ★★★
Lakewood—Sunday

For a tall, frosty summer drink try an...

OLD JORDAN Whiskey Collins

Takes just 43 seconds to make: Ice cubes, juice of half a lemon, teaspoonful powdered sugar, jigger Old Jordan, charged water.

GET THAT "BLUE-GRASS BOUQUET"

SHAKE HANDS WITH A FINE SUMMER FRIEND—OLD JORDAN WHISKEY COLLINS

One frosty sip and we have an idea you'll put Old Jordan Whiskey Collins at the top of your summer-drink list. For Old Jordan brings the sunny fragrance of Kentucky Blue Grass meadows to your glass—and a delicious flavor-full goodness. There's a reason. Old Jordan is custom-made in the clean, sweet country air of Nelson County—and aged four years in sunny, breezy warehouses. Try Old Jordan. Taste the delicious difference.

NATIONAL SALES REPRESENTATIVES: Chas. F. Miller, Inc., Cincinnati, Ohio

OLD JORDAN KENTUCKY STRAIGHT BOURBON WHISKEY BOTTLED IN BOND FULL 100 PROOF $1.25 PER PINT Ask for Old Jordan at Your Favorite Bar

FIRST DISTILLED BY PHIL JORDAN IN 1832

14 Georgians Will Graduate At West Point

Two Atlantans, 2 From Decatur in Military Academy Class.

(Pictures on Page 7.) Fourteen Georgia youths will be among the cadets graduated in June by the United States military Academy at West Point and commissioned as second lieutenants. Two are Atlantans, two from Decatur, while Savannah leads the state with five representatives. John D. Townsend, son of Mrs. S. T. Almand, of 888 Myrtle street, N. E., was graduated from Tech High and took the year's preparatory course at Fort McPherson. He was appointed by Senator George. His first tour of duty probably will be at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Thomas K. Spencer, the other Atlantian, son of Colonel and Mrs. T. C. Spencer, of 16 Wood Crest avenue, obtained a presidential appointment. He will receive an infantry commission with an air corps detail.

Artillery for Orr. James L. Orr, son of Mrs. O. N. Orr, 416 East Ponce de Leon avenue, Decatur, attended Sandersville High school, Emory Junior College at Oxford and the fort McPherson preparatory school. He will enter field artillery with an air detail.

James P. Strauss, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Strauss, of 522 East Ponce de Leon avenue, Decatur, attended Arkansas school, was a cadet sergeant, will be commissioned in infantry and probably stationed at Fort McPherson.

Irving H. Shearer, son of Mr. and Mrs. O. P. Shearer, of Alpharetta, also will be commissioned in infantry and given an aviation detail. He attained the rank of cadet sergeant in his first year and was active in boxing and baseball.

Air Assignment. William B. Campbell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Campbell, of Carrollton, attained the rank of cadet lieutenant in his first class year, was active in tennis and will be commissioned in coast artillery with an air assignment.

Delbert E. Munson, son of Mrs. F. L. Munson, of 1416 Starke avenue, Columbus, received a presidential appointment, became a cadet sergeant and probably will be stationed at Fort Benning with an infantry commission.

Alvin C. Gillem, son of Colonel and Mrs. A. C. Gillem Jr., of Fort Benning, was notable in athletics, and will be commissioned in infantry with an air corps assignment.

Hugh J. Turner Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Turner, of McDonough, attended The Citadel, was cadet sergeant, was a member of the honor committee and will be commissioned in coast artillery, probably to be stationed at Fort Barrancas.

Sunday School Teacher. Fred P. Fuller Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Fuller, of 238 East Oglethorpe avenue, Savannah, was a cadet sergeant, Sunday school teacher, a member of the Bugles Notes staff.

Wing F. Jung, son of Mr. and Mrs. Home Jung, of 341 Habersham street, Savannah, was a cadet lieutenant, active in football and boxing, and will be commissioned in infantry and probably stationed at Fort Benning.

Lloyd W. Hough, son of Mrs. J. F. Goins, of 205 West Charlton street, Savannah, attended the University of Georgia, had strong musical leanings, and will be commissioned in infantry and probably stationed at Fort McPherson.

Allan A. Crockett, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. Z. Crockett, of 9 East York street, Savannah, was graduated from Atlanta Boys' High school, was a cadet sergeant, played polo, will be commissioned in cavalry and detailed to the air corps.

James F. Kreitzer, of Savannah Beach, was graduated from Savannah High school, was a cadet sergeant, and will be commissioned in cavalry and probably assigned to Fort Ethan Allen.

U.S. Navy Launches Two Destroyers

BOSTON, May 31.—(AP)—Two new 1,630-ton destroyers, the U. S. S. Nicholson and the U. S. S. Wilkes, were christened today at the Boston navy yard. The vessels cost approximately $5,500,000 each.

Mrs. S. A. Bathrick, of Everett, Mass., sponsored the Nicholson, named in honor of her grandfather, Capt. Samuel Nicholson, first commander of the frigate Constitution.

The Wilkes was named for Rear Admiral Charles Wilkes, a civil war hero. The craft was christened by a granddaughter, Mrs. Henry D. Styer, of Coronado, Cal.

Extinguisher Sent Away, Then Requested Again

SALT LAKE CITY, May 31.—(AP)—Someone from a local garage phoned the fire department to pick up a fire extinguisher which had been lying on the sidewalk in front of the company's building several days.

Then someone from the same firm telephoned the fire department to bring back the extinguisher. It belonged to the company and had been set outside for a refill and forgotten.

Boil and Mumps Bring Excuses for Two Jurors

SPARTANBURG, S. C., May 31.—(AP)—After announcing he had excused a juror because he "has a boil," Circuit Judge Thomas S. Sease said: "The doctor tells me another member of the jury has the mumps, but he's here. You gentlemen don't want him here, do you?"

A chorus of vociferous "noes" rang out. The man with the mumps was excused.

RICH'S BASEMENT

ROBE and GOWN
in Printed Batiste
2-pc. set: 1.98

Full length robe and a gown to match! Wonderful for travel—packs into tiny space; grand for gifts! Flower-prints, checks or dots; tailored. Sizes 14-20.

NuBack

Summer Foundations will not "ride up"!

3.29

Cool Brocade or Striped Madras

Well-boned for ample support, with uplift brassiere of lace or swam; four hose supporters. The patented "NuBack" back is specially designed so that the foundation fits while you sit, bend, stoop! Sizes 34 to 44.

NUBACK Girdles and Foundations from $3.29 to $5.98 each.

Just in! Brand-New for Summer!

Printed Rayon

Bemberg Sheer

DRESSES

3.98

Flower-garden prints and tiny dots or bow-knots—daisies on pastel backgrounds! Exquisite feminine frills—cool-looking, and cool to wear! Full skirts—flared, pleated, panel or gored. Soft shirring in bodices—soft, flattering necklines. Background colors are: White, Powder, Rose, Green, Luggage, Navy, Orchid, Black.

SIZES:
9 to 17; 12 to 20
38 to 52; 18½ to 24½

SALE!
Nationally Advertised Brand!

$1.15 CHIFFON HOSE
69¢ pr.
3 prs. for $2.00
Slight irregulars

Pure silk from top to toe! 3-thread chiffons, full-fashioned Flexible-top—allows room for stretching, for knee-bend! Reinforced heel and toe—sizes 8½ to 10½; new summery shades.

MUNSING
Wear

THREE PANTIES

in super smooth non-run rayons!

75¢ ea.

Regulation Panty: well-reinforced crotch; full length.

Sports Panty: shorter, with band legs. Reinforced crotch.

Brief: short "banty" type.

Tailored smoothly for a perfect fit under summer dresses! White or tearose—with a lastex waistband. Sizes 32 to 44.

Angelic WHITE

for Summer Swank

Enna Jettick

America's Smartest Walking Shoes... $5 to $6

WHITE SHOES fresh as a white cloud in the blue summer sky!... almost as cool, too, with their breezy open-toes and showers of perforations! You'll bless your Enna Jetticks all summer long—for heavenly comfort, for cool white beauty, for making your feet look sizes smaller! Only six of dozens of new Whites are shown.

SIZES 2½ to 11, AAAA to EEE in the group.

Miss Speck Weds Robert E. Gartner

Miss Evelyn Virginia Speck became the bride of Robert Eugene Gartner at a ceremony taking place last evening at the home of the bride's parents on Beecher street. Rev. Harry B. Wade, pastor of the West End Presbyterian church, performed the marriage at 8 o'clock.

A musical program was presented by Mrs. Charles Rogers, soloist, accompanied at the piano by Miss Theima Morris. The improvised altar was effectively banked with palms and ferns interspersed with cathedral candelabra holding burning white tapers and floor baskets containing Easter lilies.

The bride's maid of honor and only attendant was her sister, Miss June Speck. She was crowned in a model of green crepe with which she wore white accessories and a shoulder spray of Talisman roses and valley lilies.

The bride was given in marriage by her father, Roy Hilton Speck. They were met at the altar by the groom and his best man, Lenard Gartner, his brother. She wore a gown of navy blue crepe topped with a beige fitted coat. Completing her outfit were white accessories and a shoulder spray of gardenias and valley lilies.

Mrs. Speck, the bride's mother, was attired in a model of dusty pink crepe with which she wore a shoulder bouquet of yellow roses and delphinium. Mrs. George Leonard Gartner, the groom's mother, wore a black net dress trimmed with white lace and a spray of pink roses and lavender sweet peas adorned her shoulder.

After the ceremony the bride's parents entertained at a reception at their home. The table was overlaid with a dainty lace cloth centered with a beautiful tiered wedding cake, the base of which was graced with white flowers. Flanking either side of the cake were crystal candelabra holding gleaming white tapers.

After a wedding trip Mr. Gartner and his bride will reside at 811 Gilbert street, S. E.

Visitor, Bride-Elect Honored at Party.

Miss Helen Schmitt, of Logansport, Ind., who is visiting Miss Frances Norman and Miss Evelyn Burns, popular bride-elect of June, were honored at a bridge-tea, at which Miss Norman was hostess at her home on Peachtree road.

Mrs. Harry Norman, mother of the hostess, and Mrs. James T. Burns, mother of the bride-elect, assisted the hostess in entertaining.

Tea was served from a lace-covered table in the dining room centered with an all-white arrangement of early summer flowers, encircled by lighted white tapers held in silver candlesticks.

Guests included Misses Schmitt, Burns, Helen Miller, Bowdre Hamilton, Josephine Clayton, Gene and Mary Frances Witherspoon, Polly Tenuel, Margaret Jones, Rene Landgraf, Marion Mobley, Hermione Jacobs and Mesdames Vernon Brown, Pete Morris, Arthur McGhee, Eric Johnson, Harry Olsen and James T. Burns.

Summer Opening Is Held At Druid Hills Golf Club

Druid Hills Golf Club members and their out-of-town guests gathered Saturday evening to enjoy the formal summer opening of the club. The terrace is bordered with boxes of garden flowers and strings of colored lights, making a beautiful setting for a dance in the moonlight.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hutton, Dr. and Mrs. Ralph Aiken, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Hall, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Carson, Willis Hawkins, Miss Betty Read and Mr. and Mrs. Tom Fisher dined together. Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Logan, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Pharr, Mrs. Virginia Fain, Marvin Martin, Dr. Raymond Arp, Miss Betty Brown formed a party.

At another table were Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Holloway, Marvin Tucker, Miss Maxine Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Kendrick, Dr. J. R. Jordan, Miss Estelle Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Dunwoody, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Liles, in a group were Mr. and Mrs. Beverly Embry, Mr. and Mrs. Roy L. Graves, Mr. and Mrs. E. Cantrell, Mr. and Mrs. J. Conner, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Gatlin, Mr. and Mrs. King, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. McKimley, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Mrs. Harry Bolling, Bill Terrell and Kent Higgins dined together. Another of the larger parties included Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Hudson, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Griffith, Russell Phelps, Miss Jane Bunker, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Arne Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. McCoy, Mr. and Mrs. Wintley Wynn, Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Goolsby entertained Miss Irene Campbell, Dr. Clyde Cogswell, Miss Virginia Terrell, Dr. Charles McDonald, Miss Lillian Shortley, Dr. J. R. Rogers. Forming a group were Walter W. Aycock, Mrs. Olga Aycock, Carl F. Marsh, Miss Irma Borg, Tom North, Miss Wilda Keeler, J. Henry Barbour, Miss Sybil Asbury, W. J. Barbour and Miss Doreen McMahon.

H. R. Crosby entertained as his guests Mr. and Mrs. R. Means Davis, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Patterson, Miss Sara Bell, Jimmy Slocum, W. V. Luker, Miss Helen Walker, I. O. Teasley, Miss Ruth Meeks, Dr. and Mrs. M. T. Myers, Miss Guy Bagwell, Miss Eleanor Smith, R. L. Naele, Miss Elsie Wilson dined together.

At another table were Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Stephens, Joe Snyder, Miss Catherine Betts, R. L. Turman, Miss A. Roundtree, A. H. Coledge Jr., Miss Jean Edwards, Alvin L. Coledge, W. B. Spann, Dining together were Miss Isabell Hamilton, Avery Austin, Miss Marie D. Fowles, Renny Massengale, Mr. and Mrs. Wiley A. Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Jacobs Jr., Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Baird, Mr. and Mrs. Art Kern, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hull, Mrs. Stanley Delle, C. H. Whitworth, Mrs. James K. Dobbs.

Pharr-Eleazer Wedding Plans.

Invitations have been received here to the wedding of Miss Evelyn Pharr, of Birmingham, and Robert B. Eleazer Jr., of Thomasville, N. C., which will take place in the Fairfield Presbyterian church, Birmingham, at 8:30 o'clock this evening. Officiating will be Dr. W. A. Alexander, pastor of the South Highlands Presbyterian church, and Rev. A. G. Irons, pastor of the Fairfield church.

The bride-elect will be given in marriage by her father, George M. Pharr Jr. The matron of honor will be Mrs. Oley Sellers and the maid of honor Miss Frances Eleazer, of Atlanta, sister of the bridegroom-elect. The bridesmaids will be Misses Brownie Lollar, Billy Hill, June Kelton and Mary Louise Ozier.

The groom-elect's best man will be his father, R. B. Eleazer, of Atlanta. The groomsmen will be George M. Pharr III, brother of the bride-to-be; Frank Eleazer, of Macon, brother of the groom-elect; H. B. Merriam, of Atlanta; Porter Fleming, of Nashville, uncle of the groom-elect, and W. H. Patterson, of Nashville. The bride-elect's parents will entertain at a rehearsal reception at their home on Friday evening.

Miss Martin Will Entertain.

Miss Dorothy Martin entertains a few friends at a buffet supper this evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Martin, 906 Parkway drive.

Invited are Misses Sue Heldman, Mae Crumley, Adelaide Gregory, Ailene Barron, Elvira Chooswood, and Jack Ball, Clarence Stubblebine, Weston Caldwell, Bill Bishop, Greer Busbee and Jack Durrett.

Recital Is Planned At Griffith School.

L'ella Griffith Bedard and Mary Griffith Dobbs, of the Griffith School of Music, will present a group of pupils from the junior department in recital this evening at 8 o'clock in the studios, 650 Bonaventure avenue, N. E.

Taking part will be Joan Atlas, Zena Cate, Florence Crook, Ladlie Congor, John Cash, Beverly Dobbs, John Ferguson, Ira Ferguson, Bobby Folwell, Elizabeth de Garis, Joan Holley, John Heyser, Mary Agnes Heyser, Clara Horton, Winnie Horton, Molly Anne Markert, Dorothy Morrison, Jo Anne Melsher, Ann Moscovitz, Maude Moore, Jane Poole, Ida Pennington, Barbara Regenstein, Richard Sewell, Helen Sewell, Eva May Schnore, Evelyn Schnore, Hugo Sewell, Joe Sewell, Ben Shippen, Joseph Shippen, Winnifred Shackleford, Lourine Tate, Polly Tate, John Woodruff, Frances Woodruff and Ann Louise Woodfin.

LAST DAY Wm. A. Rogers "Rio" PLATED FLATWARE

Our Reg. 34.50 Set

16.98

Made and guaranteed by Oneida, Ltd. 52-pc. Service for 8, complete in chest.

- |                                |                  |
|--------------------------------|------------------|
| 8 Dinner Forks                 | 8 Dessert Spoons |
| 8 Teaspoons                    | 2 Tablespoons    |
| 8 Iced Teaspoons               | 1 Butter Knife   |
| 8 Salad Forks                  | 1 Sugar Shell    |
| 8 Hollow-Handle Dinner Knives. |                  |

Terms: $1 Down, $3 Month.

RICH'S

Silver Shop
Street Floor

Cool White Gloves

Lace, crochet, embroidery, organdy

The most correct thing in the world for summer and you need several pairs because white requires frequent washings! These come in a wide range of styles and sizes too! Slightly irregular!

48c

RICH'S

Glove Shop
Street Floor

Splash! Swim Suits for Young Atlantans!

For Girls!

1.98-5.44

Catalina, Jantzen and others. Princess models, 1 me bra tops; Ballerina or panel skirts, 2 others without skirts. Prints and solids of satin-lustre, velvety and water velvet. Cell blue, aqua, royal, red, white. 8-16 and 41-15.

Swim caps, 35c to 79c

Slack set. Two-toned beige and turf tan, royal and copen. 12-18.

Sunback seersucker play suit. Sizes 12-18.

Large size play suit. Striped blue and red. 38-44.

Play Shop
Street Floor

RICH'S

For Tots and Toddlers!

1.00-1.98

Sleek, gay suits and trunks of wools, acetates and satin-lustre in pastel and vivid tones. Miniatures of "big sister's" that will decorate beach or pool.

For Boys!

89c-3.95

Swim trunks in the most popular lustre and wool. Comes in solid colors and fancy patterns, in blues, greens, yellows and maroon. Sizes 4-18. Style illustrated has zipper pocket.

Young Atlantan Shop
Second Floor

Special Tussy Offer

Reg. $2 Lipstick
DeLuxe Extra Size

$1

4 new shades and six other fashion-correct in delicate shades to harmonize with your new spring outfit. The famous Tussy lipstick that is made on the superb soothing-and-smoothing cream base.

RICH'S

Toiletries Shop
Street Floor

Alexandra de Markoff

Powder and Lipstick

Both for

$1

Reg. 1.75 value for a limited time so that you may discover the beauty-giving merit of Alexandra de Markoff's exquisite preparations. A wide range of shades.

RICH'S

Toiletries Shop
Street Floor

Sandals

for the Younger Set

Hurrah! Soon happy youngsters will be wending their way to camp, beach, summer cottage, and they want sandals. We have them! We doubt if there's a larger stock in the entire South than ours. Misses' and children's sizes, 8-12 and 14 to 3.

1.98

Luggage Tan with open toe, 10 to 3 ..... 1.98

White Calf with open toe, 8-12 ..... .98

3-5 and 6-8 ..... 1.68

All White Poplin with wedge, also red and white, 12-3 ..... 1.98

Children's Shoes
Street Floor

RICH'S

Thin Wool Suit Highlights Star's New Wardrobe

By Sheila Graham.

HOLLYWOOD, May 31.—Rosemary Lane went on a shopping spree the other day. And came back with a smart postman's thin wool suit. The tailored jacket has large scallops down the front closing, and serving as breast pockets; the skirt is flared. Accessories—white gauntlet gloves, blue patent open-toed shoes, blue leather bag. And matching straw poke bonnet.

Rosemary also purchased a dusty rose jersey dress with two large pockets solidly encrusted with yarn embroidery in sapphire blue, yellow, black and white. It has a high round neck and short sleeves. . . . And a dinner gown styled with a fitted bodice and puffed sleeves of crisp black taffeta. The full skirt fashioned of alternate tiers of black taffeta on white eyelet embroidery joined with a band of bright red grosgrain ribbon. A boutonniere of bright red cherries adds a dashing note.

A print summer gown purchased by Rosemary is of chalky white crepe, showing huge tropical flowers of black, coral and sapphire blue. The bodice has a crossed-over front, cap sleeves and corsetlet waistline. The skirt features sunburst pleats.

Miss Lane's checked taffeta afternoon gown is accented with tufts of yellow and red yarn. The flattering neckline has a flat bow of self-fabric fore and aft. The bias-cut skirt is stitched below the waist. Her off-the-face chapeau is of black rough straw with flaring face veil.

Yes, Rosemary also got herself one of the popular plaid coats. Of white, with plaid of bright blue and black, the coat has a tuxedo collar. The accompanying beret is of navy blue straw banded in taffeta. . . . Another coat in plain white processed lamb has a double-breasted closing and huge patch pockets. A belt of self-fabric is set from the front sides and gives a fitted look. . . . And a smart jacket suit of beige wool, styled with a fitted jacket, shows high pockets and double-breasted style. The gored skirt is fitted to the hips and flares sharply to the knees. Her brothers sailor of natural straw, banded in luggage tan, matches her bag. To go with the ensemble are natural colored suede pull-ons and a large fruit cluster pin.

Irene Dunne at Ciro's in a white and navy printed crepe dinner dress (grape pattern—fruit and leaves—on white background). The waistline is marked by a narrow grosgrain belt. At her neckline is a clip of diamond leaves with sapphire graces.

Gail Patrick dancing with her husband in Perino's Sky Room wearing a pale blue chiffon dinner dress—long, full sleeves—gathered at wrists. All over the dress are tiny seed pearls. At the neckline, Miss Patrick wears a shell pink came clip—surrounded by seed pearls.

Buttoned Style

By Lillian Mae.

Wherever you spend your summer—at seashore, mountains, country or on your own front porch—a button-front dress will be enormously useful. Pattern 4474, by Lillian Mae, has free-cut lines for swinging a golf club, driving a car or working in the garden or house. There's a yoke clear across the action-back with gathers below. Each front yoke is cut in one easy piece with a center panel. That front buttoning helps you dress quickly, and lets you spread the frock flat for simple ironing. Choose between two smart necklines: one is high, young and round; the other a cool lower version. An easy-to-make frock with the Sewing Instructor's aid.

Pattern 4474 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 takes 4 yards 33-inch fabric.

Send fifteen cents (15c) in coins for this Lillian Mae pattern. Do not send stamps. Write plainly Size, Name, Address and Style Number.

Order the new Lillian Mae Pattern Book by the next mail. . . . and be clothes-ready for summer! Book fifteen cents. Pattern fifteen cents.

Send your order to Lillian Mae Pattern Department, The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

POINTS FOR PARENTS June Time Is Groom Time

By Edyth Thomas Wallace.

Mother: "You are staying with grandmother today because I must go in a hurry. Some day soon, when I have more time, I will take you for a walk."

Mother: "Come on—mother's in a rush. . . . No, you can't stop to look in that window. . . . do try to walk faster. . . . don't stop to pick up that stick. . . . etc., etc."

Until a child is old enough to have some understanding of time, it is better to leave him at home when mother must go somewhere in a hurry.

Pride Pitted Against Love In Marriage, Defeats Love

By Caroline Chatfield.

Yesterday we printed in full a lengthy letter from a lady who craved the privilege of giving a few pointers to middle-aged married women. There was some common sense in what she had to say. But from our viewpoint it was hard and shall we say a bit cynical. Here is our rejoinder:

Pride, said the lady of the letter, is a woman's well-being. . . . Isn't that the sort of pride which a famous scholar said went before destruction? Middle-aged wives, said the lady, should take keen interest in personal appearance not to hold husbands but to hold on to their self-assurance. Has anybody yet seen a man who fell in love with a woman because she was self-assured or remained in love with her because she became more and more self-assured?

Be kind and good to a husband, said the lady, because he needs somebody to be good to him; and expect similar treatment. Don't check and double-check him, but give him freedom and hang on to your own freedom. Was there ever a husband who was satisfied with anything less than demonstrable affection from his wife and was there ever a wife who could subsist happily on kindness? Surely individuals should keep their individuality, but when husband and wife begin to quibble over personal freedom and independence, the jig is up. Love, per se, is bondage, and when love is mutual the bondage is sweet.

From the altar, the lady said, wives should be thinking of financial security for themselves and their children, and so they should, but this should include thought for the family as a unit and not for women and children only. Where is a husband who could use and enjoy kindness extended from his wife's right hand while she used the other to provide financial security for her and the children in case he checked out on them?

The prostrate wife always gets stepped on, says the lady. So she does. But why in Heaven's name

If you've held your head up and gathered your pride about you as a protecting curtain, said the lady, and the husband does step out, you can hoist your head still higher and say good-bye to bad rubbish; and there are plenty of fish yet in the sea uncaught. But can a wife hold up clean hands and say she had nothing to do with a man's going when she's frozen him out? Is she happy when he's gone?

Husbands, said the lady, are indispensable only as progenitors and providers. Surely, when a wife's conception of a husband's function in marriage is reduced to the lowest common denominator and she regards him merely as a progenitor and provider, she need not expect anything further from him. And says I, he has some justification for his stepping out to find affection. Not more than 50 per cent of the guilt is his if he does.

We may pay our money and take our choice in this life. Most of us want affection more than we want anything else and we have to forget ourselves to find it.

With the abolition of first and second class on electric trains running out of Sydney, Australia, smokers are permitted to smoke at will in all cars except those marked "Nonsmokers."

During a blackout made complete by an electricity failure in the northern part of the Isle of Man, Private D. P. McLinden, a Manxman, was buried by moonlight in Douglas cemetery.

June Time Is Groom Time

By Yolande Gwin.

June time is groom time. And it is one of the key months of the year to make That Man of Yours buy clothes.

He may have been the Groom to whom you whispered "Yes," but those June Grooms who will march down the aisles in great numbers during the next 30 days may have a great influence on your home life. They may have said "with all my worldly goods, I thee endow," to the blushing bride in white tulle at his side, but just remember your man is at your side, so do your best to keep him there.

Just look around the church at the men. Then clutch Your Man by his arm and say: "Look, dear, at that man going into the third pew left. Isn't that the most becoming hat? It's a Homburg, isn't it? I think you should get another one, because it will be wise to have one in reserve, for they will always be tops as a formal hat for year-around wear with dinner jackets and dark town suits. And look, there is that new bachelor in town, and see his hat, it's a snap brim. Somehow, they are my favorites. They never seem to go out of style."

Of course as the afternoon progresses you can mention suits, shirts, ties and shoes, and by using the right technique you will have him watching the men guests instead of the women. (And that is a point in your favor, too!)

All the way home from the wedding (or at the wedding reception) you can tactfully bring up the subject of men's clothes by referring to what certain men wore. No man likes for a woman to rave a whole afternoon or evening about her clothes and what the girls wore. Give him a chance by talking about the men. It will not only flatter him, but it will have its effect, for there is not a man living who does not crave to be the man in the newspaper and magazine ads.

Woman's Quiz

Q. Can wallpaper that has been painted over be removed?

A. It will not respond to the ordinary clear-water soaking that will remove unpainted paper. Try scratching the paint surface with No. 2 sandpaper and then wash with a strong solution of washing soda. If stubborn, it may be necessary to use a commercial paint remover before the paper can be soaked off.

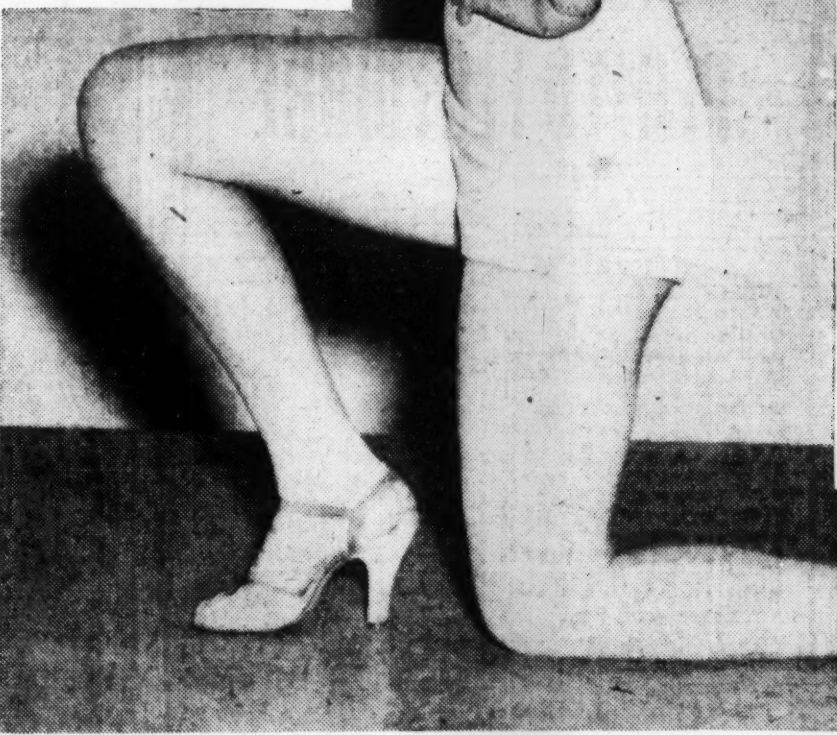

Q. Is it possible to get reliable information concerning the merits of the various sun lamps?

A. Information will be supplied by the Council on Physical Therapy, American Medical Association, 535 North Dearborn street, Chicago, Ill.

Have you a household problem to solve? Write your question clearly, sign your name and address, enclose a three-cent postage stamp and mail to the Woman's Editor of The Constitution, Washington Service Bureau, 1015 15th street, Washington, D. C., for a reply. Don't telephone; write as directed.

Book Learning

The first lesson in your book learning for good posture is to practice walking with two heavy books on your head. Gale Storm, RKO Radio's newcomer, demonstrates the next step—with the books still on your head, put hands on hips, bend knees, keeping back straight, an return to original position. For the third exercise, place hands on hips; step one pace forward with right foot, drop to left knee. Return to standing position, then reverse. If the books stay on top, you know your back is straight and your chin up. Next time you walk up the street, pretend you're carrying the books and watch yourself snap out of that slouch.

MY DAY: Reviving Memories In New York State

By Eleanor Roosevelt.

NEW YORK CITY, Thursday.—All day yesterday we journeyed by train through the familiar scenery of New York state. Usually I motor through this part of the country, but the Erie railroad takes me through some lovely places. The light green of the hillsides, darkened here and there by evergreen trees, with the full and swiftly flowing brooks and rivers, makes the trip very delightful. Mountain laurel brightens the hills, and the lilacs and many of the flowering shrubs and spring bulbs are out in people's gardens. I wonder if my own lilacs will be gone when I next go home.

The familiar names which I have never attached to any railroad station before, and the parts of towns and villages which lie near the railroad tracks, but which you do not often see when motoring, were very interesting—Hancock, Oswego, Elmira, Hornell, Corning went by like an unfolding panorama. I liked the name "Friendship" for a town. It would be reassuring if you were a stranger.

Finally, we came to Olean. I had not been in Olean for a good many years, and then I was organizing for the Democratic state committee. Coming back to give a nonpartisan lecture seemed odd, but I must say I found it easier to talk about things which do not center around a political party.

I had the pleasure of seeing Judge Dowd and his two daughters. He is an old and loyal friend and it is always good to see him. We had supper with him after the lecture, while we waited for our train back to New York city. He is coming to Washington Tuesday, so I'll see him there.

Today I saw two gentlemen before going to my broadcast. I left immediately after that for Westchester county, where I am giving a Memorial Day address at Fernald cemetery. In the evening a few friends dined with me in New York city.

Tomorrow the members of the good neighbor four of the General Federation of Women's Clubs will sail for a visit to the South American republics. I think it is very significant that they are going at this time to cement friendship between us and our sister nations to the south of us when the countries across the Atlantic ocean are engaged in a life and death struggle which cannot fail to bring untold suffering to many, no matter which way it turns.

I hope these women will take my good wishes to all those whom they visit and that they will have a safe and pleasant journey. On their return they will have the satisfaction of knowing they have made new contacts and new friendships between peoples who desire to remain at peace.

THESE WOMEN! By d'Alessio

THE TWIMBLY TWINS

"Try this one on, Winnie. I want to see how I look in it."

Today's Charm Tip

To play a domineering woman, an actress is trained to jerk her head back stiffly, throw out her chest, set her jaw and sail onto the stage.

As Long as Short Skirts Are Featured, So Are Legs

By Ida Jean Kain.

As long as Paris is short on dress material, it will be the style to wear the skirt short. It is what you might call making a fashion of necessity.

The word "short" is always comparative. Skirts are now short at 17 inches from the floor in comparison with the 14 inches that used to be considered extreme. . . . there is no telling where it will all end. Being excellent psychologists, the style dictators will not call attention to the economics of the situation. They will merely point out the smartness of brevity as they continue to clip off the inches. But no matter how smart, short skirts are not becoming unless they are supported by a good pair of legs and it is no secret that the average run of legs is not what it should be.

The reason is that legs are under-exercised. Usually the trouble is not in too much or too little fat, but in the under-development of the muscles. A good musculature gives a trimmer calf and ankle contour to any pair of legs.

Practically any sport affords excellent workouts for these leg muscles. Even tramping over a golf course is good legwork. If the legs are extremely thin, bicycling will develop a nice calf. Or you can acquire lovelier limbs on the exercise mat. That is not as much fun as riding a bike, but you can do it daily and it will make a steady improvement in leg contours.

Have you ever given this old reliable a fair trial? First, lie on the back on the floor. Then, place the hands under the hips for leverage, and swing the legs—keeping the knees straight—up and back overhead until the toes rest on the floor. Curl toes toward the instep and swing the legs from the hips in a scissors action for 50 counts. Keep the knees straight and point the heels hard. When you have finished, rest for a few minutes before getting back into the same position, this time with the toes pointed, for another 50 counts.

Very much the same stretching and contracting of the leg muscles is put into practice in swimming. The old flutter kick is a neat leg improver. If you can't swim worth mentioning, hang on to the rail at the pool or the rope at the beach, and kick from the hips, first pointing the toes, then the heels.

For your landlubber days, here is another exercise that will hasten the good work: Stand with one hand on the back of a chair for support and, rising on the toes, go into a deep-knee bend. Repeat very slowly, five times. Rest, then try the same exercise with the heels on the floor.

Balanced Slimming Menu.

BREAKFAST—	Calories
Tomato juice, 1-2 glass	25
Crisp bacon, 2 strips	50
Toast, 1 slice	75
Butter, 1 pat, 1-4 inch thick	50
Coffee, 1 tablespoon cream, 1 lump sugar	55
	255
LUNCHEON—
Scrambled eggs, 2	200
Stewed tomatoes	35
Chopped vegetable salad	25
(Reducer's French Dressing)
Melba toast, 2 slices	50
Skim milk, 1 glass	80

390

DINNER—
Roast lamb, 4x4x1-2 in. 200
Green peas, 1-2 cup 50
Parsley potato 125
Hot roll 100
Butter, 1 pat, 1-4 in. thick 50
Slice of pineapple 100

Total calories for day 1,270

Send for "Leg Normalizing Exercises," which were designed to give you a trim calf and well-turned ankle. Please enclose a stamped return envelope with your request to Miss Kain, in care of The Atlanta Constitution.

Daytime Charm

By Barbara Bell.

1983-B

It will look as fresh and bright as a morning glory, this slim apron-frock with ruffles at the armholes. But it won't wilt with the noonday sun, because it's so simple and so well-fitted that you can work as hard as you please without getting it mussed and sloppy looking. Cut high at the waistline and tied with sash bow at the back design No. 1983-B has a few gathers to make it fit nicely over the bosom, and that's all the detailing there is to it. It's extremely easy to make—and even easier to wear. Nothing tight or hampering about it anywhere. It goes on over your head and buttons on the shoulders.

Make this of gingham, percale, calico or linen and trim it with ric-rac. Step-by-step sew chart included.

Barbara Bell Pattern No. 1983-B is designed for sizes 12, 14, 16, 18, 20 and 40. Corresponding bust measurements 30, 32, 34, 36, 38 and 40. Size 14 (32) requires 3-4 yards of 35-inch material without nap; 3-1/2 yards ric-rac.

Send, right this minute, for Barbara Bell's new Fashion Book! It's a brilliant pattern parade of the best spring styles, in designs that you can easily, thriftily make at home? Everything you want—home frocks, dressy clothes, sports outfits, lingerie, adorable children's clothes.

Price of pattern 15 cents, book 15 cents. Do not send stamps. Mail order to Barbara Bell Pattern Dept., The Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

Former Atlantan To Wed June 4 In Tupelo, Miss.

TUPELO, Miss., May 31.—Announcement is made of the wedding plans of Miss Ann Harley Boggan, daughter of Mrs. James Wesley Prentiss Boggan, of Tupelo, Miss., and Monroe Stallings Woodward Jr., son of Monroe Stallings Woodward and the late Mrs. Woodward, of Atlanta.

The marriage will be solemnized Tuesday, June 4, at 5:30 o'clock at the First Methodist church here, with Dr. W. A. Tyson officiating. A program of nuptial music will be presented by Mrs. Douglas Hunter and Miss Virginia Shaw, soloists, with Mrs. Lowell Otto at the organ.

Ushers will be Rex Giles, Ke Francis, Lee Lindsey, and P. S. Smith. R. Howard Dobbins Jr., of Atlanta, brother-in-law of the bridegroom-elect, will be best man. And the bride will be given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Raymond Clift, of Tupelo.

Miss Jamie Boggan, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor. Misses Mary Helen Clift and Mary Anne Lindsey will be flower girls.

A number of lovely parties are being planned for Miss Boggan, the first in the series being that of Mrs. Raeburn McConnell today. Miss Marjorie Milan gave a bridge party, Monday Misses Martha Sue Laney and Frances Weaver are entertaining with a breakfast. Miss Castrell Milan honored Miss Boggan with a luncheon on Wednesday, and that afternoon Miss Virginia Shaw entertained with a tea in her home.

Mr. and Mrs. Rex Giles entertain with a barbecue today for Miss Boggan and Mr. Woodward, Mr. and Mrs. Ke Francis will entertain at a buffet supper on Sunday evening.

Miss Baker Wins Sweepstakes Prize.

The Log Cabin Garden Club presented its annual flower show recently at the Log Cabin Sunday school. The committee in charge included Mesdames L. L. Barnett, chairman; J. Furlow Smith, J. W. Grimes, J. A. Camp, A. B. Caldwell and J. M. Marbut.

Judges were Mrs. B. Herman Johns, Mrs. Lamar Partee, both of Atlanta, and Mrs. Forest Bloodworth, of Smyrna, Ga.

The sweepstakes prize went to Miss Pearl Baker. The horticultural ribbon was given to Miss Frances Potter. Mrs. J. Furlow Smith and Mrs. J. W. Marbut tied for the most ribbons received in artistic arrangement. Miss Pearl Baker also received the award for specimen blooms.

Officers of the Wesleyan Alumnae of Atlanta were photographed at the recent tea given at the Atlanta Woman's Club, the group including, left to right, Mrs. Ransom Burts, newly elected chairman of Group 5; Mrs. Walter Garrard, treasurer; Mrs. W. W. Davidson, president; Mrs. J. T. Stillwell, vice-president; Mrs. Robert Boyle, secretary, and Mrs. Esmond Walthall, retiring chairman of Group 5.

Society Events

SATURDAY, JUNE 1.

The marriage of Miss Annie Bright Bickerstaff and Charles Robert West, of Gainesville, takes place at 5:30 o'clock at the Glenn Memorial church, to be followed by a reception given by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Charles A. Bickerstaff, at her home on Lullwater road.

The marriage of Miss Elizabeth Winslow Cole and David Charles Shaw Jr., of Florence, S. C., takes place at 5 o'clock at the Central Presbyterian church, to be followed by a reception given by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Cole, at their home on Fifteenth street.

The marriage of Miss Frances Austin and Gordon Catts Jr. takes place at 8:30 o'clock in the Winship chapel of the First Presbyterian church, to be followed by a reception given by the bride-elect, at the Biltmore hotel.

The marriage of Miss Janie Earle Taylor and Edwin Dale McDaniel, of New Smyrna, Fla., takes place at 5:30 o'clock at the West End Church of Christ, to be followed by a reception given by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Blanche Brendle Taylor, at her home on Peeples street.

The marriage of Miss Marjorie Ann Paris and William Wyatt Byrd, of Nichols, takes place at 4 o'clock at the First Baptist church.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles T. Winship entertain at a luncheon at their home on Montclair drive for the out-of-town guests here for the Cole-Shaw wedding.

Mrs. John S. Hurt and Mrs. Harold Williams entertain at a luncheon at the East Lake Country Club for the out-of-town guests here for the Bickerstaff-West wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles LeRoux entertain at their home on Lullwater road, celebrating their 29th wedding anniversary and honoring Miss Louise Robert, bride-elect of Grant LeRoux, son of the hosts.

Miss Mary Jo Brownlee gives a steak fry at her home on Lullwater road for Misses Elizabeth Thompson, of Los Angeles, Cal.; Muriel MacDonald, of Tacoma, Wash.; Gloria Major, of Monroe, La., and Jean York, of Erie, Pa.

Mrs. George Moseley gives a trolley tea at her home on Jett road for her daughter, Miss Eloise Blosser, bride-elect.

Miss Mildred Wells gives a miscellaneous shower at her home on Twelfth street for Miss Virginia Thomas, bride-elect.

Miss Jane Asbury gives a miscellaneous shower at her home on Reeder circle for Miss Phoebe Jane Hopper, bride-elect.

Miss Mary Jane Wilson gives a kitchen shower at her home on Southland terrace for Miss Frances Boatwright, bride-elect.

Miss Kate Jackson entertains her bridesmaids at a luncheon, and this evening Miss Martha Callaway gives a steak fry at her home on Williams Mill road for Miss Jackson and her fiancé, Dudley Stone, and Mrs. Elizabeth McClary and Dr. Shelton Simmons Jr.

Mrs. M. L. McKinnon gives a tea at her home on Todd road for Miss Frances Forbes.

Miss Dorothy Jean Hartford gives a luncheon at her home on Westwood avenue for Miss Molly Ray Reespey, bride-elect.

Mrs. Neil Leach and Miss Mary Tucker give a luncheon at the Frances Virginia tea room for Miss Mildred McWhorter, bride-elect.

Misses Sara Margaret Entenrekin gives a luncheon at her home on Cascade avenue for Miss Dorothy Florence Simpson, bride-elect, and Mrs. C. M. West gives a tea at her home on Pelham road for Miss Simpson.

Mrs. Sharpe D. Wall gives a tea at her home on Conway road for Miss Evelyn Burns, bride-elect.

Mrs. G. D. Etchison gives a trolley tea at her home on Hardenduff avenue for her daughter, Miss Doris Etchison, bride-elect.

Mrs. H. Bennett Tyre gives a dinner party at her home in East Point for Miss Katherine Chester, bride-elect.

Miss Mary Saywell gives a luncheon at the Henry Grady hotel for Miss Eva Saywell, bride-elect.

Miss Frances Klein Staten gives a bridge-tea at her home on Twelfth street for Miss Eleanor Harrison, bride-elect.

Miss Charity Crocker will be honored at a luncheon by Miss Betty Hoyt at her home on Habersham road.

Miss Frances Crawford and Mrs. C. L. Rhamstine give a shower at the home of the former on Frederica street for Miss Marie Chaffee, bride-elect.

Mrs. H. A. Abercrombie gives a kitchen shower at Rich's for Miss Ruth McElroy, bride-elect.

Dr. and Mrs. Guy Lloyd Sink give a reception between 8 and 11 o'clock at their home on Standish avenue for Mr. and Mrs. John R. Boyd and Mr. and Mrs. Robert K. Pevy.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hale entertain their bridge club at dinner at their home in Decatur.

Mrs. Richard Trotter entertains at tea for the feminine members of the senior class of the Georgia Evening school at her home on Thirteenth street at 4 o'clock.

Miss Dorothy Martin gives a buffet supper at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Martin, at her home on Parkway drive.

Tea dance takes place at the Tech gymnasium as a feature of the commencement season, and this evening the junior prom will climax the series.

Dinner-dances take place at the Piedmont Driving Club, the Capital City Club, the Druid Hills Club, and the East Lake Country Club.

A musicale will be sponsored by Saint Caedman's Chapter of the Cathedral of Saint Philip at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greene, 2610 Woodward way.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Newell will entertain their business associates this evening at their home on Springdale road, honoring Miss Mary E. Prichard.

Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi gives a luncheon at the Henry Grady for Mrs. Walter Bone.

Trustees of Agnes Scott College give a luncheon at the Rebekah Club.

Women's Meetings

SATURDAY, JUNE 1.

Group No. 4 of the Wesleyan Alumnae Association meets at 3 o'clock at Davidson's tearoom, 960 Oakdale road.

Atlanta Assembly No. 5, Order of Rainbow meets at 8 o'clock at the Joseph C. Greenfield lodge at Little Five Points.

The College Park Junior Woman's Club meets Saturday at 1 o'clock at Davidson's tearoom. Plans will be made for a dance.

Miss Goodwin Weds Dr. Norton

ROME, Ga., May 31.—The wedding of Miss Helen Goodwin and Dr. Robert F. Norton was quietly solemnized Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the home of the bride's sister, Mrs. Lester Harbin, on Virginia avenue.

The bride was given in marriage by William J. Judd. Her sister, Mrs. Lester Harbin, was her only attendant. Dr. Norton's father, S. Burnett Norton, was best man.

The Rev. John W. Melton, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, officiated. Mrs. Edwin Caldwell and Mrs. C. B. Barle gave a musical program.

The bride is the second daughter of Mrs. William J. Judd and the late Thomas Buford Goodwin, distinguished journalist and newspaperman. Dr. Norton is the only son of S. Burnett Norton and the late Mrs. Norton.

Dr. Norton studied at Davidson, where he took a premedical course. He received his M. D. degree from George Washington College, Washington, and served as interne and resident physician at the George Washington hospital, before returning to Rome to be associated with the McCall hospital here.

Dr. Norton and his bride will honeymoon in New England. They will spend the summer at Dr. Norton's country place on Big Cedar creek near Cave Spring and their town residence will be in the new McWilliams apartments now nearing completion on Shorter circle.

Miss Cole, Fiance Honored at Supper.

Miss Elizabeth Winslow Cole and David Charles Shaw Jr., of Florence, S. C., whose marriage will be a brilliant event of today, were honored last evening at a buffet supper following their wedding rehearsal, at which Miss Cole's brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Austin Emerson, were hosts at their new home on Muscogee avenue.

Mrs. Emerson was assisted in entertaining by her mother, Mrs. Frederick Winslow Cole and her aunts, Mrs. George Boynton and Mrs. Newton Craig.

The buffet table in the dining room was overlaid with a hand-some lace cloth and centered with a silver compote filled with pastel-colored summer flowers. Silver candelabra holding burning ivory-colored tapers completed the decorations.

Out for the occasion were members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests and relatives of the bride couple.

Stuart Broeman Jr. Host at Alfresco Party.

Among interesting social affairs honoring the high school contingent was the alfresco party at which Stuart Broeman Jr. was host last evening at his home on Andrews drive.

Mr. Broeman was assisted in entertaining by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Broeman, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Robinson.

The affair was held on the gayly-lighted lawns surrounding the barbecue pit, and during the evening the guests danced on the flagstone terrace to the music of a popular orchestra.

Invited for the occasion were 100 friends of the host.

Scott dining hall, followed by the alumnae meeting, and this evening the Phi Beta Kappa banquet takes place at the alumnae house, followed by a presentation by the Blackfriars' Club.

The College Park Junior Woman's Club meets for luncheon at Davidson's at 1 o'clock.

Atlanta Woman's Club pool will open officially from 9 until 9 o'clock.

Miss Sue Clapp Feted at Parties

Miss Sue Clapp, whose marriage to Charles E. Freeman Jr. will be a brilliant event of June 7, was honored yesterday at a series of delightful parties.

The first of these affairs was the breakfast at which Misses Florence Jones, Peggy Dutton and Miriam Dinwiddie were hostesses at the home of Miss Jones on Dellwood drive.

The attractive bride-elect was presented with pantry gifts in the form of a shower. The gifts were presented in a clothes basket tied with red ribbons.

Throughout the house a profusion of pastel-colored summer flowers was effectively used.

Guests included 35 friends of the hostesses and honor guest.

Mrs. O. H. Matthews and her daughter, Miss Margaret Matthews, were hostesses at a tea at their home on Barksdale drive complementing Miss Clapp.

The tea table in the dining room was overlaid with an exquisite lace cloth and centered with an antique milk-white bowl filled with pastel-colored spring flowers. Complementing the table appointments were milk-white candlesticks holding burning white tapers.

Forming the receiving line were Miss Matthews, Mrs. Matthews, Miss Clapp, and Mesdames B. K. Clapp, George Clapp and C. E. Freeman.

The hostesses were assisted in entertaining by Mesdames W. M. Brownlee, Wickliff Goldsmith Jr., and Misses Kathleen Griffin, Caroline Matthews, Jeanne Matthews, Margaret Clarke, Mary Katherine Reay and Mary Clapp.

Invited for the occasion were 100 friends of the hostesses and honor guest.

Personal

Mrs. Guy Kenimer and her daughters, Misses Hallie and Elizabeth Kenimer, of Jacksonville, Fla., arrive tomorrow to visit Mrs. Kenimer's parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Crawford, of Brookwood drive. Mrs. Kenimer is the former Miss Hallie Crawford, of Atlanta.

Mr. and Mrs. Howell Jackson, of Middleburg, Va., who are at the Georgian Terrace, return to their home on Monday. They reside at Oakdale farm in Virginia.

Miss Rannie Geissler returns today from Athens, where she graduated last evening from the University of Georgia.

Mrs. Rosser Eby motored to Macon yesterday to attend the cultural program given by pupils attending Mount de Sales Academy. Her daughter, Miss Julia Rosser, took part on the program.

Mrs. Ruth Hinman Carter has returned from a three-week stay in New York.

Mrs. Paul K. Smith, the former Miss Evelyn Heath, has returned from Miami, where she visited Mr. R. P. Dickson and her brother and sisters, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Slade and Miss Bertha Heath, in Fort Myers.

Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Tweedy announce the birth of a daughter, Barbara Sue, May 29 at St. Joseph's infirmary. Mrs. Tweedy is the former Miss Sara Cardell.

Miss MaNita Boswell, of Greensboro, Ga., arrived yesterday to spend the weekend with Miss Letitia Stanley, of East Point.

Miss Valerie Blackhall is at Piedmont hospital, where she underwent an appendix operation yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. Brian Jaye Sturman Jr. announce the birth of a son, Brian J. III, at St. Joseph's infirmary on May 25. Mrs. Sturman is the former Miss Elizabeth Gentry.

Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Rutland, of Decatur, announce the birth of a daughter on May 27 at Emory hospital. The baby has been named Judith Temerah. Mrs. Rutland was formerly Miss Hazel Risley, of Decatur. The grandparents are Mrs. Albert S. Risley and Mr. and Mrs. Guy Rutland Sr., of Decatur.

Mrs. Frank Fenn left yesterday for Dayton, Ohio, to attend the wedding of her sister, Mrs. Anna A. Gantt, and Wayne Russell, of Albuquerque, N. M. Mrs. Gantt has often visited in Atlanta.

Mrs. Fannie Durand Williams returned yesterday from St. Simons Island.

R. P. Dickson, of Miami, Fla., arrives on Sunday to join Mrs. Dickson and their son, Richard Dickson, who are visiting relatives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Rutland, of Newnan, are residing with Mr. and Mrs. Frank Milstead.

Lieutenant Henry Jarrell, U. S. N., and Mrs. Jarrell arrived yesterday from China, where they have been stationed, to visit their brother and sister, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Keough, on Montclair drive. Lieutenant Jarrell will be connected with the Tech naval unit for the next two years.

Stuart Witham Jr. left yesterday for Jacksonville, Fla., to join Mrs. Witham, who has been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Harlow Barnett.

The public is invited to view Beautiful Sussex Garden in LENOX PARK.

Now in bloom.

Project of Lenox Park Garden Club. Rock Springs Rd. at Sussex Rd.

A foursome of attractive new members of the Delta Lambda Sigma sorority is pictured above, their initiation having taken place recently at the annual dinner-dance of the sorority held at the Capital City Country Club. On the front row, left to right, are Misses Jeanne Johnson and Marjorie Dean, while seated on the back row are Miss Clarice McGraw, at the left, and Miss Helen Veal, at the right. The sorority is located at the Georgia Evening College.

St. Caedman's Chapter Plans Musicales for This Evening

St. Caedman's chapter of the Cathedral of St. Philip will sponsor a musicale Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Greene, 2610 Woodward way. The artists will be Miss Minna Hecker, coloratura, and Mrs. Irene Lettwich Harris, pianist. Since this affair is to be out-of-town, the program will feature appropriate selections.

Tickets may be obtained at the door or from any member of the chapter. Mrs. Brevard Williams is chairman. Mrs. W. A. Swain is co-chairman.

Other members are Mesdames J. C. Blalock, E. S. Clements, Roy Gentry, W. B. John, Walter LeCraw, Robert Mitchell, Robert Greene, Rogers Noble, Robert Orton, C. M. H. Pierson, John Rockwood, A. A. Simonton, Hubert Surratt, John Stigar, Rembert Sims, J. O'H. Sanders, Carl Wolf, George O. LeFebvre, B. M. Loden, Ralph Pharr, D. E. Shaffer, Miss Elizabeth De Ovie.

In case of rain, the musicale will be postponed until Monday evening, June 3.

Spalding-Craft Plans Changed.

Due to the illness of George S. Craft, whose marriage to Miss Eleanor Spalding takes place today, the ceremony will be very quietly performed.

Mrs. Kessnich Fetes Miss Robert.

Mrs. Charles Kessnich was hostess yesterday at a luncheon in the Mirador room of the Capital City Club complementing Miss Louise Robert, whose marriage to Grant LeRoux will be a brilliant event of June 12.

The luncheon table was centered with a graceful arrangement of white flowers, and invited for the occasion were the feminine members of Miss Robert's wedding party.

Seated at another table were Mrs. Kessnich, and Mesdames W. K. Jenkins, Charles M. LeRoux, Louise Ayres Robert and R. A. Louie.

Mr. and Mrs. Witham will return to Atlanta Sunday.

Mrs. Alonzo Richardson is in Washington, D. C., and later will visit her sister, Mrs. W. C. Jarnagin, at Manhasset, Long Island.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell McKinney, of Mount Holly, N. C., announce the birth of a son, John Shivers McKinney, on May 26, at the Presbyterian hospital in Charlotte, N. C. Mrs. McKinney is the former Miss Louise Shivers, of this city, daughter of Mrs. Everard Richardson Sr.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Irvine Walker are visiting their son and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. James P. Hanner, who also have as their guest Mrs. W. M. Dardin, of Denver, Colorado.

Mr. and Mrs. James M. Shepherd and their young son, Jimmy, have returned from a two weeks' stay at their summer home at St. Simons Island.

Mrs. Wylie Arnold, of Scarsdale, N. Y., is visiting her brother and sister, Dr. and Mrs. James P. Hanner, who also have as their guest Mrs. W. M. Dardin, of Denver, Colorado.

BOWL O' GREENS

2 medium-sized tomatoes
1 Spanish onion
1 cucumber, scored
1 green pepper
1 bunch radishes
1 small head chicory
1 stalks endive
1/2 small head lettuce
1/2 small head escarole
Best Foods Real Mayonnaise

Peel and chill tomatoes. Slice tomatoes, onion, cucumber, green pepper and radishes. Arrange on salad greens and radishes, leaving space in the center for Real Mayonnaise. Serves 6.

BEST FOODS
REAL MAYONNAISE
REALLY FRESH

Bridal Couple Feted at Supper

Among interesting social affairs of yesterday was the buffet supper at which Mr. and Mrs. James C. Malone and their daughter, Mrs. Jack White, of Chattanooga, Tenn., were hosts at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Malone on Fairview road honoring Miss Bright Bickerstaff and Robert West, of Gainesville, following their wedding rehearsal.

The buffet table in the dining room was overlaid with a handsome lace cloth and centered with a crystal bowl filled with pink and white poppies. Crystal candelabra holding burning white tapers completed the table decorations. Throughout the house a profusion of garden flowers was effectively arranged.

The hosts were assisted in entertaining by Miss Carolyn Malone.

Invited for the occasion were members of the wedding party, out-of-town guests and relatives of the couple.

Bridal Couple Feted at Parties

Mrs. Addison Taylor was hostess yesterday at a luncheon at her home on Nancy's Creek road complementing Miss Emmie Martin, whose marriage to Robert Chambers will be a brilliant event of June 7.

The luncheon table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a silver bowl filled with red roses.

Invited for the occasion were Mesdames William Mason, McKee Nunnally, James Rimer, Carlisle Martin, Ewing Dean and Misses Mary Katherine Reeves, Frances Peace and Jane Osburn.

Last evening Mrs. Edgar Chambers entertained at a buffet supper at her home on North Decatur road complementing the betrothed couple.

Mrs. Chambers was assisted in entertaining by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. Carlisle Martin, and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Candlish Jr., and her sons, Edgar III and Robert Samuel Chambers.

The buffet table was overlaid with a lace cloth and centered with a silver bowl filled with white flowers. Complementing the decorations were silver candelabra holding burning white tapers.

Invited for the occasion were members of the wedding party and relatives of the betrothed couple.

Mrs. Webb Entertains.

Mrs. E. G. Webb recently entertained the Sew 'n So Club at luncheon at her home on Forest road. Present were: Mesdames W. A. Simmons, Mays McElhannon, W. E. Greene, Richard Paula, Earl Waddy, Glenn Jefferson, C. E. Beaumont and Mrs. Webb.

DO YOU KNOW THIS GIRL?

Losing friends fast, because at a certain time in the month she just can't control her temper, she feels miserable. Get her to try Tempo, the easy-to-take doctor's prescription for functional menstrual disorders. Fort 20c and 40c sizes in the dainty tin that keeps your secret.—(adv.)

Tempo
FOR FUNCTIONAL MENSTRUAL DISORDERS

Pretty, Pretty PINAFORES

Tiniest of midriffs, a ballerina skirt, and big, deep, cunning pockets—this, the season's cutest pinafore! It's a wonderful sun-tan dress—yet, equally appropriate with a gumpe for Sports. In a variety of multi-color combinations. Shop today...

Exceptional value at only $2.98

Chiffon Scarf, sketched ..... 50c

SPORT SHOP, ALLEN'S STREET FLOOR

High's
Special Value!
TUSSEY
EAU DE
COLOGNE
6-Oz. 50¢
$1.00 VALUE!
HALF PRICE! The dainty, cool-making cologne for summer! Three fragrances: Laurel, Tropical Spice, Natural!
HIGH'S STREET FLOOR

High's
BUYERS AND MANAGERS SALE
SUMMER WHITES
Gorgeous rough and smooth straws, felts, fabrics, leghorn, Panama and toys! Extravagantly lovely fashions at a thrilling low sale price!
$2.98 to $7.50 Values
$2.50
MILLINERY—HIGH'S SECOND FLOOR

SIMPLE NEURALGIA PENETRO

IT ALL CAME TRUE

The House and Costumes Are Finished.
Grasselli Holds a Dress Rehearsal

By Louis Bromfield.

SYNOPSIS.
Miss Minnie leaves her brownstone house to her servants, Mrs. Lefferty and Maggie Ryan, who live in it with their four odd, old guests. Maggie's forthcoming daughter, Sal, storms home. Later Mrs. Lefferty's long-absent son, Tommy, arrives with the sinister Grasselli, a boarder. Sal discovers that he is a crook, but when the house is to be sold for taxes, she gets him to foot the bill. Tommy is angry till he knows her motive. The guests give an amateur show for Grasselli, at which Sal sings Tommy's songs. Grasselli gets the big idea of turning the old house into a night club. Sal gets the approval of the old ladies and Tommy, and smoother the feelings. Grasselli, the magician, when Grasselli modeled. NOW GO ON WITH THE STORY:

INSTALLMENT XIX.

"All right," he said, "I'll think it over."
"I'll tell Mr. Grasselli. He'll show you what he means. Maybe he'll help you work out the act."
"Who is Mr. Grasselli that he should tell me?" asked Mr. Boldini.
"Don't worry. He knows all about show business. He's backed a lot of shows."
As she left the room she noticed that there was a new expression in Mr. Boldini's melancholy face—an expression she had never seen there before. For the first time he looked as if he expected something a little better than the worst.

That afternoon Mr. Grasselli himself honored Mr. Boldini by a call in his room, and there, after Mr. Boldini had gone through another fine performance of indignation and wounded dignity, they got down to brass tacks and discussed the act in more direct terms. Mr. Grasselli said, Mr. Boldini would only have to keep the speeches and gestures he already made, losing none of the solemnity and impressiveness, and Fanto would have to learn a few new tricks, or rather, change the tricks he already knew, turning them into comedy.

They went to work at once, and for days they rehearsed the act. They worked in poor Miss Minnie's bedroom, now occupied by Mr. Grasselli, with Mr. Grasselli lying in bed smoking a cigar and Mr. Boldini and Fanto performing. From the beginning the dog was easy. He soon gathered what was wanted of him and asked nothing better than to play the role of clown. But Mr. Boldini was a problem. At first, as Fanto spoiled one trick after another for him, instead of giving an exhibition of that divine indignation which had driven Mr. Grasselli to hysterical laughter, he would pat the dog's head to show there was no ill feeling and to take for himself a little of the glory of Fanto's cleverness. Then Mr. Grasselli would say indignantly, "No, not like that, Mr. Boldini! You've got to be mad at the dog! Get me? You've got to be funny!"

That was a fatal suggestion, for Mr. Boldini wasn't a comedian, and his idea of being funny was to take the audience into his confidence and let them know how funny he was being. With a patience he had never displayed before, Mr. Grasselli labored with Mr. Boldini until by accident he found out how he could get the effect he wanted.

"Listen," he said. "Get this in your mind, Mr. Boldini. I know it's the hardest thing in the world to get a ham to play a ham. See? You're a broken down ham magician, and every time you do a trick your dog spoils it and that makes you mad. Get me?"

But while he was making an expression came over Mr. Boldini's face that very nearly frightened Mr. Grasselli.

"So I'm a ham, am I?" he cried. "A broken-down ham magician—me! The Great Boldini! You tell me that!"

Mr. Grasselli held up his hand. "Now listen, Mr. Boldini. I didn't say you were a ham. I was just telling you that you must think of yourself as a ham. That's what actin' is, ain't it? Now listen, be sensible and go ahead with the act!"

Fuming, Mr. Boldini went ahead with the act and miraculously in his fury and wounded vanity, he gave exactly the effect Mr. Grasselli wanted. Mr. Grasselli lay back in bed and laughed, very nearly as hard as he had laughed on that first night. "That's it!" he said. "That's exactly it!"

Mr. Boldini beamed and Fanto the clown, aware that he had at last got the laugh he wanted, barked and wagged his tail frantically.

"You're a great artist, Mr. Boldini," said Mr. Grasselli, "when you do it like that. Let's do it again, and see if we can hold it."

But when he did it again, in a good humor now, Mr. Boldini fell back into his old tricks, giving Fanto patronizing glances and trying to keep the stage all for himself. It was terrible. But Mr. Grasselli had discovered his secret. He had to make Mr. Boldini angry to get the effect he wanted. Only he had to use the secret discreetly. If he kept making Mr. Boldini angry at rehearsals his rage would have the edge off it by the time he came to give a performance. So craftily Mr. Grasselli said "That's great! You've got it. That's great!" and bided his time.

In the meanwhile Tommy and Sarah Jane were making progress with their songs and Miss Flint was making progress with Sarah Jane's dresses.

Tommy had written two 'nineties songs and Sarah Jane was learning them. One was called "The Poorhouse With You" and the other, "She Was the Bartender's Sister." Now they had five good songs. Sarah Jane worked at them, giving them everything she had.

But Tommy didn't seem properly excited about their debut. As the time drew near he seemed to grow more and more depressed and nervous. When Sarah Jane questioned him, he said it wasn't anything, but he always looked away from her and she was sure again that there was something troubling him.

Miss Flint had a good deal of trouble over the dresses. They required many fittings, which were hard on Sarah Jane's temper. During the fittings Sarah Jane accidentally revealed that she shared Miss Flint's awful secret, and after that the sewing woman never talked except on one subject—Mr. Grasselli, alias Monk Maguire. She no longer referred to him by name but only as "he." She asked questions until Sarah Jane thought she was going crazy.

But the dresses went ahead well. There wasn't any need of having Miss Flint exaggerate their lines and cut and ornament. What Miss Flint regarded as making them "straight" was funnier than anything Sarah Jane could think up in the way of exaggeration.

But Miss Flint seemed to grow thinner and more wrinkled and silent, and about four days before the opening she developed a tic which made one eye and her mouth twitch without ceasing.

And then suddenly the alterations were all finished and the chairs and tables installed and Maggie's two assistants arrived, and in the afternoon there was a final rehearsal of cooks and waiters, captained by Victor Leontopolos, a head waiter who had served Mr. Grasselli at the openings and closings of countless night clubs and speakeasies. And at 3 o'clock, behind closed and curtained doors in poor Miss Minnie's drawing room, the performers held a rehearsal.

The act of "Ryan and Lefferty in a Few Songs" went off perfectly, but Mr. Boldini was terrible. Sarah Jane and Tommy, watching were aware of this and it troubled Sarah Jane that Mr. Grasselli either did not notice how terrible it was or did not seem to mind. When she drew him aside after the rehearsal and said, "Old Boldini is going to be terrible," he only grinned at her and replied, "Never mind. He's going to be great. You wait and see."

Then the worst happened about 8 o'clock in the evening, when Tommy didn't come down to dinner. He sent word by his mother that he didn't feel well. When Mrs. Lefferty told Sarah Jane the news, she hurried up to Tommy's room and knocked.

In response to his "Come in," she entered and found him lying on his bed in the dark. By the light from the hall she found her way to the foot of the bed and stood looking down at him. He didn't even stir and made no effort to speak until she said, "Well?"

Then he said, "It's no use. I can't do it. You've got to find another piano player."

Suddenly she was angry and scornful. Fury blazed up inside her, but in the next second remembering what she had learned, she counted ten before speaking and then said, "You must be crazy. I can't get a piano player at this hour. And anyway, he couldn't do those songs the way you do them."

"I can't," said Tommy. "That's all there is to it."
"What's the matter with you?" "I don't know—nerves, I guess. I'm scared."

Quietly she sat on the edge of the bed by his side. "Listen," she said, "you can't do that. You can't let us all down—not now, when everything is ready."

"I can't," said Tommy in a low voice. "I guess I'm going crazy. I've been trying to think of the music, and I can't even remember it. If I went on to play, I wouldn't know what I was playing." Then she was aware that there were tears on his cheek. He went on almost in a whisper, "I don't want to act like this. I can't help it. It isn't my fault, Sally."

Sarah Jane's heart leaped. He had called her Sally long ago when they played together in the back garden at poor Miss Minnie's house on Murray Hill; but he had never called her that since he came home. She knew suddenly that she didn't care about "The Golden Nineties" or her career or anything. She only cared about Tommy. But she knew, too, that she had to make him go through with their performance for his own sake. She had to make him do it in order to save him.

"Don't you see?" he said. "I'm nuts or something."
She had to think quickly; she knew that she could not risk making a mistake. After a little silence in which she allowed her instinct to tell her what to do, she asked, "Is it on account of something that happened while you were away?" and in a whisper, he said "Yes."

Then she reached over and took his hand. It was the first time they had touched each other since he came back, and the feel of his hand brought a lump to her throat—a lump caused as much by happiness as by pity. In the dark she felt his hand take hers and press it tightly, almost hysterically, as if he depended on her.

Continued Monday.
(Copyright, 1939.)

Citizens Loan Association
Graduation
Specials
BUY WITH CONFIDENCE!

Diamond Rings, solid gold, Val. $15.....$4.95
Value Watches, guar. Value $15.....$4.95
Bulwer Watches, Val. $15 to $39.50; yellow gold.....$9.95
Birmingham Rings, solid gold.....$1.95
All brand-new Waltham, Elgin, Hamilton, 1940 models, one-third off.

Citizens Loan Association
195 Mitchell St. W. A. 7911-2
Next to C. & S. Bank

AUNT HET
By ROBERT QUILLLEN.

"They ought to get together on their stories. John talks poor so beggars won't bother him, and Amy talks rich so folks will think he's a big success."

JUST NUTS
SHE TOLD ME I ALWAYS BYRON, DICKENS SHE AND EDGAR WAS A BIT OF A FLIRT.

Solution to Yesterday's Puzzle.
GRIMACE DELUDES
RENEGED EVASIVE
AMENIDE PEDESTIC
NOX SENSORY ADD
TRAX STONY AMEN
OSCAR LAWE BLIND
RETREATS PRINTS
VALE MAAM
ACCEDE MARMOSSES
PHONE PAL ANENT
PERU SALAL VALE
RAN HANAPER LAM
OPERATE EPIDERM
VERONAL REFORGE
ENIGNS TRESSED

LAFF-A-DAY
"If that's Lincoln, Maw, then the penny I have is a counterfeit."

THE GUMPS
DO YOU KNOW THAT POOR GUY?
KNOW HIM? WHY, HE'S THE MAN WHO BROKE THE POOR LITTLE COUNTESS' HEART—
IT SURE IS A SMALL WORLD—YOU KNOW, HE DIDN'T TALK LIKE A HEARTBREAKER—IN FACT, HE SOUNDED LIKE HE WAS THE ONE WITH THE BROKEN HEART.
SH—HE'S BEGINNING TO MUMBLE AGAIN—
MY DARLING LITTLE COUNTESS—I WON'T DRAG YOU DOWN TO MY POVERTY-STRIKEN LEVEL—I'LL JUST FADE OUT OF YOUR LIFE.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE
I THINK WE'VE GOT A WEEK—BUT WE AREN'T TAKING CHANCES—FROM NOW ON, I WANT EVERY EXIT O' THAT HOUSE OF AXEL'S COVERED DAY AND NIGHT—
KEEP OUT OF SIGHT—LET 'EM COME AND GO—BUT HAVE A TOMMY GUN COVERING EVERY DOOR, WINDOW, TUNNEL, SEWER OUTLET, ROOF—EVEN THE RAT-HOLES!
SOME NIGHT SOON AXEL WILL HAVE ALL HIS 'GENERALS' IN FOR THE FINAL ORDERS—O. K.—KEEP A COUNT ON 'EM—WHEN THEY'RE ALL INSIDE, WE ACT—QUICK AND QUIET—
THERE'LL BE A COUPLE HUNDRED OF 'EM—BUT WE'LL TAKE 'EM ALL RIGHT—NO SHOOTING—NO NOISE—NO COPS—NO NEWSPAPER BOYS—--IF WE CAN HELP IT— I WANT TO KEEP THIS A PRIVATE PARTY—

MOON MULLINS
LISTEN, GIRLIE, I'M GONNA REMEMBER THAT IT WAS YOU WHO WAS GUILTY OF MAKIN' MY HUSBAND PUT UNDER GLASS BY FALSE ARREST.
NATURALLY, DEARIE—AN ELEPHANT NEVER FORGETS.
HELLO, COUSIN ELMO, DON'T YOU AND UNCLE WILHE GO TO TH' FIGHTS TONIGHT—YOU KIN SEE A BETTER ONE HERE, FREE.
IS MRS. DULLARD MAKING A SCENE, KAYO?
YEH—BUT, OH BOY! MAMIE'S MAKIN' A MELODRAMA!

DICK TRACY
BUT HE WAS ON THE DOGS BACK WHEN IT WENT THROUGH THE KITCHEN.
WELL, HE ISN'T THERE NOW!
GET THAT BUNCH IN THE PATROL WAGON WHILE WE COMB THIS APARTMENT. THEN HAVE A COUPLE OF SQUADS COVER THE STREETS.
AN HOUR OR TWO SPENT IN THIS CLOTHES BASKET WON'T DO ANY HARM.
AND I SNATCHED ONE BAG OF DOUGH, TOO. HA! HA! THEY HAVEN'T LICKED JEROME.

JANE ARDEN—By Monte Barrett and Russell Ross
Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
THERE'S MY PHONY HERO—IT'S TIME TO STUFF!
HELP!
LOOK—THAT GIRL!
I'LL SAVE HER!
HELP!

TODAY'S CROSSWORD PUZZLE
ACROSS.
1 Desire
6 Ship's hands.
10 Drenching.
14 Classic language.
15 Dark red pigment.
16 notion.
17 Composes.
19 Money drawer.
20 Professional charge.
21 The equator.
22 Carry tales.
24 Swordplay.
26 But.
27 Plate.
28 Entertain with music.
32 Path of a scythe.
34 Interior of a Greek or Roman temple.
35 Follow relentlessly.
36 Single.
37 The where-withal.
38 Complacent.
39 Part of a circle.
40 Suicide.
41 Milk farm.
42 Crevice for spying.
44 Surgeon's probe.
45 Tear apart.
46 Afternoon nap.
48 Seem.
52 Pace.
53 In other days.
54 Willing;
55 Detached.
58 Land measure.
59 Kitchen utensil.
60 Highest point.
61 Ado.
62 Stopped.
63 Peruse.
DOWN.
1 Precipice.
2 Rajah's wife.
3 Presence.
4 Rival.
5 British.
6 Heavy metallic sound.
7 Rank.
8 Increase scantily.
9 Wind blowing eastward.
10 Tooth-marked.
11 Mine passage.
12 Relate.
13 Hearty.
18 Skating.
23 Defined space.
25 Quote.
26 Scuffle.
28 Feel intuitively.
29 Ingress.
30 Forbidding of main.
31 Smeared with yolk.
32 Smack.
33 Dressed in.
34 Had the power to.
37 The coming of Luna.
38 Without Fr.
40 African tree with seeds yielding yellowish fat.
41 Ocean fathoms.
43 Choose first.
44 Banked as seats.
46 Stow Cargo with a Jackscrew.
47 Kind of lizard.
48 Repaired shoes.
49 Alackaday.
50 Early inhabitant of Britain.
51 Persian fairy.
52 Hastened.
56 Egyptian god.
57 Rower's shaft.

SMITTY
YEOW! A LETTER FROM THATTY!!
TEN DOLLARS!
OH, HE HAD GOOD LUCK!
AND WHAT DOES HE THAY, MA?
HE SAYS HIS BOSS WAS FEELING VERY HAPPY THIS WEEK AND HE GAVE HIM A BONUS OF TEN DOLLARS!!

THE GUMPS

DO YOU KNOW THAT POOR GUY?
KNOW HIM? WHY, HE'S THE MAN WHO BROKE THE POOR LITTLE COUNTESS' HEART—
IT SURE IS A SMALL WORLD—YOU KNOW, HE DIDN'T TALK LIKE A HEARTBREAKER—IN FACT, HE SOUNDED LIKE HE WAS THE ONE WITH THE BROKEN HEART.
SH—HE'S BEGINNING TO MUMBLE AGAIN—
MY DARLING LITTLE COUNTESS—I WON'T DRAG YOU DOWN TO MY POVERTY-STRIKEN LEVEL—I'LL JUST FADE OUT OF YOUR LIFE.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

I THINK WE'VE GOT A WEEK—BUT WE AREN'T TAKING CHANCES—FROM NOW ON, I WANT EVERY EXIT O' THAT HOUSE OF AXEL'S COVERED DAY AND NIGHT—
KEEP OUT OF SIGHT—LET 'EM COME AND GO—BUT HAVE A TOMMY GUN COVERING EVERY DOOR, WINDOW, TUNNEL, SEWER OUTLET, ROOF—EVEN THE RAT-HOLES!
SOME NIGHT SOON AXEL WILL HAVE ALL HIS 'GENERALS' IN FOR THE FINAL ORDERS—O. K.—KEEP A COUNT ON 'EM—WHEN THEY'RE ALL INSIDE, WE ACT—QUICK AND QUIET—
THERE'LL BE A COUPLE HUNDRED OF 'EM—BUT WE'LL TAKE 'EM ALL RIGHT—NO SHOOTING—NO NOISE—NO COPS—NO NEWSPAPER BOYS—--IF WE CAN HELP IT— I WANT TO KEEP THIS A PRIVATE PARTY—

MOON MULLINS

LISTEN, GIRLIE, I'M GONNA REMEMBER THAT IT WAS YOU WHO WAS GUILTY OF MAKIN' MY HUSBAND PUT UNDER GLASS BY FALSE ARREST.
NATURALLY, DEARIE—AN ELEPHANT NEVER FORGETS.
HELLO, COUSIN ELMO, DON'T YOU AND UNCLE WILHE GO TO TH' FIGHTS TONIGHT—YOU KIN SEE A BETTER ONE HERE, FREE.
IS MRS. DULLARD MAKING A SCENE, KAYO?
YEH—BUT, OH BOY! MAMIE'S MAKIN' A MELODRAMA!

DICK TRACY

BUT HE WAS ON THE DOGS BACK WHEN IT WENT THROUGH THE KITCHEN.
WELL, HE ISN'T THERE NOW!
GET THAT BUNCH IN THE PATROL WAGON WHILE WE COMB THIS APARTMENT. THEN HAVE A COUPLE OF SQUADS COVER THE STREETS.
AN HOUR OR TWO SPENT IN THIS CLOTHES BASKET WON'T DO ANY HARM.
AND I SNATCHED ONE BAG OF DOUGH, TOO. HA! HA! THEY HAVEN'T LICKED JEROME.

JANE ARDEN—By Monte Barrett and Russell Ross

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
THERE'S MY PHONY HERO—IT'S TIME TO STUFF!
HELP!
LOOK—THAT GIRL!
I'LL SAVE HER!
HELP!

TODAY'S CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS.
1 Desire
6 Ship's hands.
10 Drenching.
14 Classic language.
15 Dark red pigment.
16 notion.
17 Composes.
19 Money drawer.
20 Professional charge.
21 The equator.
22 Carry tales.
24 Swordplay.
26 But.
27 Plate.
28 Entertain with music.
32 Path of a scythe.
34 Interior of a Greek or Roman temple.
35 Follow relentlessly.
36 Single.
37 The where-withal.
38 Complacent.
39 Part of a circle.
40 Suicide.
41 Milk farm.
42 Crevice for spying.
44 Surgeon's probe.
45 Tear apart.
46 Afternoon nap.
48 Seem.
52 Pace.
53 In other days.
54 Willing;
55 Detached.
58 Land measure.
59 Kitchen utensil.
60 Highest point.
61 Ado.
62 Stopped.
63 Peruse.
DOWN.
1 Precipice.
2 Rajah's wife.
3 Presence.
4 Rival.
5 British.
6 Heavy metallic sound.
7 Rank.
8 Increase scantily.
9 Wind blowing eastward.
10 Tooth-marked.
11 Mine passage.
12 Relate.
13 Hearty.
18 Skating.
23 Defined space.
25 Quote.
26 Scuffle.
28 Feel intuitively.
29 Ingress.
30 Forbidding of main.
31 Smeared with yolk.
32 Smack.
33 Dressed in.
34 Had the power to.
37 The coming of Luna.
38 Without Fr.
40 African tree with seeds yielding yellowish fat.
41 Ocean fathoms.
43 Choose first.
44 Banked as seats.
46 Stow Cargo with a Jackscrew.
47 Kind of lizard.
48 Repaired shoes.
49 Alackaday.
50 Early inhabitant of Britain.
51 Persian fairy.
52 Hastened.
56 Egyptian god.
57 Rower's shaft.

SMITTY
YEOW! A LETTER FROM THATTY!!
TEN DOLLARS!
OH, HE HAD GOOD LUCK!
AND WHAT DOES HE THAY, MA?
HE SAYS HIS BOSS WAS FEELING VERY HAPPY THIS WEEK AND HE GAVE HIM A BONUS OF TEN DOLLARS!!

THE GUMPS

DO YOU KNOW THAT POOR GUY?
KNOW HIM? WHY, HE'S THE MAN WHO BROKE THE POOR LITTLE COUNTESS' HEART—
IT SURE IS A SMALL WORLD—YOU KNOW, HE DIDN'T TALK LIKE A HEARTBREAKER—IN FACT, HE SOUNDED LIKE HE WAS THE ONE WITH THE BROKEN HEART.
SH—HE'S BEGINNING TO MUMBLE AGAIN—
MY DARLING LITTLE COUNTESS—I WON'T DRAG YOU DOWN TO MY POVERTY-STRIKEN LEVEL—I'LL JUST FADE OUT OF YOUR LIFE.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

I THINK WE'VE GOT A WEEK—BUT WE AREN'T TAKING CHANCES—FROM NOW ON, I WANT EVERY EXIT O' THAT HOUSE OF AXEL'S COVERED DAY AND NIGHT—
KEEP OUT OF SIGHT—LET 'EM COME AND GO—BUT HAVE A TOMMY GUN COVERING EVERY DOOR, WINDOW, TUNNEL, SEWER OUTLET, ROOF—EVEN THE RAT-HOLES!
SOME NIGHT SOON AXEL WILL HAVE ALL HIS 'GENERALS' IN FOR THE FINAL ORDERS—O. K.—KEEP A COUNT ON 'EM—WHEN THEY'RE ALL INSIDE, WE ACT—QUICK AND QUIET—
THERE'LL BE A COUPLE HUNDRED OF 'EM—BUT WE'LL TAKE 'EM ALL RIGHT—NO SHOOTING—NO NOISE—NO COPS—NO NEWSPAPER BOYS—--IF WE CAN HELP IT— I WANT TO KEEP THIS A PRIVATE PARTY—

MOON MULLINS

LISTEN, GIRLIE, I'M GONNA REMEMBER THAT IT WAS YOU WHO WAS GUILTY OF MAKIN' MY HUSBAND PUT UNDER GLASS BY FALSE ARREST.
NATURALLY, DEARIE—AN ELEPHANT NEVER FORGETS.
HELLO, COUSIN ELMO, DON'T YOU AND UNCLE WILHE GO TO TH' FIGHTS TONIGHT—YOU KIN SEE A BETTER ONE HERE, FREE.
IS MRS. DULLARD MAKING A SCENE, KAYO?
YEH—BUT, OH BOY! MAMIE'S MAKIN' A MELODRAMA!

DICK TRACY

BUT HE WAS ON THE DOGS BACK WHEN IT WENT THROUGH THE KITCHEN.
WELL, HE ISN'T THERE NOW!
GET THAT BUNCH IN THE PATROL WAGON WHILE WE COMB THIS APARTMENT. THEN HAVE A COUPLE OF SQUADS COVER THE STREETS.
AN HOUR OR TWO SPENT IN THIS CLOTHES BASKET WON'T DO ANY HARM.
AND I SNATCHED ONE BAG OF DOUGH, TOO. HA! HA! THEY HAVEN'T LICKED JEROME.

JANE ARDEN—By Monte Barrett and Russell Ross

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
THERE'S MY PHONY HERO—IT'S TIME TO STUFF!
HELP!
LOOK—THAT GIRL!
I'LL SAVE HER!
HELP!

TODAY'S CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS.
1 Desire
6 Ship's hands.
10 Drenching.
14 Classic language.
15 Dark red pigment.
16 notion.
17 Composes.
19 Money drawer.
20 Professional charge.
21 The equator.
22 Carry tales.
24 Swordplay.
26 But.
27 Plate.
28 Entertain with music.
32 Path of a scythe.
34 Interior of a Greek or Roman temple.
35 Follow relentlessly.
36 Single.
37 The where-withal.
38 Complacent.
39 Part of a circle.
40 Suicide.
41 Milk farm.
42 Crevice for spying.
44 Surgeon's probe.
45 Tear apart.
46 Afternoon nap.
48 Seem.
52 Pace.
53 In other days.
54 Willing;
55 Detached.
58 Land measure.
59 Kitchen utensil.
60 Highest point.
61 Ado.
62 Stopped.
63 Peruse.
DOWN.
1 Precipice.
2 Rajah's wife.
3 Presence.
4 Rival.
5 British.
6 Heavy metallic sound.
7 Rank.
8 Increase scantily.
9 Wind blowing eastward.
10 Tooth-marked.
11 Mine passage.
12 Relate.
13 Hearty.
18 Skating.
23 Defined space.
25 Quote.
26 Scuffle.
28 Feel intuitively.
29 Ingress.
30 Forbidding of main.
31 Smeared with yolk.
32 Smack.
33 Dressed in.
34 Had the power to.
37 The coming of Luna.
38 Without Fr.
40 African tree with seeds yielding yellowish fat.
41 Ocean fathoms.
43 Choose first.
44 Banked as seats.
46 Stow Cargo with a Jackscrew.
47 Kind of lizard.
48 Repaired shoes.
49 Alackaday.
50 Early inhabitant of Britain.
51 Persian fairy.
52 Hastened.
56 Egyptian god.
57 Rower's shaft.

SMITTY
YEOW! A LETTER FROM THATTY!!
TEN DOLLARS!
OH, HE HAD GOOD LUCK!
AND WHAT DOES HE THAY, MA?
HE SAYS HIS BOSS WAS FEELING VERY HAPPY THIS WEEK AND HE GAVE HIM A BONUS OF TEN DOLLARS!!

THE GUMPS

DO YOU KNOW THAT POOR GUY?
KNOW HIM? WHY, HE'S THE MAN WHO BROKE THE POOR LITTLE COUNTESS' HEART—
IT SURE IS A SMALL WORLD—YOU KNOW, HE DIDN'T TALK LIKE A HEARTBREAKER—IN FACT, HE SOUNDED LIKE HE WAS THE ONE WITH THE BROKEN HEART.
SH—HE'S BEGINNING TO MUMBLE AGAIN—
MY DARLING LITTLE COUNTESS—I WON'T DRAG YOU DOWN TO MY POVERTY-STRIKEN LEVEL—I'LL JUST FADE OUT OF YOUR LIFE.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

I THINK WE'VE GOT A WEEK—BUT WE AREN'T TAKING CHANCES—FROM NOW ON, I WANT EVERY EXIT O' THAT HOUSE OF AXEL'S COVERED DAY AND NIGHT—
KEEP OUT OF SIGHT—LET 'EM COME AND GO—BUT HAVE A TOMMY GUN COVERING EVERY DOOR, WINDOW, TUNNEL, SEWER OUTLET, ROOF—EVEN THE RAT-HOLES!
SOME NIGHT SOON AXEL WILL HAVE ALL HIS 'GENERALS' IN FOR THE FINAL ORDERS—O. K.—KEEP A COUNT ON 'EM—WHEN THEY'RE ALL INSIDE, WE ACT—QUICK AND QUIET—
THERE'LL BE A COUPLE HUNDRED OF 'EM—BUT WE'LL TAKE 'EM ALL RIGHT—NO SHOOTING—NO NOISE—NO COPS—NO NEWSPAPER BOYS—--IF WE CAN HELP IT— I WANT TO KEEP THIS A PRIVATE PARTY—

MOON MULLINS

LISTEN, GIRLIE, I'M GONNA REMEMBER THAT IT WAS YOU WHO WAS GUILTY OF MAKIN' MY HUSBAND PUT UNDER GLASS BY FALSE ARREST.
NATURALLY, DEARIE—AN ELEPHANT NEVER FORGETS.
HELLO, COUSIN ELMO, DON'T YOU AND UNCLE WILHE GO TO TH' FIGHTS TONIGHT—YOU KIN SEE A BETTER ONE HERE, FREE.
IS MRS. DULLARD MAKING A SCENE, KAYO?
YEH—BUT, OH BOY! MAMIE'S MAKIN' A MELODRAMA!

DICK TRACY

BUT HE WAS ON THE DOGS BACK WHEN IT WENT THROUGH THE KITCHEN.
WELL, HE ISN'T THERE NOW!
GET THAT BUNCH IN THE PATROL WAGON WHILE WE COMB THIS APARTMENT. THEN HAVE A COUPLE OF SQUADS COVER THE STREETS.
AN HOUR OR TWO SPENT IN THIS CLOTHES BASKET WON'T DO ANY HARM.
AND I SNATCHED ONE BAG OF DOUGH, TOO. HA! HA! THEY HAVEN'T LICKED JEROME.

JANE ARDEN—By Monte Barrett and Russell Ross

Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.
THERE'S MY PHONY HERO—IT'S TIME TO STUFF!
HELP!
LOOK—THAT GIRL!
I'LL SAVE HER!
HELP!

TODAY'S CROSSWORD PUZZLE

ACROSS.
1 Desire
6 Ship's hands.
10 Drenching.
14 Classic language.
15 Dark red pigment.
16 notion.
17 Composes.
19 Money drawer.
20 Professional charge.
21 The equator.
22 Carry tales.
24 Swordplay.
26 But.
27 Plate.
28 Entertain with music.
32 Path of a scythe.
34 Interior of a Greek or Roman temple.
35 Follow relentlessly.
36 Single.
37 The where-withal.
38 Complacent.
39 Part of a circle.
40 Suicide.
41 Milk farm.
42 Crevice for spying.
44 Surgeon's probe.
45 Tear apart.
46 Afternoon nap.
48 Seem.
52 Pace.
53 In other days.
54 Willing;
55 Detached.
58 Land measure.
59 Kitchen utensil.
60 Highest point.
61 Ado.
62 Stopped.
63 Peruse.
DOWN.
1 Precipice.
2 Rajah's wife.
3 Presence.
4 Rival.
5 British.
6 Heavy metallic sound.
7 Rank.
8 Increase scantily.
9 Wind blowing eastward.
10 Tooth-marked.
11 Mine passage.
12 Relate.
13 Hearty.
18 Skating.
23 Defined space.
25 Quote.
26 Scuffle.
28 Feel intuitively.
29 Ingress.
30 Forbidding of main.
31 Smeared with yolk.
32 Smack.
33 Dressed in.
34 Had the power to.
37 The coming of Luna.
38 Without Fr.
40 African tree with seeds yielding yellowish fat.
41 Ocean fathoms.
43 Choose first.
44 Banked as seats.
46 Stow Cargo with a Jackscrew.
47 Kind of lizard.
48 Repaired shoes.
49 Alackaday.
50 Early inhabitant of Britain.
51 Persian fairy.
52 Hastened.
56 Egyptian god.
57 Rower's shaft.

SMITTY
YEOW! A LETTER FROM THATTY!!
TEN DOLLARS!
OH, HE HAD GOOD LUCK!
AND WHAT DOES HE THAY, MA?
HE SAYS HIS BOSS WAS FEELING VERY HAPPY THIS WEEK AND HE GAVE HIM A BONUS OF TEN DOLLARS!!

THE GUMPS

DO YOU KNOW THAT POOR GUY?
KNOW HIM? WHY, HE'S THE MAN WHO BROKE THE POOR LITTLE COUNTESS' HEART—
IT SURE IS A SMALL WORLD—YOU KNOW, HE DIDN'T TALK LIKE A HEARTBREAKER—IN FACT, HE SOUNDED LIKE HE WAS THE ONE WITH THE BROKEN HEART.
SH—HE'S BEGINNING TO MUMBLE AGAIN—
MY DARLING LITTLE COUNTESS—I WON'T DRAG YOU DOWN TO MY POVERTY-STRIKEN LEVEL—I'LL JUST FADE OUT OF YOUR LIFE.

LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE

I THINK WE'VE GOT A WEEK—BUT WE AREN'T TAKING CHANCES—FROM NOW ON, I WANT EVERY EXIT O' THAT HOUSE OF AXEL'S COVERED DAY AND NIGHT—
KEEP OUT OF SIGHT—LET 'EM COME AND GO—BUT HAVE A TOMMY GUN COVERING EVERY DOOR, WINDOW, TUNNEL, SEWER OUTLET, ROOF—EVEN THE RAT-HOLES!
SOME NIGHT SOON AXEL WILL HAVE ALL HIS 'GENERALS' IN FOR THE FINAL ORDERS—O. K.—KEEP A COUNT ON 'EM—WHEN THEY'RE ALL INSIDE, WE ACT—QUICK AND QUIET—

SUPERMAN—By Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster

BO—By Frank Beck

TERRY AND THE PIRATES

MARY WORTH'S FAMILY

SMILIN' JACK

TARZAN—No. 234

By EDGAR RICE BURROUGHS

What's Happened to Tommy?

By ALICE DENTON JENNINGS, Noted Atlanta Astrologist

What today means to you if you were born between:

March 21st and April 19th (ARIES)—Go ahead with your personal schemes today, but be careful what you write and avoid splurging. Too much undertaken around the present time in a financial way may prove burdensome later.

April 20th and May 20th (TAURUS)—You are likely to have a tendency to overwork, or it may be that some responsibility that you could not get out of may prove very heavy today. If so, it will take time to right things.

May 21st and June 20th (GEMINI)—This is a day to ignore new plans. Your enthusiasm is too high, and new undertakings are apt to prove unsmooth. June 21st and July 22nd (CANCER)—Financial decision should be made on the safest possible basis. Hold fast to what you have, and veto risks of any kind.

July 23rd and August 22nd (LEO)—If you will take it easy and go slow, the day will turn out better. You are likely to have plenty of chance to make mistakes by rushing in too quickly.

August 23rd and September 22nd (VIRGO)—Plans that are to be matured over a period of time are favored today. Your emotions are unreliable, however, and dealings with loved ones may be touchy.

September 23rd and October 22nd (LIBRA)—You may have to face some disturbance close at hand which proves a worry. Use care in legal affairs and

Your Own Horoscope for Today

By ALICE DENTON JENNINGS, Noted Atlanta Astrologist

In dealings with professional people.

October 23rd and November 21st (SCORPIO)—Affairs and people may prove almost explosive. You may have sudden demands, but plan to look at things with calmness, and do not make sudden changes.

November 22nd and December 21st (SAGITTARIUS)—Today favors assuming responsibilities. You should be able to step out of a rut and make headway, but do not take on more than you can do with ease. Your ambitions may be greater than your strength now.

December 22nd and January 19th (CAPRICORN)—Business and January 20th and February 18th (AQUARIUS)—Control your feelings around home people and in domestic interests. Dealings with the public, and financial matters should make favorable progress.

February 19th and March 20th (PISCES)—This should prove to be an inspirational day in creative and educational affairs, or in dealings with people interested in such works. Use care around real estate, or in deals pertaining to the land.

Map Your Life According to Its Plan

If you would like to have an Astrological Chart covering your sign of the Zodiac, THE CONSTITUTION will be glad to send it to you. All that is necessary is to fill in and follow directions in this coupon:

Alice Denton Jennings, The Atlanta Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

I enclose:

1. Self-addressed stamped envelope.

2. Ten cents in coin to cover mailing.

I was born: MONTH — DATE — YEAR —

Name —

Address — City —

You may obtain as many Astrological Charts as you wish for your family and friends. There is nothing to do except to send in the birthdate, address, self-addressed stamped envelope and 10 cents in coin to cover EACH birthday, in accordance with this coupon.

Right to the Second!

Today's Radio Programs

Today's Hour-by-Hour Calendar

WGST, 890 Kc. WSB, 740 Kc. WAGA, 1450 Kc. WATL, 1370 Kc.

Note: Where no listing is given, last program in preceding listing is continued.

5:45 A. M.
WSB—Merry-Go-Round.
WATL—Sign on.

6 A. M.
WGST—News and Sunday; 6:10, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS; 6:15, News and Sunday.
WSB—News; 6:10, Merry-Go-Round.
WATL—News; 6:15, Johnny Pierce.

6:30 A. M.
WGST—Mountaineers; 6:45, Hal Burns' Varieties.
WSB—Outdoor Georgia; 6:55, Weather.
WAGA—Yawn Patrol.
WATL—Songs of the Pioneers; 6:45, Top of the Morning.

7 A. M.
WGST—News; 7:00, Sunday; 7:15, Bob WAG—News; 7:15, Yawn Patrol.
WATL—News; 7:05, Charles Smithgall.

7:30 A. M.
WGST—Sammy Kord's Music; 7:45, Eddie Duchin's Music.
WSB—Studio; 7:45, Harry Barfield.

8:30 A. M.
WGST—Duke Ellington's Music; 8:10, ATLANTA CONSTITUTION NEWS; 8:15, News and Sunday.
WSB—News; 8:05, Penelope Penn; 8:20, Merry-Go-Round.
WATL—News; 8:05, Charles Smithgall.

9:30 A. M.
WGST—Lucy Mann; 8:45, News and Sunday.
WSB—Merry-Go-Round; 8:45, Crackerjacks.
WAGA—Breakfast Club.
WATL—Lincoln Highway.

10:30 A. M.
WGST—Radio City.
WSB—Studio; 9:05, Erskine Hawkins' Music; 9:15, Women in the News.

11:30 A. M.
WGST—Variety Hour.
WSB—Salon Orchestra; 9:45, Enid Day.
WAGA—Call and Lee Reiser; 9:45, Charloters.
WATL—First Offender.

12:30 P. M.
WGST—News; 10:05, Launching of U. S. S. Washington.
WSB—News; 10:15, Sports School.
WAGA—Spud Murphy's Music.
WATL—News; 10:05, Sing Crosby's Songs; 10:15, Russ Morgan's Music.

1:30 P. M.
WGST—Cincinnati Conservatory of Music.
WSB—Joe Gallicchio's Music.
WAGA—Radio Bible Class.
WATL—Church of Christ; 10:45, This Wonderful World.

2:30 P. M.
WGST—Red Cross Speaker; 11:05, Musical Pickups.
WSB—G. S. C. W. Program.
WAGA—Bible Class; 11:15, Blue Barron's Music.
WATL—Church of Christ; 11:15, Jack Thompson's Music.

3:30 P. M.
WGST—Let's Pretend.
WSB—National Farm and Home Hour.
WAGA—Call to Youth; 11:45, Pop Eckler's Jambores.
WATL—Orin Tucker's Music; 11:45, Zeke Manners.

4:30 P. M.
WGST—Off the Record.
WSB—Farm and Home Hour.
WAGA—News; 12:15, Market Reports; 12:20, Rhythm Makers.
WATL—News; 12:05, Merry-Go-Round.

5:30 P. M.
WGST—Off the Record.
WSB—H. V. Kaltenborn; 12:45, Forward Georgia.
WAGA—Luncheon at the Waldorf.

6:30 P. M.
WGST—Baron Elliott's Melodies.
WSB—Bob Rogers' Music.
WAGA—Ray Kinney's Music.
WATL—News; 1:05, Al Donnan's Music; 1:15, May on 9th Street.

7:30 P. M.
WGST—Matinee Melodies; 1:40, News; 1:45, Folies.
WAGA—Howard Ross; 1:45, Major Minor and Marian.
WATL—Ted Flo Rita's Music.

8:30 P. M.
WGST—Marine Band.
WSB—Fortune Washed Away; 2:15, June Bridger.
WAGA—Les Brown's Music.
WATL—News; 2:05, Downway Jack.

9:30 P. M.
WGST—Atlanta Constitution News; 2:35, Vera Brodsky.
WAGA—Radio City Music Hall.
WATL—St. Luke's Episcopal church.

10:30 P. M.
WGST—Sunday Melodies.
WSB—Music for Moderns.
WAGA—Listen and Live; 12:15, Vass Family.
WATL—Music Masters; 12:15, Hal Kemp's Music.

11:30 P. M.
WGST—Democracy in Action.
WSB—News; 12:45, Silver Strings.
WAGA—Novatine; 12:45, Tropical Melodies.
WATL—Tommy Dorsey's Music; 12:45, Benny Goodman's Music.

12:30 P. M.
WGST—Salute to the Americas.
WSB—Salute to the Americas.
WAGA—Treasure Trails of Song.
WATL—News; 1:15, Glen Gray's Music.

1:30 P. M.
WGST—News; 1:35, To be announced.
WSB—Georgia Public Forum.
WAGA—Salon Silhouettes.
WATL—Musical Comedy Echoes.

2:30 P. M.
WGST—Columbia Broadcasting Symphony.
WSB—Program.
WAGA—News; 2:15, Foreign Policy Association.
WATL—Swing Session.

3:30 P. M.
WSB—News; 2:45, H. V. Kaltenborn.
WAGA—Coronado Cuarto Centennial.
WATL—Churches of God.

4:30 P. M.
WGST—Invitation to Learning.
WSB—The World Is Yours.

5:30 P. M.
WGST—Atlanta Civic Chorus.
WSB—Vivette; 4:15, Three Cheers.
WATL—Music.

6:30 P. M.
WGST—Flow Gently, Sweet Rhythm.
WSB—Airport Reporter.
WAGA—Baseball Game.
WATL—Rendezvous.

7:30 P. M.
WGST—Columbia Concert Orchestra.
WSB—Catholic Hour.
WAGA—Russ Morgan's Music; 5:15, Second Game of Double-Header.

8:30 P. M.
WGST—Your Hit Parade; 8:45, Saturday Night Serenade.

On the Network

6:00 P. M.—Radio's Kindergarten—nbc-weaf.
Radio Message of Israel—nbc-wjz.
People's Platform Talks—cbs-wabz.
Program for the Children—nbc-wjz.
6:15—Dance Music Orchestra—nbc-wor.
6:30—Dance Music Orchestra—nbc-wor.
The Sky Blazers Program—cbs-wabz.
Arthur Hale's Broadcast—nbc-wjz.
6:45—S. Balter, Sports—nbc-wor-east.
H. V. Kaltenborn Com.—nbc-weaf.
7:00—Half Hour of Drama—nbc-wjz.
Dancing Music Orchestra—nbc-wor.
"Gang Buster," Dramatic—cbs-wabz.
Dance Music Orchestra—nbc-wjz.
7:30—Dancing Music Orch.—cbs-wabz.
The Radio's Guild Drama—nbc-wjz.
Warne King and Orchestra—cbs-wabz.
Nobody's Children, Drama—nbc-wjz.
7:55—Elmer Davis News—cbs-wabz.
8:00—NBC's Concert Orch.—nbc-wjz.
National Radio Barn Dance—nbc-wjz.
The Saturday Hit Parade—cbs-wabz.
Hawaii Calls Broadcast—nbc-wor.
8:30—Dance Music Orchestra—nbc-weaf.
Mozart Opera Program—nbc-wjz.
8:45—Truth, Consequences—wabc only.
Sunday Night Serenade—cbs-wabz.
9:00—Bob Crosby Orchestra—nbc-wor.
NBC's Concert Orchestra—nbc-wjz.
9:15—Public Affairs Talk—cbs-wabz.
9:30—Dance Orchestra—nbc-wor-east.
The Grand Old Opry—nbc-wor-east.
Melody in the Night Orch.—nbc-wjz.
The New Nineties, News—cbs-wabz.
News; Dance Orchestra—nbc-wor.
10:00—Dance and News to 12—nbc-wjz.
News; Dance Music till 1—cbs-wabz.
Old Dominion Barn Dance—cbs-wabz.
11:00—Dance Music orch. to 4—nbc-wjz.

Short Wave

BERLIN—3:30 P. M.—United States and Germany; 12.7 m. 23.4 m. D/B, 13.20 meg, 19.7 m.
BUENOS AIRES—6:35 P. M.—"Hungarian Rhapsody," HATS, 9.9 meg, 31.17 m.
MOSCOW—7 P. M.—Broadcast in English. R/R, 15.24 meg, 19.7 m. RNE, 12 meg, 23 m.
LONDON—8:15 P. M.—"Dispatches from the Front." GSD, 10.17 meg, 25.5 m.; GSC, 9.58 meg, 31.3 m.

Sunday's Hour-by-Hour Calendar

WGST, 890 Kc. WSB, 740 Kc. WAGA, 1450 Kc. WATL, 1370 Kc.

Note: Where no listing is given, last program in preceding listing is continued.

5:30 P. M.
WGST—Melody Ranch.
WSB—Concert Hall Echoes; 5:30, News.
WATL—Show of the Week.

6 P. M.
WGST—News of the World.
WSB—Jack Benny.
WAGA—Baseball Game.
WATL—News; 6:15, Rev. A. M. Wade.

6:30 P. M.
WGST—Elmer Davis News.
WSB—Bangwagon.
WAGA—Baseball Game; 6:35, Baseball Scores.
WATL—Rev. A. M. Wade.

7 P. M.
WGST—To Be Announced.
WSB—Edgar Bergen.
WAGA—News.
WATL—News.

7:30 P. M.
WGST—Song Stylers; 7:35, News.
WSB—One Man's Family.
WAGA—Colonial Hill Baptist Church.
WATL—Ave Maria Hour.

8 P. M.
WGST—Summer Hour.
WSB—Happy Jim Winchell; 8:15, Parker Family.
WAGA—Colonial Hill Baptist Church.
WATL—News; 8:15, Druid Hill Baptist Church.

8:30 P. M.
WSB—American Album of Familiar Music.
WAGA—Glorious One; 8:45, Bill Stern.

9 P. M.
WGST—Georgia Tech Program.
WSB—Hour of Charm.
WAGA—Goodwill Hour.
WATL—News; 9:05, Symphonic Hour.

10 P. M.
WGST—Columbia Workshop.
WSB—Bobby Byrne's Music.
WAGA—Headlines and Bylines; 10:15, Bob Chester's Music.
WATL—News; 10:15, Teddy Powell's Music.

10:30 P. M.
WAGA—Baptist Training Union Chorus.
WATL—News; 10:15, Rhapsody.

11:30 P. M.
WGST—Music That You Want.
WSB—Francis Craig's Music; 11:45, News; 11:48, Francis Craig's Music; 11:45, News; 11:45, Matty Malneck's Music; 11:45, News; 11:45, Matty Malneck's Music.

12 MIDNIGHT
WGST—Sign Off.
WSB—Sleepy Hollow.
WAGA—Sign Off.
WATL—News; 12:05, George Stearns' Music.

12:30 A. M.
WSB—Carlos Molina's Music; 12:45, News and Carlos Molina's Music.
WATL—Bill McCune's Music.

1 A. M.
WSB—News; 1:05, Sign Off.
WATL—News; 1:05, Sign Off.

Tune In SATURDAY MORNING
9 - 10 O'CLOCK
Castleberry's
Capers
60 Minutes of Fun, Music, Frolic
STATION WGST
890 ON YOUR DIAL

HEAR

J.C. MOTT ALDREDGE
Sheriff Fulton County
Hear Francis Dwyer, Well-known Lawyer, Speak for Aldredge.

WGSTip

SERVING YOU 18 HOURS EVERY DAY IS A JOB—

We take pride in doing. WGST-CBS strives always to give you the very best in radio entertainment, culture, and world happenings. WGST belongs to Atlanta and Georgia—and to them our efforts are dedicated. Judging from the response to our efforts and programs—we know the job is WORTH WHILE!!

Harry Barfield
Candidate for Sheriff

WSB . . 7:45 A. M. Saturday Women Only

WGST . . 9:30 P. M. Saturday

WATL . . 8:15 P. M. Tuesday

WGST . . 10:45 P. M. Tuesday

CONSTITUTION WANT ADS BRING RESULTS

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf of a book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor discoloration and a vertical crease on the left side. A small dark spot is visible near the bottom left corner. The page is set against a dark background.

Classified Display

Automotive

Watch This Spot
FOR
TODAY'S BEST BUYS

*38 FORD Convertible Cab	$495
*37 DE SOTO 4-Door Touring	$65
*35 CHEVROLET Master 4-Door	150
*35 OLDS 2-Door	150
*35 FORD 2-Door	150

J. L. Briscoe & Co.
80 FORREST AVE.
MA. 1173.

BEFORE YOU BUY ANY USED CAR

SEE US FOR THE BEST DEAL IN TOWN

53

NORTH AVE.

WAS NOW

339 Dodge D. L. Sedan	$695	$645
339 Dodge Sport Coupe	$645	$595
339 Dodge 770 Tour. Sedan	695	645
339 Plymouth D. L. 2-Dr. Touring	595	545
339 Plymouth 2-Dr. Touring	545	495
339 Plymouth 4-Dr. Touring	575	525
339 Chevrolet 2-Dr. Touring	595	545
339 Ford '88 1/2 Coupe, radio	545	495
339 Ford D. L.	475	425

'38 Plymouth 2-Dr. Sedan; radio...	495	445
------------------------------------	-----	-----

'38 Packard 4-Dr. Touring Sedan.....	675	595
'37 De Soto Touring Sedan.....	445	375
'37 De Soto Touring Sedan.....	475	395
'37 Plymouth D. L. Touring Sedan.....	395	345
'37 Ford 2-Door Touring Sedan.....	295	245
'37 Plymouth D. L. 2-Door Sedan.....	375	345
'36 Deodge Touring Sedan.....	345	295
'36 Plymouth Touring Sedan.....	325	295
'35 Olds "8" Sedan.....	295	245
'35 Chevrolet 2-Dr. Sedan.....	295	245
'35 Nash La Fayette Sedan.....	175	145
'35 Plymouth Coach.....	165	125
'34 Plymouth Coach.....	175	135
'34 Hudson.....	145	95

'31 Chevrolet	95	75
---------------	----	----

'31 Ford	115	90
ReoStar .....
'29 Ford	75	60
Coach .....

J. M. Harrison & Co.
Dodge-Plymouth Dealer
53 NORTH AVE.
 Open Evenings HE. 1650

---

G TALE SHORT"

an Austrian philosopher says that the man who gives in when he is wrong is wise, but that the man no gives in when he is right is probably married. We want both married and single men to remember that the cars listed below are dandy (and not abused) bargains, priced to make walking expensive.

Not Been Used!

1939 BUICK
Club Coupe; equipped with radio
SPECIAL

OLDSMOBILE $ 65
Sedan .....

PONTIAC	125
Sedan
CHEVROLET	345
Sedan
PLYMOUTH	575
Coach
FORD De Luxe	595
Tudor
PONTIAC 2-Door	595
Sedan
CHEVROLET	595
Town Sedan
FORD Fordor De	475
Luxe Sedan
CHEVROLET	345
Coach
FORD	295
Tudor
FORD	275
Tudor

FOR 20

ST., N. W.
WA. 3539

772 Degrees Are Awarded By University

David S. Atkinson, of Savannah, Heads Alumni.

Special to THE CONSTITUTION. ATHENS, Ga., May 31.—Seven hundred and seventy-two seniors had degrees conferred upon them at the University of Georgia's 17th annual graduation exercises today at twilight in the campus amphitheater.

The first doctors' degrees to be given in the state were awarded to Horace Montgomery, of California, Pa., and Joe Jacob, of Athens, formerly of Americus. Earlier in the day, the University of Georgia Alumni Society elected David S. Atkinson, '05, Savannah attorney, as its president. He succeeds Hutton Lovejoy, of LaGrange.

Other Officers. Other alumni officers named included John S. Chandler II, Atlanta, and Bright McConnell, Augusta, to the board of managers; and Charles MacLean, Savannah; Walter Burt, Albany; Frank Foley, Columbus; Ellis Arnall, Newnan; Philip Alston Jr., Atlanta; Erwin Sibley, Milledgeville; Wilson Hardy, Rome; Kontz Bennett, Waycross; Edgar Kenyon, Gainesville, and Gwinn Nixon, Augusta, district vice presidents.

Certificates were presented Dr. Frank K. Boland, of Atlanta, and Thomas Walter Reed, university registrar, for distinguished service to the university.

Mr. Atkinson, in presenting Major Clark Howell, who represented the class of 1915, as editor and publisher of The Atlanta Constitution, said he hoped The Constitution always would remain a Georgia-owned newspaper, primarily interested in Georgia. Major Howell, in acknowledging the introduction, said it would, unless the sheriff prevented. "And so long as the good people of Georgia continue to support The Constitution as they have in the past, that cannot happen," he said.

Former Governor Talmadge represented the class of 1905 and Abit Nix, of Athens, the class of 1910. Governor Talmadge spoke of Georgia, as the first state university to be established in the nation and of Wesleyan College at Macon as the first woman's college in America, to show how deep-rooted education is in Georgia. He urged graduates to attend class reunions in larger numbers.

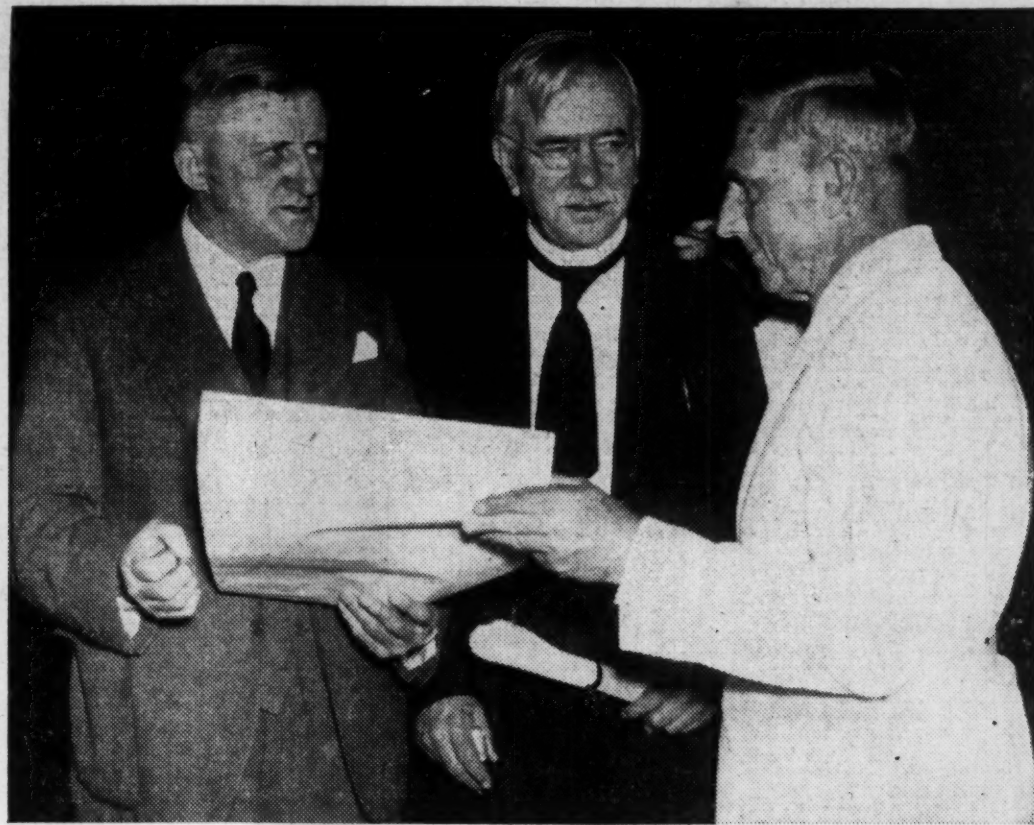

Nix told about the tremendous progress education has made in this state and the continued progress being accomplished in educating Georgia's boys and girls. He paid tribute to the teachers for the valuable service they are rendering to the state and its youth.

Among other class representatives present were the following: A. T. Drake, of Philomath, class of 1899; T. C. Hardman, of Commerce, class of 1890; J. Clark Hayes Sr., of Elberton, class of 1890.

H. H. Ezzard, of Dalton; W. A. Harris, of Macon; Albert Foster, of Madison; Hayes Cloud, of Crawfordville; Arthur Plateau, of Athens; Dr. U. G. E. Murphy, of

IN MEMORIAM—Members of the University of Georgia Alumni Society yesterday presented to the university a portrait of the late Chancellor C. M. Snelling, painted by the late Miss Lucy Stanton, of Athens. Dr. John D. Wade, left, chairman of the society's memorial committee, presented the portrait, which was unveiled by Charles M. Snelling III, of Greenville, S. C., grandson of the late chancellor. It was accepted for the university by President Harmon W. Caldwell, right.

RECOGNITION—When the University of Georgia Alumni Society met in Athens yesterday in annual session, one of the features of its program was the presentation of certificates to individuals who have rendered distinguished service to the university. Recipients were Dr. Frank K. Boland, left, of Atlanta, and Thomas Walter Reed, center, university registrar. The certificates were presented by Hutton Lovejoy, right, of LaGrange, retiring president of the alumni society.

HouseGroup Hears Mrs. Richardson

Prefacing her remarks by saying she was "scared to death," Mrs. Alonzo Richardson, prominent in Atlanta civic and women's organizations, appeared before the house interstate commerce committee in Washington yesterday to speak in opposition to the Neely bill to abolish compulsory block booking and "blind" selling of motion pictures, the Associated Press reported.

Mrs. Richardson, speaking as a representative of the Better Films Committee of Atlanta, told the committee there was nothing in the bill which would remedy conditions which civic organizations sought to improve. Mrs. Richardson described the film group as an organization which for 20 years had been attempting to improve the film fare of Atlanta through co-operation with theater owners.

BOWDEN ASKED TO RUN.

A petition bearing 600 names was presented to former Alderman James E. Bowden last night urging him to run against L. O. Moseley in the forthcoming city elections. Moseley represents third ward.

HIGH'S BASEMENT

WHITE STRAWS
BIG SAVINGS!
$1.49 to $3.98 Values
88¢
Real values! For mother and daughter! Select several of these extremely low priced, big and little brims.
HIGH'S BASEMENT

Radio Ban on Reds Is Sought by Chain

NEW YORK, May 31.—(AP)—Protesting an announced broadcast Sunday of the American Communist party's convention proceedings, officials of a radio chain and a former congressman today demanded that the government ban Communists from the nation's radio lanes.

In a public statement, the Columbia Broadcasting System urged revision of the communications law "so that no broadcaster is compelled to give time to the candidates of any political party if it is proven to be subversive to a foreign power."

Former Democratic Representative John J. O'Connor, of New York, threatened to seek an injunction banning the Browder broadcast.

When You think of Foot Correction Think of Dr. Parker's Health Shoes
216 Peachtree

'I'M AFTER GENE,' NIX TELLS REUNION

Special to THE CONSTITUTION. ATHENS, Ga., May 31.—Eugene Talmadge, former Governor of Georgia and certain to be a candidate this year for the office again, spoke for the class of 1905 here today at the class reunion exercises. He was followed by Abit Nix, for the class of 1910, also a probable candidate for Governor, who stimulated much interest when he added: "Well, I'm after Gene."

Speculation was rife whether he meant in numerical order or actually after Talmadge for the governorship—or both. There was much talk about Nix's meaning, and there were many who strongly believe the Athens man will be a candidate against Talmadge.

Augusta, and J. H. Porter, of Atlanta, all of the class of 1895.

Feature of the formal alumni program was the unveiling of a portrait of the late Charles Mercer Snelling, chancellor of the university, by Charles Mercer Snelling III, of Greenville, S. C. The portrait was presented through the memorial committee, of which Dr. F. P. Calhoun, of Atlanta, is chairman.

Dr. Pierce Harris, of Jacksonville, Fla., made the principal address of the day.

Graduates from Atlanta and the immediate vicinity receiving degrees were as follows:

Master of Arts—Walter Frances Cowart, Union City, Ga.; Master of Science in Education—Joseph C. Bledsoe, Atlanta; Bachelor of Laws—Byron Henley Matthews Jr., Atlanta; Bachelor of Arts—Helen Beam, Betty Sara Boorstein, Geraldine Farrar, Virginia Wardlaw Drake, Sara Elizabeth Everett, Mary Ann Geissler, Harry Boykin Harney Jr., Sara Joyce Richardson, Robert Louis Rothberg, Louis Seymour Sohn Jr., Martha Henrie Spitzer, John Louis Wye III, Asher Louis Weill and Eugenia Ann Zachary, all of Atlanta; John Baptiste Dumestre, Avondale Estates, and William Hobgood McNeil, Fairburn; Bachelor of Arts in Journalism—Louise Marie Connell, Susan Grey Dillingham, Coral Lois Lennard, Eleva Carlton Smith and Margaret Mattux Stoddard, all of Atlanta; Betty Almand, College Park; and Sarah Ann Ferguson, Marietta; Bachelor of Arts in Education—John Pryor Hays, Edna Elise Muse, Jean Minton Peabody and P. A. Smith, all of Atlanta; Bachelor of Science—James Jay Clark Jr., Hal Robert Guilmette, August Turner, and Thomas Dillard Worthington, all of Atlanta; and Roy Kenneth Duffie, Decatur; Bachelor of Science in Commerce—William Akers Jr., Lois Elinor Bridges, William Clarke Claude Griffin Jr., Frances Marian Hickman, Mary Jean Ivey, William Freeman Mims, Edward Owen Perry Jr., William Harburt Randall, James Irvin Vansant and James J. Wallace Jr., all of Atlanta; Perry Lewis Harrison, Oglethorpe University; Jane Roberts Johnson, College Park; William de Jarnette Little, Marietta; Mary Helen McClure, Union City; Hazel Novaline Oates, Avondale Estates; Bachelor of Science in Chemistry—John Evans Reese, Atlanta; Bachelor of Science in Education—Frances Key Blankenship, Joe Herman Gerson, Mary Frances Middlebrooks, Marion Thomas North, Marian Frances Rainey and Margaret Frances Young, all of Atlanta; Kathleen Taylor Brannon, College Park; Sarah Lufred Brooks, Decatur; Martha Louise Paris, Alpharetta; Bachelor of Science in Agriculture—Thomas Buie Morris and William Donald Williams, all of Atlanta; Carl Edward Jackson, Decatur; Leonard Roscoe Payne, Canton; Irvin Tatum Rhodes, Alpharetta; James Brantley Ward, Hapeville; Bachelor of Science in Home Economics—Nancy Eleanor Chambers, Catherine Etelle McCalley and Dorothy Lucille Watson, all of Atlanta; Mary Helen Paris and Martha Nell Norman, Alpharetta; Katherine Elizabeth Summerour, Norcross; Clara Lillian Baldwin and Alyce Harrison Walker, Decatur; Bachelor of Science in Forestry—Albert Pile Boyd, Charles Joseph Everett, Joseph Clinton Folsom Jr., William Johnson Prince, all of Atlanta; Bachelor of Science in Agricultural Engineering—Barnett, Alpharetta; Robert Scott, Department 36, Malden, Mass.; Julia Martha Wine, Atlanta.

Hapeville Boy Is Drowned in An Open Well

Dan C. McCue, Son of Army Sergeant, Falls 40 Feet.

Dan Clayton McCue, five-year-old son of Sergeant and Mrs. E. S. McCue, of 45 Pine street, Hapeville, was drowned late yesterday afternoon when he fell into a 40-foot uncovered well in a vacant lot on Myrtle street, Hapeville.

The child apparently remained at the bottom of the well for nearly an hour and was dead when brought to the surface. Sergeant McCue is in the army air corps and is stationed at Candler field. Fulton county police, who assisted in rescue work, said young McCue wandered from his mother while she was visiting at a home at 3280 Myrtle street, near the vacant lot.

When the child could not be found, the mother became apprehensive and called police. The body was first discovered by W. C. Sims, of 3288 Myrtle street, who dropped a grappling hook to the bottom of the well and succeeded in raising the body to the water surface.

Hubert Tidwell, a Hapeville city water works employee, was then lowered into the well by firemen. Funeral arrangements will be announced by Brandon-Camp Funeral Home.

Eight Persons Plead 'Guilty' In Fulton Court

Judge Hendrix Sentences Range From Probation to Five Years.

Eight persons entered pleas of guilty to various crimes and received sentences in Fulton superior court yesterday.

Charles Campbell, white, admitted the burglary of $50 worth of goods from the Bagwell Drug Company, at 1039 Highland avenue, May 6 and was given four to five years.

Leonard Ector, Negro, got two to three years for the burglary of a barber shop at 608 Lee street April 28.

Acie Jordan, Negro, was sentenced to one to two years for burglary of the Hillard Heating & Plumbing Company May 16.

Herman Singleton and Grady Carlisle, white youths about 15 years of age, were sent to the industrial farm for breaking into the car of T. A. Kitchens, of 1645 Rogers avenue, and taking $150 worth of fishing tackle March 21.

Winton Rowe, white, got 12 months for larceny of the car of H. B. Crusselle, of 304 Rawson street, on May 24.

Bob Gentry and Claude Staples, white, got 12 months for larceny of the car of Steve Parsons. Staples was placed on probation, while Gentry's sentence was made to run concurrent with another sentence of 23 months.

Judge Walter C. Hendrix passed all sentences.

King Leopold Prisoner Of War, Berlin Reports
BERLIN, May 31.—(UP)—King Leopold of the Belgians was reported authoritatively tonight to be a prisoner of war. Officials were said to regard him as the captured commander of an army, rather than a king.

ITCHING AND BURNING OF ECZEMA
Irritation quickly soothed by use of usually effective, mildly medicated Cuticura. Buy today at your drugist's. FREE sample, write Cuticura, Department 36, Malden, Mass.

CUTICURA SOAP and OINTMENT

Arkansas Orders Listing of Aliens

LITTLE ROCK, Ark., May 31.—(AP)—Directing state police to investigate possible fifth "column" activity in Arkansas, Governor Carl E. Bailey in a proclamation today called on all aliens to register their fingerprints and photographs.

Aliens were directed to register their names, addresses, occupations, fingerprints and photographs with sheriffs or police departments which would file the information with the state police department.

Bartenders' Union Sues Al Capone Syndicate

CHICAGO, May 31.—(AP)—The Capone syndicate was accused today in a suit filed in circuit court of "muscling" into the bartenders' union and establishing its own dictator over more than 4,000 union members.

The suit, filed by George B. McLane, founder of the union, alleged he was depressed as business agent through intimidation and that a member of the syndicate has taken complete control of the union.

The syndicate was described as a group that took over gang activities after Al Capone was imprisoned for income tax evasion several years ago.

Seversky Says Nazi Attack on Isle Is Difficult

Noted Aircraft Builder Says Invasion Not Possible Soon.

NEW YORK, May 31.—(UP)—Major Alexander P. de Seversky, American aircraft builder and speed flier, said tonight that a German invasion of England cannot be accomplished in the next few months, and may be staved off long enough to permit the Allies to erect impregnable defenses.

For that reason he anticipates that the heat of the next German thrust very likely will be directed against France.

Regarding current "panic" that Germany will invade England, Seversky, who has a woden leg as a World War souvenir, observed that "we always swing in hysteria like a pendulum."

"When Germany started to attack Norway," he recalled, "it was obvious that no naval force could have blocked the German conquest of that country, and yet a lot of people felt that the German escape would be an awful flop—they felt it would be impossible for the Germans to carry troops through the Skagerrak because of the superiority of the British naval forces."

Seversky speaks with authority, because during the World War he commanded the imperial Russian navy's Baltic pursuit squadron.

"But students of aerial warfare," he continued, "realize that if anyone has command of the air over land or sea, nothing can be done in defense against such a power until the air is cleared. That was what happened in the Skagerrak."

"Now people are swinging in the other direction. This has happened in the past couple of weeks, and again the popular impression is absurd. There can be no immediate invasion of England because while Germany had complete mastery of the air over Scandinavia, she does not have it over England by a long shot."

"Defensively, Britain is greatly superior. Her Spitfire, which I flew last summer, is a superior plane to any which the Germans have in great numbers. Therefore, no invasion of England is possible until that superiority of the air over England is achieved."

"The near future may tell a different story of the war in Europe."

62d Antiaircraft Unit Passes Through Atlanta

Forty officers and 942 men of the 62nd coast artillery (antiaircraft), from Fort Totten, N. Y., stopped overnight at Fort McPherson last night en route from the army maneuvers in the Sabine

OLD HICKORY SEZ—
"MEBBE OTHER WHISKY COMES AS GOOD... BUT I AIN'T FOUND IT YET!"
$1.00 FULL PINT
$2.00 QUART (illustrated)
55c HALF PINT
Also Straight Bourbon 90 Proof
4 YEARS OLD
CONTINENTAL DISTILLING CORP., PHILA., PA.

IS IT BASEBALL, SWIMMING, or TENNIS?
This is the time of the year. Ice Bureau, will interest you, to get out your tennis racket, your baseball glove and bat, and your swim suit in readiness for the good times you will have in the warm days of the spring and summer.

A packet of three booklets and one bulletin, now ready for you at The Constitution's Service Bureau—
CLIP COUPON HERE—
F. M. KIRBY, Dept. SP-1, Constitution Service Bureau, 1013 Thirteenth St., Washington, D. C.
Enclosed find 25 cents; send the Sports Packet of three booklets and one leaflet to:

Name.....
Street and Number.....
City.....
I read The Atlanta Constitution.

ED & AL MATTHEWS FURNITURE
GLIDERS On Parade SALE
FREE IF YOU BUY A GLIDER DURING THIS SALE!
9 PIECE BEVERAGE SET

14-PC. PANEL FRONT GROUP
Includes: LARGE GLIDER, GRASS RUG, 2 METAL CHAIRS, METAL TABLE, 9-PC. BEVERAGE SET.
Priced at a Real Saving! $29.95
14 PIECES $1.00 Down $1.00 Weekly

WHITE ENAMEL METAL KITCHEN STOOL
79¢
This is a marvelous value that will give years of comfortable use. Has a leatherette seat.

ALL-STEEL GROUP
12 PIECES $1.00 DOWN
$19.95
This soft, springy steel Glider Set including Glider, 2 Chairs to match and 9-piece Beverage Set on special for this sale.

Other Glider Groups from $19.95 Up
ELECTRIC FAN Reg. $1.59 Chrome Plated Blade 89¢ Cash-Carry
Steamer Chair Sturdy Oak Frame. 79¢ Cash

Ed & Al MATTHEWS
168 EDGEWOOD AVE. WA 2245
Only One Store